

The Man In The Street

Did someone mistake this for summer? Health Note:—When riding in open cars now, keep your car tabs on, and if you have a fur coat, don't leave it hanging in the clothes-press.

The army of unemployed in New York seems to be on the increase. Dispatch says 86,000 people attended ball game this week.

Should advise this young man to apply to Commissioner Potts for a position on the water-ways—can't we mean? Position wanted by a sober, steady, industrious young man as private or commercial chauffeur. Also an licensed ferry-boat operator.—Wisconsin State Journal.

The only man who seems to smile right through this weather is the June bridegroom, but probably he feels he has to, anyhow.

It might also be remarked that the one who likes these June "showers" better than any other is the prospective bride.

Town in West Virginia has re-named itself "Tango." Probably more of a one-step, than a one-horse town.

There is a litter of pups on display in a store in Dock street. They are in a large box, but a side of it is missing, and a large piece of cardboard which was once used to advertise a certain brand of tobacco, has been placed over the open space. In some way just over the straw on which the puppies are lying there reads "Five cents per cut," but intending purchasers have been assured that the "cut"-rate price does not apply to the live stock.

News note says "There is not an automobile in the whole of Liberia." This would be a great place for residents of Waterloo street to live, for then their kids could play in the street.

BAND CONCERTS

The band concert season is at hand although the backward weather thus far has prevented any great demand for outdoor attractions of that kind. The sum of $1,000 is available for the purpose, and it will soon be time to commence spending the money and listening to the music.

At a meeting of the common council this week Commissioner Potts drew attention to this matter and was informed that the money had been provided in the estimates and that the arrangements had been left to the public works department, before he took office.

Speaking of the matter to the Times the commissioner said that he is now ready to go ahead with the arrangements and will be glad to hear from the bands which wish to share in the gratification.

The following was the cast of characters in last evening's entertainment: Matt Windsor... J. E. Edwards, Marcus Graves... Chas. Humphries, Simon Stone... N. S. Wood, Mary Manning... Miss Gladys Godfrey, Bessie Bradley... Miss Bessie Magre, Nancy Nipper... Miss Helen Keating. The show will be repeated tonight.

FAIRVILLE NEWS

Matter of Early Closing Still Is Undecided

Playgrounds Ready Within a Fortnight—The First Home Run—Successful at Home—Glee Club's Play

Nothing definite has been done as yet regarding the early closing of the stores on Thursday evenings. Several of the grocers have been interviewed, and while the majority are in favor of the plan, a few say they cannot see their way clear to close, while the drug stores in the town, which are also grocery stores, remain open.

The promoters of the scheme hope to solve the difficulty by persuading the druggists to close the grocery side of their store.

The meat dealers were the first to fall into line and it would be a step backward if arrangements could not be made to give the stockkeeper one night in the week for recreation.

Some of the dealers are hoping that by next year Fairville may follow the example of the West End merchants, which has been successfully carried out for the last two years, and close shop at one o'clock on Thursdays, thus observing one half holiday a week throughout the summer.

This course is a consideration of the future, the present request is for the evening alone. Carpenters have been busy for the last three days on the preliminary work of the new playground.

The committee have lost no time in carrying out their plan, and within a fortnight the kiddies are promised their hearts' content of good wholesome fun in their own supervised playground.

At the Finner's Park last evening the Athletics defeated the Royals 7 to 4. Crossen and Thompson were the batteries for the winners, and Harrington and Gills for the vanquished. Keenan of the Royals made the first home run of the season.

Nothing more enjoyable at home was held in the Orange Hall last evening, when about 200 people gathered as guests of the Fairville Glee Club. This was the first social evening held under the auspices of the club this season, and judging from the success of the whole affair, it is hoped that the initial entertainment will not prove the last.

