PASTOR RUSSELL'S SERMON
The Coming Kingdom—Text: "Thy Kingdom come, Thy will be done on earth as it is done in heaven" (Matthew vi, 10.)

BROOKLYN, N.Y., July 4.—Pastor Russell preached to-day at Brooklyn Tabernacle to a large audience. He said: The words of our text have been repeated by Christian people of all nationalities for centuries. You recognize them as a portion of what is generally known as the Lord's Prayer, given to the Lord's followers as a model in answer to the request of the apostles, "Lord, teach us to pray." The text is: "Thy Kingdom come, Thy will be done on earth as it is done in heaven" (Matthew vi, 10.)

HOW DIFFERENT HERE.

Baltimore Sun: Indeed the elimination of grade crossings is a part of the scheme of improvement which the railroad company (the Baltimore and Ohio Railway) IS ANXIOUS TO EMBARK, the estimated cost of which is $5,000,000. The plan, which will be largely disbursed for labor and material in and around the city. This scheme involves the construction of a new passenger station on Camden-street just east of the present station.

Terrible Cough
Agonizing Headache
The Trying Experience of a Woodstock Man Who Nearly Died With Grippe.

People that allow "grippe" to take root in the throat and chest, and then, in the morning, find themselves unable to speak, and that the throat is so sore that they cannot swallow, and that the head is so painful that they cannot see, and that the body is so weak that they cannot move, and that the mind is so confused that they cannot think, and that the heart is so troubled that they cannot sleep, and that the stomach is so full that they cannot eat, and that the bowels are so constipated that they cannot move, and that the bladder is so full that they cannot urinate, and that the skin is so itchy that they cannot scratch, and that the hair is so falling out that they cannot comb it, and that the nails are so brittle that they cannot cut them, and that the teeth are so loose that
