

Baseball

Baltimore Beat Old Orioles

NOTE AND COMMENT

At a special meeting of the members of the Ottawa Amateur Athletic Club, according to a despatch, President Ross announced that the secretary has been instructed to write the C.A.A.U. asking what plans it intended making for the annual boxing championship, which has been awarded to the local club.

Now, according to custom the club securing the championship takes the responsibility of putting on the bouts and making the necessary plans, and it is inconceivable that the C.A.A.U. would make such a puerile request as contained in the above despatch. More like the report of the meeting was somewhat garbled and that one of the many eastern newspaper opponents of the union has taken the opportunity to attempt to deliver another blow. N. H. Crow, secretary of the C.A.A.U., did not know anything of the request for aid, not having received any communication when spoken to last night.

A TENPIN SPOKE.

C. C. Brooks' tenpin score of 239, rolled last Saturday, recalls a possible made in this city in 1875 by T. E. Callen, who preceded Messrs. Flanagan & O'Rourke as proprietor of the Grand Central Hotel. In a game with R. A. Callen in the fall of 1875 Mr. Callen played a match on the Black Bull alleys, Queen and Soho-streets, the former winning by 300 to 287. In those days play was more difficult, the alleys being longer than the present regulation and the balls without the present convenient finger holes.

Callen's victory in the Champagne Stakes at Belmont yesterday was his 12th straight victory without a defeat, and the Keene bay colt by Commando—Pastorella, retires for the season the unquestioned champion of the year. His time in the Champagne Stakes, 1:23, is not a record for Belmont, that honor belonging to Roseben, who carried 126 lbs. last fall and did the seven furlongs in 1:22. Callen's dozen of victories include the National Stallion, Eclipse, Great Trial, Brighton Union, Grand Union, Saratoga Special, Turfity, Flatbush, Brighton Produce (colt end), Matron (colt end) and the Champagne Stakes.

AMERICA'S CUP.

The persistent vigor with which the Stockholm end of the present America's cup negotiations are presented would indicate that the Swedish challenger has also some wares to sell.

The California State Baseball League has been declared an outlaw organization, in which respect it has circuit connection in these parts.

Chicago, Detroit and Toronto, the winners of the baseball honors in the three biggest leagues, have at least two points in common. They're in the same latitude and the names have each seven letters. In playing ability Detroit must take the rear, while in these interleague affairs, if not too late to mention, Toronto, like Chicago, is a winner.

And it all depends whether or not you are a winner. Last year, hands and city receptions greeted the Chicago White Sox when they returned to their various homes, after winning the championship. They turned the keys of the Cincinnati City Hall over to Nick Atrock, the old Toronto pitcher, and the papers played up his picture and doings on the front page. This week Nick went back to Cincy again, and the sporting pages played up his picture and doings in the baseball notes, to the effect that Nick Atrock, whose home is in Cincinnati, returned after a season with the Chicago White Sox.

ONE DRAWBACK. One of the drawbacks of professional baseball is the mean advantage players take of each other; anything to win the game, so long as the rules are not openly violated. The champion batsman of the American League, Ty Cobb of Detroit, was a failure in the world's series.

"Cobb did not know whether he was playing ball or trading on air in the world's series," said Johnnie Evers, the second sacker of the Chicago Cubs. We took his measure from the start. "The last league Sunday in St. Louis Cobb was at the National League grounds, where the Cubs were playing the Cardinals. Reubach was pitching. One of our players was sitting near Cobb and heard him remark: "I wouldn't hit 350 against that pitching; I'd hit 300."

"This set me to thinking. Something had to be done to shake Cobb's confidence in his batting. King relieved the situation by remarking before the first game: "Let him to me and I'll stop his hitting." "The first time Cobb took his place at bat King opened fire on him. "You southern rebel," said King, "who gave you any license to play in the union lines?" Other remarks of the kind soon had Cobb huffy and when he shot a few sizzling remarks back at King, we knew we had him. "But we never let up. When he passed the infielders while going to and from his position, they would yell at him. 'Hold, your head up and be gone.' Cobb is a great player, no question about that, but he went to the bad in the series when King harped on the southern rebel stuff."

Star Baseball By Joe Kelley Baltimore Beat Old Orioles

Dan Brothers Misses Liner in Ninth and Loses Game—Clash Again on Friday.

