

DONATIONS TO THE LIBRARY.

| DATE.         | DONOR'S NAME AND TITLE OF THE BOOK                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |
|---------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 1887.Feb. | SMITHSONIAN INSTITUTION.—Report, 1884, Parts I. and II.(November) Report, 1885, Part I.ALFRED SEELY.—Mosses of North America.DR S. H. SCUDDER, Cambridge.—Earliest Winged Insects of America.DR. A. R. C. SELWYN, Ottawa.—Economic Minerals of Canada.M. CHAMBERLAIN.—The A. O. H. Code and Check List of North American Birds.DIRECTOR UNITED STATES GEOLOGICAL SURVEY.—Bulletins Nos. 30 to 33; (March) Monograph No. 11, Geological History of Lake Lahontan; (April) Mineral Resources of United States, 1885; (November) Sixth Annual Report, Bulletins Nos. 34 to 39; (January, 1887) Mining Industries of Leadville.RT. REV. BISHOP KINGDON.—Notice of the Chief Monuments in the Museum of Egyptian Antiquities at Cairo. Some Account of the Blackmore Museum, Salisbury. Catalogue of Salisbury Museum. Wiltshire Archaeological and Natural History Magazine, Nos. 22, 24 to 68. |
| Mar.          | TRUSTEES OF AMERICAN MUSEUM OF NATURAL HISTORY.—Vol. I., No. 8; (November) Vol. II., No. 1.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |
| Apr.          | ACADEMY OF NATURAL SCIENCES, Philadelphia.—Proceedings, Part III.; (November) Part, I.NEW YORK MICROSCOPICAL SOCIETY.—Journal, Vol. II., No. 9 and 9a; (November) Vol. III., Nos. 1 to 4.NATURAL HISTORY MUSEUM, Vienna.—Vol. I., No. 4; Vol. II., No. 1.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |
| May           | SOCIÉTÉ MALACOLOGIQUE DE BELGIQUE.—Proceedings, Vol. XV., 1886; (December) January to May, 1887.NATURAL HISTORY SOCIETY OF MONTREAL.—Canadian Record of Science.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |

DATE.
1887.
May

Nov.

Dec.

1888.
Jan.