POOR DOCUMENT

Rheumatism

Ought to be called by its right name—Kidney Disease. Uric Acid gets in the blood, because the Kidneys are too weak to filter it out. "Blood purifiers"—"salts"—only relieve temporarily. Strengthen the kidneys to do their work, and there will be no more excruciating rheumatic pains. And until you do cure the kidneys you will suffer with Rheumatism.

GIN PILLS

cure Uric Acid Rheumatism by curing the Kidneys. They clean and purify the Kidneys—make them strong enough to do nature's work as it should be done.

We have such implicit confidence in the remarkable virtues of GIN PILLS that we authorize druggists to refund the money if they fail to cure.

At all druggists, 50c box, 6 boxes for $2.50 or we will send you a free trial box if you will write mentioning this paper.

Grand Circuit Races

Providence, Aug. 29.—The grand circuit meeting at Narragansett Park opened this afternoon with excellent weather conditions, the track being very fast after the rain. In the 2.08 pace the black gelding Don Carr won after dropping the second heat to Maud Keswick. Donn Carr lowered his record from 2.07¼ to 2.06 in the first heat. He was the favorite in the pools. In the 2.18 pace Boliver was the favorite but Doris B., after finishing third in the first heat, took the next three and first money. In the 2.19 trot Morone, the favorite fully came up to expectations and took the race handily, although he dropped the second heat to Hulman.

HORSE NOTES

A race between Audubon Boy and the champion pacer, Dan Patch, is being talked of. It would be a big drawing card for the association that secured it. James Gatcombe, the owner of Audubon Boy, says he is ready to make such a match, but it is thought doubtful if Mr. Savage, the owner of Dan Patch, would care to take chances of getting his great stallion beaten.

One of the most purely amateur events of the year will take place next week at Chicago, when the annual race for the gold challenge cup will be fought by trotters representing various cities. There is no money hanging on the result, the prize being emblematic of the amateur championship of the country.

It is reported that Secretary Horace W. Wilson of the Lexington, Ky., Association is trying to arrange a big sweepstakes for trotters. He expects to secure Sweet Marie and Tiverton, and the owner of Dr. Strong has signified his willingness to start the fast grey gelding in such an event.

The following nominations for the $10,000 Charter Oak stake, at Hartford, are announced: Sadie Mac, Tom Axworthy, Angiola, Glenwood M., Zephyr, Kid Shay, Masetto, Norman B., Lasonjero, Gray Gem, John Caldwell, Direct View, The Roman and Robert Mc.

Ethel's Pride was the only new addition to the 2.12 trotting list during the Readville grand circuit meeting. Five trotters already in the list reduced their records.

Dan Patch (1.56) has been working remarkably well of late. He has been a number of miles around 2.04, and it is expected that he will be right on edge when he starts against his record, Sept. 4, the opening day of the Minnesota state fair.

It is reported that the man who recently sold Deloree (2.09½) for $18,500, paid $500 for her some five years ago.

The $10,000 Roger Williams stake at Providence looks to be another easy win for Sadie Mac.

The new grand circuit starter, Robert Newton, did fairly good work at Readville.

The grey gelding Choir Boy (2.10½), winner of the 2.18 trotting class at Poughkeepsie, is owned by Frank Jones of Memphis.

Allie V. (2.15½) is a new trotter for Directum (2.05½).

One of the surprises of the year is the gray pacer, Allerson, by Allerton, who has lowered his record to 2.05¼. He is one of the laziest horses on earth, and his driver, Brady, thinks he has been simply loafing for the past few years.

Miss Wilks, the Canadian horsewoman who owns Sadie Mac, 2.06¼, and other celebrities, presented Harry Stinson, her driver, with $1000 at the conclusion of Sadie Mac's victory in the $10,000 trot. She says Sadie Mac is not for sale at any price.

Dellcree, the Delmarch mare who changed owners last week for $18,500, is the most talked of trotter in the Grand Circuit, some horsemen believing her capable of holding her own with Sadie Mac. Her second dam was the well known trotter, Ellloree, 2.09¾.

The stallion John A. McKerron, 2.04¾, the gelding Tiverton, 2.04¾, and the mare Sweet Marie, 2.04 3-4, are the three fastest trotters that trace to George Wilkes in the paternal line. John A. McKerron traces to him through Guy Wilkes, 2.15¼, Tiverton through Young Jim and Sweet Marie through Alcyone, 2.27.

Mrs. J. H. Leash of Chicago, whose husband is a well known horseman, is an expert reinswoman. Last Saturday she visited Washington park to see Lou Dillon, 1.58¾, and while there was given the mount behind Mr. Billings' great pacer, Morning Star, 2.04 3-4, in an exercise mile to wagon, which she drove him 2.07, the last half in 1.02, and last quarter in 30 seconds. Doc Tanner pronounces Mrs. Leash the most finished reinswoman he has ever seen, and believes she can drive Morning Star a mile in 2.05.