BALTIMORE, Oct. 16.—(Special.)—In a scintillating game, replete with exciting situations, and so close that it was undecided until the last inning, the Eastern League Orioles defeated a rounded-up team of the pennant-winning Orioles of the National League in 1904-5, here to-day, by the close score of 2 to 1. The game was the second of a series which is the feature of the week celebration here, which is now drawing thousands of former players back to their native soil. Joe Kelley, the pennant-winning manager of the Toronto team, who played with the champion Orioles in the golden days of Baltimore, was one of the stars of the game. He played a brilliant game in left field, having four chances, which he accepted without a slip-up. He also made two resounding safe cracks to the outfield. The present Orioles won the game in the ninth inning on hits by Hunter and Dunn and a miscue by Dan Brothers, the first baseman, who let Dunn's liner get by him. The concluding game will be played Friday. Jennings will play in that clash, which the old fellows are determined to capture. The score:

	A. B. R. H. O. A. B.
Hall, 1st	4 0 1 1 0 0
John Kelly, c.f.	4 0 1 1 0 0
Joe Kelley, 1st	3 1 0 0 0 0
Byers, c.	4 0 0 0 1 0
Hunter, 1b	3 2 1 13 0 0
Dunn, 2b	3 0 0 1 0 0
Burdell, 3b	3 0 0 1 1 0
Beach, s.s.	3 0 0 1 2 5
Burchell, p.	2 0 0 1 1 1
Totals	30 7 3 12 1
	A. B. R. H. O. A. B.
Keeler, r.f.	4 0 0 0 0 0
Gleason, s.s.	4 0 0 2 4 0
Joe Kelley, 1st	4 0 0 0 0 0
Brothers, 1b	4 0 1 10 0 1
Doyle, 2b	3 0 0 2 0 0
Brooks, c.f.	4 0 0 1 0 0
Clarke, 3b	4 0 0 1 0 0
McMahon, p.	3 0 0 0 2 3
Totals	32 1 5 24 12

*None out when winning run scored. Baltimore: 0 0 0 1 0 0 0 1—1. Two-base hit—Beach. Sacrifice hit—Dunn. Bases stolen—Joe Kelley, O'Hara, Hunter, McMahon, Brodell, by Burchell (Joe Kelley, Doyle). Left on bases—Old Orioles 10, Baltimore 4. Errors—McMahon, 1. Baltimore 2. Time of game—1:40. Umpires—Betts and Hurst.

American College Rugby.

At Princeton—Princeton 45, Villa Nova 5. At Andover, Mass.—Yale Freshmen 18, Phillips-Andover 0. At Philadelphia—Pennsylvania 23, Gettysburg 0. At Cornell—Cornell Freshmen 6, Ithaca School 0.

OTTAWA, Oct. 16.—The Arconaut-Ottawa game last Saturday revealed the fact that the Ottawa team is behind the line, and unless improvement in that department is made during the next day or two, they may be at the bottom of the barrel. Last night Denny O'Brien, the former St. Patrick's and Ottawa College full back, who has been spending his holiday in Chicago, put on a uniform and played full. His appearance is significant, and probably means that he will play that position against Montreal next Saturday.

Marked in the Ottawa team were Paddy Holland and Billy Baker, both of whom are training the candidates in the Ontario team. The Ottawa team is near George, the Strathcona expect to have their share of the championships. The Ontario team is at the moment secured at H. A. Wilson's.

Strathcona Club Boxers. As usual, the Strathcona club will be well represented in the fall amateur boxing tournament that opens two weeks from Monday. The Strathcona team will be Paddy Holland and Billy Baker, both of whom are training the candidates in the Ontario team. The Ottawa team is near George, the Strathcona expect to have their share of the championships. The Ontario team is at the moment secured at H. A. Wilson's.

Conference of Friends Has Full Representation. RICHMOND, Ind., Oct. 16.—(Special.)—Canada is taking no mean part in the general conference of American Friends now being held in this city. Friends were admitted to full membership and Dr. J. J. Mills, pastor of the Friends' Church at Toronto, one of the delegates, is taking very active part. He conducted the opening devotion services and was named on the important committee on business.

Soccer Notes. All Saints practice to-night on Broadview field at 8 p.m. An important meeting is called for the Broadview Football Club this evening at 8 o'clock, at 161 Terry-street. Members and players are asked to attend. The Saturday afternoon game between the club and the Toronto team is scheduled for that date and will be played on Oct. 19, at the same hour. The Toronto team has entered the intermediate series and will play All Saints Oct. 19, at 3:30.

Sporting Notes. It was decided at last night's meeting of the Underwood Athletic Club to hold an annual bicycle race of ten miles on Saturday, Nov. 2, at 2:30 p.m. on the Danforth road. Over 25 entries have been received and it promises to be no mean affair. Fully 40 riders will be on hand.

