

Mrs. Carlyle, Superintendent, gave report of Fair Committee, and moved a vote of thanks be given to all those, not belonging to the Unions, who gave such cheerful assistance during the exhibition, mentioning the names of Mr. Shipe, and Mr. Walker, especially the latter, who assisted every day during the fair, and also in preparing for, and removing things from the building. Carried.

Mrs. Brownell read report of Literature Committee, and Mrs. Moffat the Financial Statement, all of which were received.

Mrs. Brownell moved a vote of thanks to the Fair Superintendents which was carried by a standing vote.

The Recording-Secretary, Mrs. Meredith, read a recommendation from the Sub-Executive, that the sum of $100 be applied on the notes. It was carried that the recommendation be received and acted upon.

A solo tendered by Miss McClelland was listened to with pleasure.

The Report on Social Purity, by Mrs. Garrett, Superintendent, was most encouraging, showing an increase of interest in this department.

The President gave a verbal report on Conference with Influential Bodies.

The Doxology was then sung, prayer offered by Mrs. Finch, and the meeting adjourned.

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 1ST.

Meeting opened at 10.30 a.m. with devotional exercises, led by the President, assisted by several other ladies.

Minutes of afternoon session read and approved. Reports of departments resumed.

The Report of Evangelistic Work, prepared by the Superintendent, Mrs. Cowan, was read by Mrs. Bascom.

In her paper Mrs. Cowan suggested that the first Monday in each month, hitherto held as a District Devotional Meeting, be handed over to the Central Union. Mrs. E. C. Rutherford moved, seconded by Mrs. Vance, that this be made a motion. Carried.

Mrs. Chamberlain moved in amendment, that it remain a District Devotional Day, which after some discussion was carried.
