The Canadian Pacific can still handle ao immense quantity of wheat thru their Port Arthur elevator, which is always clear of ice until very late. The St. Mary's River can easily be kept open until Dec. 15, if the government will engage one of the Mackinac icebreakers. The cost would be small compared to the saving in interest and charges on several million bushels of wheat. Further, if the government would cmploy an icebreaker in the spring, navi- gation could be opened here by April 1, which would still further relieve the con- gestion. Monuments. tound the neck with left. He accused Jet fries of foul fighting. The Akron man then shot in his right and found Jeffries ribs, following this up with ineffectual left swing for head. Jeffries was aggres sive. Rublin planted right and left to face, then rushed, landing on body. This clampion led with left and was counter ed. Rublin found Jeffries' head, and in a short exchange neither had the advantage. The men fought at close range, Gus land- ing on Jeffries' face and istopping the lat- ter's attempt at retailation with strong rights. Rublin feinted with right and shot straight left on Jeffries' nose, but the blow was partially blocked. The men were wrestling when round closed. Thus was decidedly Rublin's round. Both Strong in the Third. Round 3The men came up strong and the rific left to the eye. Jeffries pursued Gus and landed with two hands. In a rush Jeffries landed weak body blows, Rublin again appeals to referee. Gus feint an up.nch.