The West End Y.M.C.A. Harrier Club are holding their 23rd race on Saturday afternoon at 2:30. They are also holding runs on Monday, Wednesday and Friday nights. All new or prospective members will be welcomed at the W.E.Y.M.C.A. building at any time.

AND NOW EVERYBODY IS WALKING. Young Ladies Tramp Around Belt Line—Over Port Hope Course Again to-day—Ped. Gossip. employed as butcher with the William Davies Company, will attempt to walk from Toronto to Port Hope, a distance of 18 miles, under 38 hours. If Longfellow succeeds to-day he will attempt to lower his record. Mason will make the attempt within a fortnight.

HAMILTON HERALD'S RACE. Renewal of Pioneer Road Event to Be Decided Again on the Holiday.

HAMILTON, Oct. 15.—Of the events in the realm of foot races, none is more classic than The Herald's race around Burlington Bay every Thanksgiving. It dates back further than any other long distance race on the continent, having been instituted in 1884, three years before the famous Boston race was first run. And to-day there is more interest being taken in the event than ever before. Every day the press in the various parts of the continent is announcing that some runner is in training for the event and that a record list of entries Toronto will send at least a dozen candidates, many of whom are well known. Many local boys are training for the event, and there will be a great battle for the trophies.

When The Herald instituted the race distance running was a new game in Canada, and not until Sherring's victory at Athens did it become popular. Since then every city and town in Canada has its annual road race, but The Herald race is recognized as the greatest of them all. A look at the number of champions it has produced is convincing. Jack Carleton, twice winner of the Boston Marathon race; Dennis Bennett, winner of the greatest amateur race; Tom Longway, the greatest amateur in training; and Will Sherring, whose name is athletic world in general. All received their training in the great event. This is a record for a road race. The Herald is striving to make the event more famous from year to year.

