GOOD THINGS COMING TO THE THEATRES OF ST. JOHN AS GOOD AS ANYON ATLANTIC COAST

C. B. Foster Speaks of Immigration Business Facilities Here.

That the facilities for handling passengers at the port of St. John, although they are of wood construction, are as good as any one the Atlantic was a statement made today by C. B. Foster, passenger traffic manager of the Cana-dian Pacific Railway, who was in the city from Montreal over the week-end from Montreal. He said he came here In connection with the handling of the passengers from the three large liners which arrived here on Saturday and Sunday, and would return to Montreal

SMALER DEALERS

In connection with the handling of passengers he became reminiscent and recalled the time in 1998 when he was associated with the Beaver Line. He said there was no immigration shed in those days and the passengers were given a hurried inspection, and if they looked to be in good health and respectable they were allowed to continue to their destinations. When landed they were lined up in one of the sheds. A couple of barrels were dealers I wish to announce that beginning today we will sell milk at 10 and 12 cents a quart to meet the prices announced at City Hall, Saturday, by our competitors.
