Allies Shelling Dedeaghatch

Italian Squadron Puts to Sea — Report From Sir John French—Greater Effort at Gallipoli Foreshadowed

New York, Oct. 19—A news agency despatch from London, published here this afternoon says: "It was officially announced here today that Dedeaghatch, the strongly fortified Bulgarian port on the Aegean Sea, was being bombarded by the Allied fleet."

Dedeaghatch is twelve miles across the open Gulf from Enos, and if a bombardment is being staged by the Allied fleet it is probable that a movement to take the city by land will be started by Anglo-French forces landed at Enos yesterday.

Paris Oct. 19, 9.30 p.m.—An Italian squadron has left for the near east under sealed orders, supposedly to participate in the blockade of the Bulgarian coast, according to a Brindisi despatch received there this evening, but which had been delayed in transmission.

Athens, Oc. 19—British and French troops continue to disembark at Saloniki.

The number of these troops is so large that it is impossible to forward them all promptly by rail to Serbia. Some of the troops are making forced marches across Greek territory in the direction of Paris, Oct. 19—The French premier, M. Viviani, has telegraphed Sergius Sazonoff, Sir Edward Grey and Baron Sonnino, respectively, the foreign ministers of Russia, Great Britain and Italy, that at the moment of a change in the French ministry he wished to declare to them that the modification did not involve any modification in the STOCK ROAD, FREDERICTON (N. SPICE ROAD). policy which France was pursuing in concert with the Allies .

The three ministers replied, thanking Premier Viviani, and assuring him of cordial collaboration in the cause for which the Allies are

"Russia and the great powers, our allies, tried to dissuade the government of Ferdinand of Coburg from taking this fatal step. The realization of the ancient aspirations of the Bulgarian people regarding the annexation of Macedonia was assured to Bulgaria by other means, in conformity with Slav interests, but underhand methods, prompted by the German and fratricidal hatred of the Serbians, triumphed.

SIR JOHN FRENCH MAKES DETAILED REPORT. London, Oct. 19-Field Marshal Sir John French sends the following re-

"Since my communication of October 14, the artillery on both sides has been very active on our front south of La Bassee Canal. The enemy has made a number of bombing attacks, all of which have been repulsed.

"The continued reports in the German communiques of the repulse of British attacks northeast of Vermelles have no foundation in fact. The positions where the fighting mentioned above has taken place would be more correctly described as southwest of Auchy Lez La Bassee, from which it is about fifteen hundred yards distant. It lies about three thousand yards northeast of Vermelles.

London, Oct. 19—Owing to the illness of Premier Asquith and the delicate negotiations which are proceeding between the Allies, the enlightenment which today's meeting of the house of commons was expected to throw on the Balkan operations, over which Sir Edward Carson is believed to have resigned from the cabinet, and on the substitution of Major General Monro for General Sir Ian Hamilton to command in the Dardanelles, was not forthcoming. There were more than a hundred questions in the house on Dardanelles and the method of raising necessary men for the army, and, while the ministers answered many of them, in no case was the information which the public was anxiously awaiting supplied.

It is generally agreed, however, that, for the moment at least, the controversy over recruiting has been silenced, for the conscriptionists, or a majority of them, have decided to give Lord Derby's new scheme a fair trial, and to assist him in every way to get the men to increase the way to get the men to increase the size and fill the gaps in the army. It is understood that the voluntary system is receiving its best trial, and despite the opposition throughout the country those favoring national service for all will endeavor to force its adoption, should Lord Derby fail in his efforts.

PESSIMISM DISAPPEARS.

So far as the Dardanelles and the So far as the Dardanelles and the Balkans are concerned, a good deal of pessimism which reigned a week ago has disappeared. It is believed that instead of any idea existing of abandoning the attempt to open the the straits and sea route to Constantinople, the appointment of General Monro means a more strenuous effort, and that when the right moment comes the Italian navy, if not the Italian troops, will cooperate.

it will ultimately be accomplished.

The Bulgarians have cut the rail-way between Uskup and Nish, and so it is likely that, except in the extreme south, where they have the support of the Anglo-French troops landed at Salonki, the Serbs are falling back to stronger natural positions. Istip and Kotchana, it is said, have already been evacuated. ITALY DECLARES WAR.

The Allies have also made a new diplomatic move with respect to Greece, the British and Russian ministers having delivered a note to Athens, explaining that the Allies do not agree with the Greek government's interpretation of the Greeco-Serbian treaty, and notifying Premier Zaimis of their intention to land more troops at Saloniki.

It is not expected, however, that anything but allied success will have any influence with Greece, or, for that matter, with Roumania. Russia is trying for this in Galicia and Volhynia, where General Ivanoff has won several local victories and is keeping the Austro-Germans busy.

The Germans are being considerably hampered by British submarines in the Baltic, for, besides sinking a large number of steamers engaged in the ore trade between Germany and Sweden, the submarines are interfering with transports between German ports and the Courland coast.