On Thanksgiving Day, starting at 9 o'clock and will continue around Burlington Bay, a distance of 19 miles 188 yards, according to the survey of the government engineer who surveyed the course. When Billy Marshall won the first race, he was 19 years old. Hamiltonians could not realize that the distance for a human being to make such a time 2:14. The next year, however, Woods lowered down the four minutes, and it was cut down to 1:54. In 1904, when Sammy Mellor, of Yorkkers, N.Y., defeated C. S. Davis, he made a new record for the distance, which has not since been equaled, although Tom Longway gave it a good shaking last year. Mellor's record was 2:00. The next year, however, Woods lowered down the four minutes, and it was cut down to 1:54. In 1904, when Sammy Mellor, of Yorkkers, N.Y., defeated C. S. Davis, he made a new record for the distance, which has not since been equaled, although Tom Longway gave it a good shaking last year. Mellor's record was 2:00. The next year, however, Woods lowered down the four minutes, and it was cut down to 1:54. In 1904, when Sammy Mellor, of Yorkkers, N.Y., defeated C. S. Davis, he made a new record for the distance, which has not since been equaled, although Tom Longway gave it a good shaking last year. Mellor's record was 2:00. The next year, however, Woods lowered down the four minutes, and it was cut down to 1:54. In 1904, when Sammy Mellor, of Yorkkers, N.Y., defeated C. S. Davis, he made a new record for the distance, which has not since been equaled, although Tom Longway gave it a good shaking last year. Mellor's record was 2:00. The next year, however, Woods lowered down the four minutes, and it was cut down to 1:54. In 1904, when Sammy Mellor, of Yorkkers, N.Y., defeated C. S. Davis, he made a new record for the distance, which has not since been equaled, although Tom Longway gave it a good shaking last year. Mellor's record was 2:00. The next year, however, Woods lowered down the four minutes, and it was cut down to 1:54. In 1904, when Sammy Mellor, of Yorkkers, N.Y., defeated C. S. Davis, he made a new record for the distance, which has not since been equaled, although Tom Longway gave it a good shaking last year. Mellor's record was 2:00. The next year, however, Woods lowered down the four minutes, and it was cut down to 1:54. In 1904, when Sammy Mellor, of Yorkkers, N.Y., defeated C. S. Davis, he made a new record for the distance, which has not since been equaled, although Tom Longway gave it a good shaking last year. Mellor's record was 2:00. The next year, however, Woods lowered down the four minutes, and it was cut down to 1:54. In 1904, when Sammy Mellor, of Yorkkers, N.Y., defeated C. S. Davis, he made a new record for the distance, which has not since been equaled, although Tom Longway gave it a good shaking last year. Mellor's record was 2:00. The next year, however, Woods lowered down the four minutes, and it was cut down to 1:54. In 1904, when Sammy Mellor, of Yorkkers, N.Y., defeated C. S. Davis, he made a new record for the distance, which has not since been equaled, although Tom Longway gave it a good shaking last year. Mellor's record was 2:00. The next year, however, Woods lowered down the four minutes, and it was cut down to 1:54. In 1904, when Sammy Mellor, of Yorkkers, N.Y., defeated C. S. Davis, he made a new record for the distance, which has not since been equaled, although Tom Longway gave it a good shaking last year. Mellor's record was 2:00. The next year, however, Woods lowered down the four minutes, and it was cut down to 1:54. In 1904, when Sammy Mellor, of Yorkkers, N.Y., defeated C. S. Davis, he made a new record for the distance, which has not since been equaled, although Tom Longway gave it a good shaking last year. Mellor's record was 2:00. The next year, however, Woods lowered down the four minutes, and it was cut down to 1:54. In 1904, when Sammy Mellor, of Yorkkers, N.Y., defeated C. S. Davis, he made a new record for the distance, which has not since been equaled, although Tom Longway gave it a good shaking last year. Mellor's record was 2:00. The next year, however, Woods lowered down the four minutes, and it was cut down to 1:54. In 1904, when Sammy Mellor, of Yorkkers, N.Y., defeated C. S. Davis, he made a new record for the distance, which has not since been equaled, although Tom Longway gave it a good shaking last year. Mellor's record was 2:00. The next year, however, Woods lowered down the four minutes, and it was cut down to 1:54. In 1904, when Sammy Mellor, of Yorkkers, N.Y., defeated C. S. Davis, he made a new record for the distance, which has not since been equaled, although Tom Longway gave it a good shaking last year. Mellor's record was 2:00. The next year, however, Woods lowered down the four minutes, and it was cut down to 1:54. In 1904, when Sammy Mellor, of Yorkkers, N.Y., defeated C. S. Davis, he made a new record for the distance, which has not since been equaled, although Tom Longway gave it a good shaking last year. Mellor's record was 2:00. The next year, however, Woods lowered down the four minutes, and it was cut down to 1:54. In 1904, when Sammy Mellor, of Yorkkers, N.Y., defeated C. S. Davis, he made a new record for the distance, which has not since been equaled, although Tom Longway gave it a good shaking last