LET THE MERRY BELLS RING OUT

The Telegraph-Times Team
Has Won a Game — Film
Men Defeated, 9 to 3.

The ball is lifted. After two unsuccessful attempts the Telegraph-Times baseball aggregation managed last night to grab off a bunch of laurels from the film men on the East End diamond and after five innings of snappy baseball went home with a 9 to 3 victory tucked in their belts.

The news men got down to real business last night and showed the results of their training. Johnson, a southpaw hurler from the mulling room, was on the mound and the shadow representatives couldn't move the ball outside of the infield.

Captain McEachern of the press gang had lots of luck with him on the mound, though his glasses became fogged up early in the game all he had to do was stick out his hand and the ball dropped into it. He landed two flies from the clouds in this manner.

Watts showed a little pep in the third when he beat out a bunt to first which caused quite a sensation.

McNorgan, who heaved for the flicker team, was bothered by the damp ball and hit several of the news scatterers on various parts of the anatomy. Five times did the batters get a passage to first base in this rather rough manner.

Low, speedy little second sacker for the T-T organization, was again in the limelight, his home run being one of the

ST. PETER'S TEAM'S WINS IN AMHERST

The following are comments from the Amherst News on the two games there on Wednesday when St. Peter's cleaned up a doozy when the aggregation of the busy town. The evening game was a no hit, no run contest to the credit of Pitcher Hansen.

The News says:
"Congrats to St. Peter's, and condolences to the home team. The best team on the showing that was made. Those Loyalist City bats sure knew the game of ball, are full of pep and right on their toes all the time. We give credit where credit is due, for St. John certainly played the better brand of ball. But for all that, we believe that a team can be got together here that can trim them."

Here's hoping we get a chance to do it.

"Great base runners those St. Peter's boys, they fairly storm around the bags. McGovern sure did travel some on that home run of his. Chestnut got slammed harder than "Beet" in the afternoon, but he gave no bases on balls, while "Beet" gave four. Brownell wasn't at his best, seemed to lack his usual confidence and speed.

"Hansen sure is a nifty pitcher. He knows how to handle himself, and the game too. His delivery was a bit odd, but very effective. He learned a few things during his try-outs with Toronto.

"Did you notice the pep those St. Peter's boys had, on the hop all the time, and a lively line of chatter going steady. They play together well, each encouraging the other. Mighty few errors too, only three to Amherst's eleven in the two games.

The attendance at both games was excellent, but many spectators refused to contribute a cent. From the whole town along Academy street, only four bought tickets. That's rotten mean. Anyone can shout and yell at a ball game, but it takes a man to dig down and pay over for the privilege. There were few real men in that quarter of the field. Buck up and back up your home team."

SETTLE SUNDAY BASEBALL CONTROVERSY IN FAYETTE

Fayette City, Pa., July 9.—The controversy between church people and the management of an independent baseball team here over the question of Sunday baseball was settled today when Andrew Brown, wealthy farmer and well known churchman, announced that he had leased the only available baseball grounds in this region. In order to secure the ground Mr. Brown had to lease a tract of 197 acres from a coal company, owner of the property.

TRURO WINS FROM ST. PETER'S

Truro, N. B., July 8.—This evening in the greatest baseball game seen here this summer the crack St. Peter's team of St. John, went down to defeat before the all-Truro aggregation, the score standing 7 to 1. It was fast ball all the way keeping the spectators on their toes.

St. Peter's made their lone fly in the fourth inning when O'Regan singled and Dever scored from second. Truro scored two in the second and five in the fifth.

In the second Mont. Haslam singled through short; Ross hit a fast grounder to right and Haslam reached third; Ross stole second, Brent Haslam scored; local scoring Mont. Haslam. Ross came home in an overthrow to third.

In the fifth the local boys enjoyed a slugging fest, the scoring being done by Alex. Malcolm, McLaughlin, Jack Malcolm, Goodhue and McKennie.

Near the close of this inning Dever, who had been catching for St. Peter's, went into the box, relieving Chestnut who started the game and Milan took Dever's place behind the plate. Hansen, St. Peter's mound artist, who pitched a no hit game at Amherst yesterday, remained on the bench, his arm being sore from yesterday's work.

Jack Malcolm pitched for Truro and struck out six men. Chestnut struck out four and Dever one. Both sides played good ball and errors were few only three being charged to each team. The local team got eight hits and the visitors six.

St. Peter's team plays tomorrow at Moncton.

The line-up:
St. Peter's—Dever and Milan, catchers; Gibbons, right field; O'Regan, third base; Mooney, second base; McGovern, first base; Callaghan, centre field; Doherty, left field; Lenahan, short stop; Chestnut and Dever, pitchers.

Truro—Goodhue, short stop; Yull, third base; McKennie, centre field; Mont. Haslam, first base; Ross, second base; Brent Haslam, right field; Alex. Malcolm, left field; McLaughlin, catcher; Jack Malcolm, pitcher.

G. A. Myers, of Truro, was umpire for balls and strikes and a St. John man for the bases.