WITH THE BOXERS

Jabez White will probably be matched with the winner of the Britt-Nelson fight. White, with Owen Moran and Digger Stanley, will visit this country this fall. The match between Moran and Tommy Feltz still holds good, as Tom O'Rourke promised Feltz the first chance with Moran on his arrival in this country.

Bob Fitzsimmons is being charged by the pugilistic wiseacres with having designs on Marvin Hart and the heavyweight title. Hart is willing, but is keeping mum.

Jack Monroe is still chasing Jack Johnson for a match, and is positive that he can beat him if given another chance.

It is claimed that Abe Attell is dodging all efforts to get him to meet Young Erne. He is probably waiting for cooler weather, when the proceeds might be larger. It certainly is not because he is afraid of Erne.

Joe Walcott is hurling his challenge directly at "Honey" Mellody, and it may be that "Honey" will accept this defi. If Mellody and Walcott should come together, it would make a contest worth going to see, as Mellody is the type of fighter that pleases.

SACKVILLE.

SACKVILLE, Aug. 28. — Mrs. Haliburton Barnes of Lland, Mexico, is visiting Mrs. William Ogden for a few days.

Dr. Borden has recently engaged Miss Elsie Foster of Sunderland, England, as vocal teacher for Mount Allison Ladies' College. Miss Foster is a pupil of Miss Anna Williams, one of the leading teachers of voice culture in London.

Mrs. Otho Read of Los Angeles, Cal., formerly Mrs. Edwin Crane of Baie Verte, is spending a few days as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Harris.

A meeting in the interests of the New Brunswick School for the Deaf and Dumb was held last Saturday evening in Music Hall.

Laurie M. Colpitts, a graduate of Mount Allison, who has been principal of the Buctouche superior school, has gone to Lumsden, Saskatchewan, where he will take the principalship of a school.

LIGHTWEIGHT BOXERS HOLD THE BOARDS

Heavyweights Have Apparently Had Their Day in 'Frisco Fight Clubs--English Boxers Coming.

BOSTON, Aug. 28—If some rather straight information from the Pacific coast can be relied upon many long months will roll past before the fight public in California is favored with another heavyweight battle. Hart and Ruhlin are practically matched to fight in October, but there is a very strong probability that the meeting will be indefinitely postponed.

The why of all this is answered by the Ruhlin-McCormick fight and its results and the retirement of Jeffries. Ruhlin and McCormick were carded as two of the best, leaving out Jeff. The critics are of one voice on the fact that this fight was far from top notch, and a man who is in a position to know writes that the receipts were a long way below $5,000.

This is a plain indication of the feeling in regard to the heavyweight title as long as there is no man in sight to meet Jeff the demand of the fight fans on the coast is for battles of the little fellows. The fact that Coffroth could guarantee $30,000 for Britt and Nelson and $3,000 for Ryan and Gardner, when no promoter on the coast will offer a guarantee for a heavyweight battle, is a rather strong pointer as to the direction of public sentiment among the men who buy the tickets. The Nell-Tenny battle brought a greater crowd than Ruhlin and McCormick.

The little men are seeing their chance, and the pick of the welters and lighter division are steadily setting their faces to the west. There is a wealth of good fighters in every division from bantam to welter, and it is these who will hold the stage for months to come.

According to George Dixon, who will make his reentry into the American ring with Tommy Murphy next month, the best of the English fighters are preparing for an invasion of Yankee territory this fall. Moran will certainly come over and Bowker is a possibility. Others of the best Britishers are considering a trip to this country, lured by the purses and the chances of combat; so it will be up to the Americans to "stand by and repel boarders."

James J. Corbett recently said that Jimmy Britt is one of the greatest masters of side-stepping and general footwork he has ever seen. Some weeks ago the scoffer might have asked: Is there a touch of sarcasm in Corbett's praise?

EIGHT SCULLING CREW

To be the Racing Crew of the Future, Says Coach Harry Vail.

It seems a settled thing in the minds of the experts that Yale, Harvard, Cornell and the other big universities that go in for annual match rowing will have to come to the eight-sculling crew boat in the end. It may take years, but the popularity of the boat is sure to improve.

"Jim Wray," the professional coach of Harvard, saw the race at Baltimore. It was his first peep at an eight-sculling crew's contest, and he went into ecstasies over the affair.

Harry Vail, the paid mentor of the Ariel Boat Club, of Baltimore, said:—"The eight-oared shell for crew racing in big matches is doomed. The whole aquatic family will go fighting mad over the eight-scullers style of boat when its advantages are seen and more generally understood. I would not be surprised to see the annual match at New London and the intercollegiate regatta at Poughkeepsie decided by scullers and not by sweep handlers. This, too, within a comparatively few years."

ABOUT FOOTBALL

There will be a meeting of the executive intermediate football league this evening at 8 o'clock in the Neptune rooms. The formation of the league for the ensuing season will be completed.

Fairville Has a Team.

The Fairville football club have decided to put a team in the league this year and are practicing. George Masson is captain and Dr. L. M. Curren manager.

SPECIAL EDITIONS

Two excellent special editions have been received by The Times from other Canadian newspapers.