year. Mellor's record was 2:00. The next year, however, Woods lowered down the four minutes, and it was cut down to 1:54. In 1904, when Sammy Mellor, of Yorkkers, N.Y., defeated C. S. Davis, he made a new record for the distance, which has not since been equaled, although Tom Longway gave it a good shaking last year. Mellor's record was 2:00. The next year, however, Woods lowered down the four minutes, and it was cut down to 1:54. In 1904, when Sammy Mellor, of Yorkkers, N.Y., defeated C. S. Davis, he made a new record for the distance, which has not since been equaled, although Tom Longway gave it a good shaking last year. Mellor's record was 2:00. The next year, however, Woods lowered down the four minutes, and it was cut down to 1:54. In 1904, when Sammy Mellor, of Yorkkers, N.Y., defeated C. S. Davis, he made a new record for the distance, which has not since been equaled, although Tom Longway gave it a good shaking last year. Mellor's record was 2:00. The next year, however, Woods lowered down the four minutes, and it was cut down to 1:54. In 1904, when Sammy Mellor, of Yorkkers, N.Y., defeated C. S. Davis, he made a new record for the distance, which has not since been equaled, although Tom Longway gave it a good shaking last year. Mellor's record was 2:00. The next year, however, Woods lowered down the four minutes, and it was cut down to 1:54. In 1904, when Sammy Mellor, of Yorkkers, N.Y., defeated C. S. Davis, he made a new record for the distance, which has not since been equaled, although Tom Longway gave it a good shaking last year. Mellor's record was 2:00. The next year, however, Woods lowered down the four minutes, and it was cut down to 1:54. In 1904, when Sammy Mellor, of Yorkkers, N.Y., defeated C. S. Davis, he made a new record for the distance, which has not since been equaled, although Tom Longway gave it a good shaking last year. Mellor's record was 2:00. The next year, however, Woods lowered down the four minutes, and it was cut down to 1:54. In 1904, when Sammy Mellor, of Yorkkers, N.Y., defeated C. S. Davis, he made a new record for the distance, which has not since been equaled, although Tom Longway gave it a good shaking last year. Mellor's record was 2:00. The next year, however, Woods lowered down the four minutes, and it was cut down to 1:54. In 1904, when Sammy Mellor, of Yorkkers, N.Y., defeated C. S. Davis, he made a new record for the distance, which has not since been equaled, although Tom Longway gave it a good shaking last year. Mellor's record was 2:00. The next year, however, Woods lowered down the four minutes, and it was cut down to 1:54. In 1904, when Sammy Mellor, of Yorkkers, N.Y., defeated C. S. Davis, he made a new record for the distance, which has not since been equaled, although Tom Longway gave it a good shaking last year. Mellor's record was 2:00. The next year, however, Woods lowered down the four minutes, and it was cut down to 1:54. In 1904, when Sammy Mellor, of Yorkkers, N.Y., defeated C. S. Davis, he made a new record for the distance, which has not since been equaled, although Tom Longway gave it a good shaking last year. Mellor's record was 2:00. The next year, however, Woods lowered down the four minutes, and it was cut down to 1:54. In 1904, when Sammy Mellor, of Yorkkers, N.Y., defeated C. S. Davis, he made a new record for the distance, which has not since been equaled, although Tom Longway gave it a good shaking last year. Mellor's record was 2:00. The next year, however, Woods lowered down the four minutes, and it was cut down to 1:54. In 1904, when Sammy Mellor, of Yorkkers, N.Y., defeated C. S. Davis, he made a new record for the distance, which has not since been equaled, although Tom Longway gave it a good shaking last year. Mellor's record was 2:00. The next year, however, Woods lowered down the four minutes, and it was cut down to 1:54. In 1904, when Sammy Mellor, of Yorkkers, N.Y., defeated C. S. Davis, he made a new record for the distance, which has not since been equaled, although Tom Longway gave it a good shaking last year. Mellor's record was 2:00. The next year, however, Woods lowered down the four minutes, and it was cut down to 1:54. In 1904, when Sammy Mellor, of Yorkkers, N.Y., defeated C. S. Davis, he made a new record for the distance, which has not since been equaled, although Tom Longway gave it a good shaking last year. Mellor's record was 2:00. The next year, however, Woods lowered down the four minutes, and it was cut down to 1:54. In 1904, when Sammy Mellor, of Yorkkers, N.Y., defeated C. S. Davis, he made a new record for the distance, which has not since been equaled, although Tom Longway gave it a good shaking last year. Mellor's record was 2:00. The next year, however, Woods lowered down the four minutes, and it was cut down to 1:54. In 1904, when Sammy Mellor, of Yorkkers, N.Y., defeated C. S. Davis, he made a new record for the distance, which has not since been equaled, although Tom Longway gave it a good shaking last year. Mellor's record was 2:00. The next year, however, Woods lowered down the four minutes, and it was cut down to 1:54. In 1904, when Sammy Mellor, of Yorkkers, N.Y., defeated C. S. Davis, he made a new record for the distance, which has not since been equaled, although Tom Longway gave it a good shaking last year. Mellor's