SHE PATIENTLY
BORE DISGRACEA Sad Letter From a Lady Whose Husband Was Dissipated.How She Cured Him With a Secret Remedy.

"I had for years patiently borne the disgrace, suffering, misery and privations due to my husband's drinking habits. His trip of my marvelous remedy for the cure of drunkenness, I decided to try. I procured a package and mixed it in his food and coffee, and, as the remedy was odorless and tasteless, he did not know what it was that so quickly relieved his craving for liquor. He soon began to pick up flesh, his appetite for solid food returned, he stuck to his work regularly, and we now have a happy home. After he was completely cured I told him what I had done, and he acknowledged that it had been his saving grace. He had not the resolution to break off of his own accord, I heartily advise all women afflicted as I was to give my remedy a trial."

CRAPE ONLY DURING VISIT.

Militia Stores Being Taxed in Preparation for the Duke's Coming. Ottawa, Aug. 2.—Officers are notified that the other requisitioning officers attending social functions to wear a crape band around the arm is to be understood as applying only during the visit of the royal Duke to Canada.

The approaching visit of the Duke of Cornwall and York to Canada and the military display in connection therewith is causing a heavy run on the militia stores. Col. Macdonald, who is in charge of the militia stores, has issued regulations now than he did during the time when he was equipping the contingents for South Africa. Every regiment that may by any possibility take part in any of the proposed reviews or displays, or which may be called upon to give a salute, provide an escort or supply a guard of honor, in the C. O. to the review, must be supplied with a crape band to be worn on the occasion of the salute, either wholly or in part, before its return to the barracks.

In consequence of their demand entirely new outfits of every description are being dealt with with temper and judgment, and it is probable that in some cases the demands will be unreasonable, under the circumstances they will be favorably considered. Nothing is known here of any authority for the announcement that there will be a distribution of medals at Kingston.
