BOLD ROBBERY AT POINT CHENE

I. C. R. Freight Office Visited and Money Stolen

A MONCTON WEDDING

Moncton Husband Charges His Wife With Immoral Conduct and She Is Taken into Custody With Another Man—Two Other Arrests on Similar Charge.

MONCTON, N.B., Sept. 27.—(Special.)—A bold robbery was committed by an unknown party at Point du Chene on Saturday morning last. During the temporary absence of Mr. Burns from the I.C.R. freight office someone entered and broke open the cash drawer and stole the contents of the till, amounting to about $30. When Mr. Burns returned, after the absence of a few minutes, he found the cash drawer broken from its fastenings and the money gone.

These, Duncan, a well known I.C.R. machinist, was married this evening to Miss Annie L. Lawrence, daughter of William Lawrence of this city. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. W. McDonald, in the presence of a few immediate friends. Mr. and Mrs. Duncan left on a wedding trip to Sydney and Halifax, and will visit St. John, the groom's former home before taking up their residence in Moncton.

The police raided a couple of houses on the outskirts of the city at three o'clock this morning in search of parties charged with immoral conduct. The officers first visited a house on Salisbury road, and arrested Walter Bishop and Mrs. Snary, who has a husband living in town. The complaint was laid by her husband. Bishop is a married man, and belongs to Amherst.

Willard Kelly, a married man, belonging to Petitcodiac, who has been working in Moncton, and an unmarried woman, named Miss Bell, were arrested in a house on Mountain Road, on the complaint of neighbors. The parties will be brought before the police magistrate this afternoon.

HEROES REMEMBERED

Vancouver Unveils a Tablet to the Memory of Those Who Fell in Boer War.

VANCOUVER, B. C., Sept. 27.—(Special.)—A grand service in which Sir Frederick Borden, minister of militia, took part, this city has just seen the unveiling of a tablet to the Vancouver heroes who laid down their lives in the Boer war. The men whose memory is thus honored were Private W. Jackson, Private W. F. Whiteley and Trooper P. C. Macdonald.

"But," protested the plain citizens, "don't you consider honesty a good thing?"

"Sure," replied the politician, "but it's like all other good things—you've got to make money before you can afford it."

Footpad (in a rasping voice)—Keep still now; all I want is your money.

Summer Boarder—Oh, that's all right! I thought, perhaps, you wanted this bank book—Puck.

TOM LAWSON WILL FIGHT INSURANCE IN NEW YORK

Says He'll Handle McCall Without Gloves—Will Make Star Witnesses Tell What They Know of the Company's Deals—Demonstration in Madison Square Garden.

(Boston Journal)

"I am going to handle John A. McCall, president of the New York Life Insurance Company, without gloves in the open air. I shall send him tomorrow," declared Thomas W. Lawson to The Journal last night.

"I have given out an interview in which I stated Mr. McCall swore falsely if he said before the legislative insurance investigating committee that the company had never invested funds belonging to its policy-holders in stocks of any kind," Lawson declared.

"Shortly I am going to New York to arrange to start the fight against the insurance companies' robbery. I have received the endorsement of thousands of policy-holders, representing every State in the Union. We propose to form committees in every State. From these general committees we shall form a central committee. Then go after the trustees."

"The legislative matters I shall leave Madison Square Garden and make the expense a personal matter. Then we shall take steps to pull every one of the star witnesses who are now hiding in the different States out of their burrows and make them tell what they know about their mysterious deals."

"President McCall a year ago said that I was not telling the truth when I exposed some of the insurance deals in high finance. I will show him that I was telling the truth and that I have a lot more interesting than that of the past."

In connection with the New York Life affair, Lawson declared the company, through its financial representatives, had invested $1,000,000 in a stock operation in 1898. Some one, he continued had received a big bonus on the deal.

Lawson takes up the Rogers-Rockefeller deal, Rogers being here in the case of Receiver Popper in the suit to recover $3,000,000. Concerning these gentlemen Lawson declares:

"Seven years ago—in August, 1898—Henry H. Rogers and William Rockefeller came into possession of stocks and bonds of the Boston Gaslight Company, worth about $2,000,000, which they admitted to work off in connection with like property to the value of $2,500,000, for which they expected to receive $3,000,000. For this purpose they created a scheme called the New England Gas & Coke Company. The first move on the 'cheese' was to make an arrangement with the New York Life and other big insurance companies by which their creature, the Central Trust Company, was to loan $12,000,000 upon this $2,500,000 of stocks and bonds, which was to go to Rogers and Rockefeller."

CO-OPERATIVE PLANS COULD NOT BE MADE TO WORK IN AMERICA

This is the Opinion of Scottish Visitors Who Manage Great Industries in Scotland on Co-operative Lines—"The Country is Too Big is One of Their Reasons."

NEW YORK, Sept. 27.—The Journal of Commerce publishes an article in the United States and Canada, returning to their homes in Scotland about December 1. The article is the result of a visit to the United States and Canada, made by the Scottish Co-operative Wholesale Society, Limited, whose head office are in Glasgow. These gentlemen are the representatives of an industry which last year placed upon the market goods to the value of $4,000,000 and which gives constant employment to 7,000 persons.

They are here primarily to look into the grain situation and for the time being are the guests of John Gleibhill, the society's American buyer and general representative. Later they will visit all the larger grain producing provinces in the United States and Canada, returning to their homes in Scotland about December 1.