record was 2:00. The next year, however, Woods lowered down the four minutes, and it was cut down to 1:54. In 1904, when Sammy Mellor, of Yorkkers, N.Y., defeated C. S. Davis, he made a new record for the distance, which has not since been equaled, although Tom Longway gave it a good shaking last year. Mellor's record was 2:00. The next year, however, Woods lowered down the four minutes, and it was cut down to 1:54. In 1904, when Sammy Mellor, of Yorkkers, N.Y., defeated C. S. Davis, he made a new record for the distance, which has not since been equaled, although Tom Longway gave it a good shaking last year. Mellor's record was 2:00. The next year, however, Woods lowered down the four minutes, and it was cut down to 1:54. In 1904, when Sammy Mellor, of Yorkkers, N.Y., defeated C. S. Davis, he made a new record for the distance, which has not since been equaled, although Tom Longway gave it a good shaking last year. Mellor's record was 2:00. The next year, however, Woods lowered down the four minutes, and it was cut down to 1:54. In 1904, when Sammy Mellor, of Yorkkers, N.Y., defeated C. S. Davis, he made a new record for the distance, which has not since been equaled, although Tom Longway gave it a good shaking last year. Mellor's record was 2:00. The next year, however, Woods lowered down the four minutes, and it was cut down to 1:54. In 1904, when Sammy Mellor, of Yorkkers, N.Y., defeated C. S. Davis, he made a new record for the distance, which has not since been equaled, although Tom Longway gave it a good shaking last year. Mellor's record was 2:00. The next year, however, Woods lowered down the four minutes, and it was cut down to 1:54. In 1904, when Sammy Mellor, of Yorkkers, N.Y., defeated C. S. Davis, he made a new record for the distance, which has not since been equaled, although Tom Longway gave it a good shaking last year. Mellor's record was 2:00. The next year, however, Woods lowered down the four minutes, and it was cut down to 1:54. In 1904, when Sammy Mellor, of Yorkkers, N.Y., defeated C. S. Davis, he made a new record for the distance, which has not since been equaled, although Tom Longway gave it a good shaking last year. Mellor's record was 2:00. The next year, however, Woods lowered down the four minutes, and it was cut down to 1:54. In 1904, when Sammy Mellor, of Yorkkers, N.Y., defeated C. S. Davis, he made a new record for the distance, which has not since been equaled, although Tom Longway gave it a good shaking last year. Mellor's record was 2:00. The next year, however, Woods lowered down the four minutes, and it was cut down to 1:54. In 1904, when Sammy Mellor, of Yorkkers, N.Y., defeated C. S. Davis, he made a new record for the distance, which has not since been equaled, although Tom Longway gave it a good shaking last year. Mellor's record was 2:00. The next year, however, Woods lowered down the four minutes, and it was cut down to 1:54. In 1904, when Sammy Mellor, of Yorkkers, N.Y., defeated C. S. Davis, he made a new record for the distance, which has not since been equaled, although Tom Longway gave it a good shaking last year. Mellor's record was 2:00. The next year, however, Woods lowered down the four minutes, and it was cut down to 1:54. In 1904, when Sammy Mellor, of Yorkkers, N.Y., defeated C. S. Davis, he made a new record for the distance, which has not since been equaled, although Tom Longway gave it a good shaking last year. Mellor's record was 2:00. The next year, however, Woods lowered down the four minutes, and it was cut down to 1:54. In 1904, when Sammy Mellor, of Yorkkers, N.Y., defeated C. S. Davis, he made a new record for the distance, which has not since been equaled, although Tom Longway gave it a good shaking last year. Mellor's record was 2:00. The next year, however, Woods lowered down the four minutes, and it was cut down to 1:54. In 1904, when Sammy Mellor, of Yorkkers, N.Y., defeated C. S. Davis, he made a new record for the distance, which has not since been equaled, although Tom Longway gave it a good shaking last year. Mellor's record was 2:00. The next year, however, Woods lowered down the four minutes, and it was cut down to 1:54. In 1904, when Sammy Mellor, of Yorkkers, N.Y., defeated C. S. Davis, he made a new record for the distance, which has not since been equaled, although Tom Longway gave it a good shaking last year. Mellor's record was 2:00. The next year, however, Woods lowered down the four minutes, and it was cut down to 1:54. In 1904, when Sammy Mellor, of Yorkkers, N.Y., defeated C. S. Davis, he made a new record for the distance, which has not since been equaled, although Tom Longway gave it a good shaking last year. Mellor's record was 2:00. The next year, however, Woods lowered down the four minutes, and it was cut down to 1:54. In 1904, when Sammy Mellor, of Yorkkers, N.Y., defeated C. S. Davis, he made a new record for the distance, which has not since been equaled, although Tom Longway gave it a good shaking last year. Mellor's record was 2:00. The next year, however, Woods lowered down the four minutes, and it was cut down to 1:54. In 1904, when Sammy Mellor, of Yorkkers, N.Y., defeated C. S. Davis, he made a new record for the distance, which has not since been equaled, although Tom Longway gave it a good shaking last year. Mellor's record was 