One is the "progress edition" of the Montreal Herald, with which the Herald celebrates its removal from somewhat cramped quarters on Craig street to new and commodious quarters on St. James street, facing Victoria square. Incidentally the Herald's progress edition tells in many well printed and tastefully illustrated pages of the commercial and social growth and progress of Montreal. It contains much valuable information and is an example of the enterprise which characterizes the Herald. The cover of the edition is handsomely printed in colors and bears an excellent picture of the Herald's new building.

The other special marks the majority of the Vancouver Daily Times, and also tells of the progress of the city of Vancouver and the province of British Columbia generally. The resources of the province are told of at length and the wonderful instances of the fertility of the country as told of in the text are borne home to the reader more particularly by many excellent pictures. The story of the Times' twenty-one years of growth is also cleverly told and illustrated by pictures of the plant, premises and staff. Altogether the special "of age" edition makes a splendid souvenir of the city beyond the Rockies and the live newspaper that flourishes there.

FIRE AT FERNIE

Fernie, B. C., Aug. 28—A little after midnight Saturday, Fernie was again visited by a disastrous fire, which caused the destruction of $35,000 worth of property. It swept the entire block of buildings, 300 feet by 240 feet, which consisted of Queen's Hotel, Baptist church, soda water factory, small store, hay warehouse, four boarding houses, known as Empire, Canadian, First-class and Robichaud's, and several residences. The C. P. R. water tank was also burned. The property was insured for about $17,000.

FIRE AT PORT MARIEN

Sydney, N. S., Aug. 28—(Special)—The coal wash plant of the Dominion Coal Company at Port Morien was damaged by fire this morning to the extent of $5,000. It will be more than a month before the plant will be in full running order. One effect of this fire will be the interference with shipments of washed coal to the works of the Boston Coke & Gas Company at Everett (Mass.)

JACK MUNRO IN CAPE BRETON

The North Sydney Herald says:

Jack Munro arrived at his home at Boularderie Friday on a visit to his parents. The big, good-natured Cape Breton dislikes notoriety, still that did not prevent the crowds at stations along the line cheering the man who has to his credit the honor of "standing off" Jeffries in Butte. Talk he would not of fighting. The fact of the matter Munroe is pestered so much since his arrival home with letters from aspiring and unknown fighters, that he is loath to even open a letter for fear of it containing a request for a meeting with some of the above. When told there was a certain individual in North Sydney who would like to make a match for a limited number of rounds, Munroe said: "If you have a man with any reputation or honesty of purpose, and with sufficient backing to make a meeting between us worth while seeing, I will guarantee this party you speak of a few interesting minutes—if he lasts that long. But I would like it understood I am not home looking for matches with every Tom, Dick and Harry, or saloon fighters. Of course, as I said before, if you have some anxious body wanting my scalp, just name your price and he can have it." Since seeing Munroe the Herald received a letter from the sporting editor of the Toronto Evening World, who is anxious to arrange a match between Munroe and Jack Daly. Mr. McKetrick also wants to put Yank Kenny against the Boularderie man.

DIED TOGETHER THO' MILES APART

Mrs. Jane Johnson Drowned at Coney Island while Her Husband Died in Arkansas.

New York, Aug. 28—Separated by 1,000 miles, Mrs. Jane Johnson and her husband, Allan Johnson, a Little Rock (Ark.) banker, met death almost simultaneously today. At the precise hour when Mrs. Johnson's body was taken from the water at Cony Island, a telegram came into this city to inform her of the death of her husband.

She was a magazine contributor, who wrote under the nom de plume of Helen Dix Johnson, and her husband was president of the National Exchange Bank of Little Rock. The telegram bore the sending time of 1 p. m. At this hour a friend of Mrs. Johnson was giving an alarm because of her tardiness at a luncheon to which she had been invited. Mrs. Johnson had gone bathing, and her body was found some distance out to sea about 3 o'clock this afternoon.

The body had just been placed in the morgue at Cony Island when a messenger boy rushed in with the despatch.

THE TARIFF COMMISSION

Ottawa, Aug. 28—(Special)—The ministers comprising the tariff commission have not yet fixed any dates for tariff hearings beyond Winnipeg. They wish to keep themselves free to make arrangements after they arrive there. Only a few of the principal places in each province can be visited. These will be so chosen as to afford opportunity for the people in all sections to attend.

Such meetings as may be determined upon in Manitoba will take place immediately after the Winnipeg meeting.

BASEBALL

Bloomer Girls Won

The Star Bloomer Girls defeated the Crescents of Halifax on Saturday by a score of 8 to 4. There was a large crowd in attendance and very fair ball was played.

Westfield Won

At Westfield Beach on Saturday afternoon the Westfield team defeated Renforth, 9 to 8. The game was a closely contested one, and was much enjoyed by the large crowd present. Cy. Inches and Sears were the Westfield battery, while Burnham and Parker officiated for Renforth. The features of the game were the playing of "Sandy" Thompson at third base for the Westfield team, and the one hand catch of Gordon Brown, who played centre for Renforth.