Discussing the purpose of their visit yesterday, Mr. Stewart said: "We are here to seek additional knowledge in regard to the production and marketing of grain in the United States and Canada. The society is the owner of three mills, with a weekly production of 10,000 sacks of 280 pounds, and is 80 per cent. of the grain consumed in foreign it pays us to keep in touch with all markets."

During his stay here Mr. Stewart has talked with business men of all classes and also with workmen and already has arrived at the definite conclusion that the co-operative trade idea as it is known in the United Kingdom, Belgium and Holland could not be worked out here with any degree of success.

"The country is too big in the first place," he said, "and, besides, there are too many discordant elements in the various communities, large and small. But in Scotland the case is different, and the co-operative idea is spreading like wildfire. It is a healthy development and is an absolute guarantee against trusts or combination control of prices such as often is the case in the United States according to my information."

SEPTEMBER WEDDINGS

A very pretty wedding took place this morning in the Cathedral at six o'clock, when Miss Louise Gleason, daughter of the Rev. A. W. Prink, J. C. McNeil, Mr. B. Edwards and R. A. Ewing, were heard in reference to insuring the Ludlow. There was a difference of opinion as to whether marine or fire insurance be carried. On motion of Ald. Bullock, the matter was referred to the committee, which meets tomorrow, and in the meantime the chairman will ascertain by wire from Halifax how the ferry steamer there are insured.

A report was received from Engineer Wm. B. Pizak relative to some changes necessary in the Ludlow. He stated:—

1st—The air pump is not large enough to produce a vacuum needful to the engine at its best.

2nd—The back connection door on the boiler will have to be altered so that the tubes can be cleaned.

3rd—The cabin pipes will have to be tapped or trips turned overboard.

4th—An ash bunker must be built to hold the ashes from Saturday to Monday, in a way for holding ashes from the fire hole provided.

5th—The pump is too small to remove a large mass from the bottom of the boat.

6th—The feed pump is too small to supply water to the boiler fast enough.

7th—The boiler, but for the tubes, wants to be abandoned.

It was decided to take the report up by section.

In reference to the first section Ald. Baxter moved that the superintendent be empowered to communicate with the makers of the pump relative to getting one of the proper size and to have the one now installed taken back by them and an allowance made for it carried.

The balance of the recommendations were ordered carried out and the report adopted as a whole.

As it is necessary that the boat be at once equipped with life preservers, Supt. Glasgow was authorized to procure 300, which, in addition to the 150 now on hand, will make a total of 450.

The question of alters for the Ludlow was discussed, and it was left with the chairman, Ald. Baxter and the superintendent to prepare a report (of which he is the agent) for preventing the forming of crabs in the boilers.

Sweetening Stranger (at Octon Crossing)—"When on earth does the next train leave this sun-baked, heaven-forsaken region?"

Ald. Kirk—"Well, stranger, we have each got a right to his opinion on that subject, but then that know certain I like one just after the engine."—New York Times.

GOTHENBURG, Sweden, Sept. 27.—A severe earthquake shock was felt at 1.30 p. m. yesterday at Lundeby, Hisingen. It cracked the walls of houses and floured the surface of the ground. Subterranean rumblings were quickly followed by the violent rocking of houses and the splitting of inner and outer walls, driving the inmates to seek safety in the open air. OTTAWA, Sept. 27.—(Special.)—The writ for the extradition of Meers Gaynor, charged with the murder of Dr. Greene, has been drawn up by the department of justice and is now in the hands of some application on the part of justice to affix his signature to the document.

Gaynor today, but is expected here tomorrow. He has been permitted to leave for leave to appeal to the supreme court against Judge McLeod's winding up order. Sir Louis holds that there can be no appeal direct from the trial judge's order and that if the company still wants to appeal it must first appeal to the New Brunswick supreme court which would only be a formality as that bench has already expressed itself in the case though not in the form of a regular appeal.

HUNGARIAN SITUATION GROWING WORSE DAILY

Budapest the Centre of Contending Political Parties --- Press Urge Formation of One Great Party Under Francis Kossuth --- Coalitionists Have Issued Manifesto.

LONDON, Sept. 27.—The correspondent of the Morning Post at Budapest says: "The situation here grows worse daily. The radical element threaten to swap the moderate party and to hurry the emperor to irrevocable action. Public referendum to the dynasty are made in a sense which it is impossible to reproduce. The principal newspapers urge the formation of one great party under Francis Kossuth. This is supported by Kossuth, Count Appony and Baron Banffy."

Other special dispatches represent the situation as serious, but say it is evident that the conservative elements hesitate to countenance the driving of matters to a point where compromise would be impossible.

BUDAPEST, Hungary, Sept. 27.—The committee of the coalitionists has issued a manifesto to the nation in reply to the programme submitted to its leaders by the Emperor-King. The manifesto declares that some points of his majesty's programme are not conforming with the constitution, referring especially to his contention that the question of the language of command in the Hungarian army must be entirely eliminated from discussion. It is asserted that this is equivalent to the abolition of the nation's right to control its officer. For this there is no legal authority.

The newspapers characterize the statements of the Austrian premier, Baron Gutsch von Frankenburg, in the Reichsrath as unwarrantable interference with Hungary's internal affairs.