2:00. The next year, however, Woods lowered down the four minutes, and it was cut down to 1:54. In 1904, when Sammy Mellor, of Yorkkers, N.Y., defeated C. S. Davis, he made a new record for the distance, which has not since been equaled, although Tom Longway gave it a good shaking last year. Mellor's record was 2:00. The next year, however, Woods lowered down the four minutes, and it was cut down to 1:54. In 1904, when Sammy Mellor, of Yorkkers, N.Y., defeated C. S. Davis, he made a new record for the distance, which has not since been equaled, although Tom Longway gave it a good shaking last year. Mellor's record was 2:00. The next year, however, Woods lowered down the four minutes, and it was cut down to 1:54. In 1904, when Sammy Mellor, of Yorkkers, N.Y., defeated C. S. Davis, he made a new record for the distance, which has not since been equaled, although Tom Longway gave it a good shaking last year. Mellor's record was 2:00. The next year, however, Woods lowered down the four minutes, and it was cut down to 1:54. In 1904, when Sammy Mellor, of Yorkkers, N.Y., defeated C. S. Davis, he made a new record for the distance, which has not since been equaled, although Tom Longway gave it a good shaking last year. Mellor's record was 2:00. The next year, however, Woods lowered down the four minutes, and it was cut down to 1:54. In 1904, when Sammy Mellor, of Yorkkers, N.Y., defeated C. S. Davis, he made a new record for the distance, which has not since been equaled, although Tom Longway gave it a good shaking last year. Mellor's record was 2:00. The next year, however, Woods lowered down the four minutes, and it was cut down to 1:54. In 1904, when Sammy Mellor, of Yorkkers, N.Y., defeated C. S. Davis, he made a new record for the distance, which has not since been equaled, although Tom Longway gave it a good shaking last year. Mellor's record was 2:00. The next year, however, Woods lowered down the four minutes, and it was cut down to 1:54. In 1904, when Sammy Mellor, of Yorkkers, N.Y., defeated C. S. Davis, he made a new record for the distance, which has not since been equaled, although Tom Longway gave it a good shaking last year. Mellor's record was 2:00. The next year, however, Woods lowered down the four minutes, and it was cut down to 1:54. In 1904, when Sammy Mellor, of Yorkkers, N.Y., defeated C. S. Davis, he made a new record for the distance, which has not since been equaled, although Tom Longway gave it a good shaking last year. Mellor's record was 2:00. The next year, however, Woods lowered down the four minutes, and it was cut down to 1:54. In 1904, when Sammy Mellor, of Yorkkers, N.Y., defeated C. S. Davis, he made a new record for the distance, which has not since been equaled, although Tom Longway gave it a good shaking last year. Mellor's record was 2:00. The next year, however, Woods lowered down the four minutes, and it was cut down to 1:54. In 1904, when Sammy Mellor, of Yorkkers, N.Y., defeated C. S. Davis, he made a new record for the distance, which has not since been equaled, although Tom Longway gave it a good shaking last year. Mellor's record was 2:00. The next year, however, Woods lowered down the four minutes, and it was cut down to 1:54. In 1904, when Sammy Mellor, of Yorkkers, N.Y., defeated C. S. Davis, he made a new record for the distance, which has not since been equaled, although Tom Longway gave it a good shaking last year. Mellor's record was 2:00. The next year, however, Woods lowered down the four minutes, and it was cut down to 1:54. In 1904, when Sammy Mellor, of Yorkkers, N.Y., defeated C. S. Davis, he made a new record for the distance, which has not since been equaled, although Tom Longway gave it a good shaking last year. Mellor's record was 2:00. The next year, however, Woods lowered down the four minutes, and it was cut down to 1:54. In 1904, when Sammy Mellor, of Yorkkers, N.Y., defeated C. S. Davis, he made a new record for the distance, which has not since been equaled, although Tom Longway gave it a good shaking last year. Mellor's record was 2:00. The next year, however, Woods lowered down the four minutes, and it was cut down to 1:54. In 1904, when Sammy Mellor, of Yorkkers, N.Y., defeated C. S. Davis, he made a new record for the distance, which has not since been equaled, although Tom Longway gave it a good shaking last year. Mellor's record was 2:00. The next year, however, Woods lowered down the four minutes, and it was cut down to 1:54. In 1904, when Sammy Mellor, of Yorkkers, N.Y., defeated C. S. Davis, he made a new record for the distance, which has not since been equaled, although Tom Longway gave it a good shaking last year. Mellor's record was 2:00. The next year, however, Woods lowered down the four minutes, and it was cut down to 1:54. In 1904, when Sammy Mellor, of Yorkkers, N.Y., defeated C. S. Davis, he made a new record for the distance, which has not since been equaled, although Tom Longway gave it a good shaking last year. Mellor's record was 2:00. The next year, however, Woods lowered down the four minutes, and it was cut down to 1:54. In 1904, when Sammy Mellor, of Yorkkers, N.Y., defeated C. S. Davis, he made a new record for the distance, which has not since been equaled, although Tom Longway gave it a good shaking last year. Mellor's record was 2:00. The next year, however, Woods lowered down the four minutes, and it was cut down to 1:54. In 1904, when Sammy Mellor, of Yorkkers, N.Y., defeated C. S. Davis, he made a new record for the distance, which has not since been equaled, although Tom Longway gave it a good shaking last year. Mellor's record was 2:00. The next year, however, Woods lowered down the four minutes, and it was cut down to 1:54. In 1904, when Sammy Mellor, of Yorkkers, N.Y., defeated C. S. Davis, he made a new record for the distance, which has not since been equaled, although Tom Longway gave it a good shaking last year. Mellor's record was 2:00. The next year, however, Woods lowered down the four minutes, and it was cut down to 1:54. In 1904, when Sammy Mellor, of Yorkkers, N.Y., defeated C. S. Davis, he made a new record for the distance, which has not since been equaled, although Tom Longway gave it a good shaking last year. Mellor's record was 2:00. The next year, however, Woods lowered down the four minutes, and it was cut down to 1:54. In 1904, when Sammy Mellor, of Yorkkers, N.Y., defeated C. S. Davis, he made a new record for the distance, which has not since been equaled, although Tom Longway gave it a good shaking last year. Mellor's record was 2:00. The next year, however, Woods lowered down the four minutes, and it was cut down to 1:54. In 1904, when Sammy Mellor, of Yorkkers, N.Y., defeated C. S. Davis, he made a new record for the distance, which has not since been equaled, although Tom Longway gave it a good shaking last year. Mellor's record was 2:00. The next year, however, Woods lowered down the four minutes, and it was cut down to 1:54. In 1904, when Sammy Mellor, of Yorkkers, N.Y., defeated C. S. Davis, he made a new record for the distance, which has not since been equaled, although Tom Longway gave it a good shaking last year. Mellor's record was 2:00. The next year, however, Woods lowered down the four minutes, and it was cut down to 1:54. In 1904, when Sammy Mellor, of Yorkkers, N.Y., defeated C. S. Davis, he made a new record for the distance, which has not since been equaled, although Tom Longway gave it a good shaking last year. Mellor's record was 2:00. The next year, however, Woods lowered down the four minutes, and it was cut down to 1:54. In 1904, when Sammy Mellor, of Yorkkers, N.Y., defeated C. S. Davis, he made a new record for the distance, which has not since been equaled, although Tom Longway gave it a good shaking last year. Mellor's record was 2:00. The next year, however, Woods lowered down the four minutes, and it was cut down to 1:54. In 1904, when Sammy Mellor, of Yorkkers, N.Y., defeated C. S. Davis, he made a new record for the distance, which has not since been equaled, although Tom Longway gave it a good shaking last year. Mellor's record was 2:00. The next year, however, Woods lowered down the four minutes, and it was cut down to 1:54. In 1904, when Sammy Mellor, of Yorkkers, N.Y., defeated C. S. Davis, he made a new record for the distance, which has not since been equaled, although Tom Longway gave it a good shaking last year. Mellor's record was 2:00. The next year, however, Woods lowered down the four minutes, and it was cut down to 1:54. In 1904, when Sammy Mellor, of Yorkkers, N.Y., defeated C. S. Davis, he made a new record for the distance, which has not since been equaled, although Tom Longway gave it a good shaking last year. Mellor's record was 2:00. The next year, however, Woods lowered down the four minutes, and it was cut down to 1:54. In 1904, when Sammy Mellor, of Yorkkers, N.Y., defeated C. S. Davis, he made a new record for the distance, which has not since been equaled, although Tom Longway gave it a good shaking last year. Mellor's record was 2:00. The next year, however, Woods lowered down the four minutes, and it was cut down to 1:54. In 1904, when Sammy Mellor, of Yorkkers, N.Y., defeated C. S. Davis, he made a new record for the distance, which has not since been equaled, although Tom Longway gave it a good shaking last year. Mellor's record was 2:00. The next year, however, Woods lowered down the four minutes, and it was cut down to 1:54. In 1904, when Sammy Mellor, of Yorkkers, N.Y., defeated C. S. Davis, he made a new record for the distance, which has not since been equaled, although Tom Longway gave it a good shaking last year. Mellor's record was 2:00. The next year, however, Woods lowered down the four minutes, and it was cut down to 1:54. In 1904, when Sammy Mellor, of Yorkkers, N.Y., defeated C. S. Davis, he made a new record for the distance, which has not since been equaled, although Tom Longway gave it a good shaking last year. Mellor's record was 2:00. The next year, however, Woods lowered down the four minutes, and it was cut down to 1:54. In 1904, when Sammy Mellor, of Yorkkers, N.Y., defeated C. S. Davis, he made a new record for the distance, which has not since been equaled, although Tom Longway gave it a good shaking last year. Mellor's record was 2:00. The next year, however, Woods lowered down the four minutes, and it was cut down to 1:54. In 1904, when Sammy Mellor, of Yorkkers, N.Y., defeated C. S. Davis, he made a new record for the distance, which has not since been equaled, although Tom Longway gave it a good shaking last year. Mellor's record was 2:00. The next year,