Selection of the hall presented a more attractive appearance, the walls and ceiling being unsparsely decorated with flags and bunting, while the entire stage was surrounded with an abundant array of ferns and potted plants. Harrison's orchestra provided an appropriate programme of music, which added considerably to the occasion. During the evening refreshments were served and the gathering broke up a little after midnight.

The following ladies acted as chaperones: Mrs. J. C. Dalton, Mrs. C. Sutton, Mrs. Duffield, Mrs. Hetherington.

The Glee Club of the Church of the Good Shepherd presented a three act play entitled "The Soldier's Boy" before a large and appreciative audience in the Church hall last evening. This is only the third appearance of the club before the public since its organization, about a year ago, and much favorable comment is heard on the standard concerning the ability of the performers.

Rev. Mr. Dunham and congregation are to be congratulated on an attractive and attractive appearance of their church hall. Many alterations and additions have been made, and the will of the Willing Workers of the club, whose evenings for months have been devoted to the work in hand, and the devotion and enthusiasm which is a most healthy sign in any congregation of people.

The following was the cast of characters in last evening's entertainment: Matt Windsor... J. E. Edwards, Marcus Graves... Chas. Humphries, Simon Stone... N. S. Wood, Mary Manning... Miss Gladys Godfrey, Bessie Bradley... Miss Bessie Magre, Nancy Nipper... Miss Helen Keating. The show will be repeated tonight.

NATAL DAY OF YARMOUTH OBSERVED AS HOLIDAY

Second Run of Mackerel Has Arrived—Good Catches Being Made

(Special to Times) Yarmouth, N. S., June 10.—Yarmouth yesterday observed the 18th anniversary of its founding with a public holiday and every place of business except the public offices were closed. Picnic parties from town were scattered all through the country and Lakeside Park was crowded.

The second run of mackerel—the main body of the fish—has struck in. The advance guard passed by almost two weeks ago and it is from this first run that the great catches along the south shore have been made. This week the traps have taken quite a quantity, running about fifty barrels each and the large schools are expected at any time.

The largest hauls on this coast are generally made about the end of June or along the first part of July.

THE BURROWS CAMPAIGN

The evangelistic campaign, under the leadership of Rev. Dr. Burrows, of Youngstown, Ohio, which has continued for five and a half weeks, was brought to a close on Tuesday evening with a sacred concert given by prominent local talent, under the direction of Miss Blenda Thompson. It was much enjoyed by the large audience present.

Many of the Christian workers and church leaders testified to the marked zeal and earnestness of Dr. Burrows, who has been indefatigable in his efforts to win souls, and preached the gospel without fear or favor.

The Christian workers in the campaign are unanimously of the opinion that this has been the greatest and best campaign carried on in the city for years. Two hundred and fifty persons have taken a stand for their Christian life, and the campaign closed free from debt. Every dollar of expense had been provided for, so that there will be no outstanding accounts to worry the committee as was the case at some previous campaigns.

The meeting closed with the singing of "God Be With You Till We Meet Again." It was quite evident that the doctor endeared himself to the Christian workers of the city from the great send-off he received. He left for his home in Ohio on the Boston train at 6:45 a.m. today, but expects to return to this province again next fall, as he has been invited to hold revival campaigns here, also in Sydney.

ILL IN KENTVILLE

Many friends in St. John will hear with regret that Arthur Tully, who formerly resided here, is in very poor health in Kentville, N. S. Mr. Tully was very popular and well known about the city when here with the Transcontinental. He took an active part in athletics and was a general favorite. His friends here are grieved to know of his ill-health.

VISITING OLD HOME

William Carleton, a former St. John man, but who has been in the states many years is visiting in the city and will probably remain for two months. He has been a prominent figure in New York theatricals for many years, with Klav & Edinger, and has had charge of many of this firm's biggest productions. Mr. Carleton is being heartily welcomed by old friends.

LUMBER SHIPMENTS FROM HERE TO BRITISH PORTS

The lumber shipments from St. John to British ports in May showed a large gain over May of 1913, but the total for the first five months of the year still is far below that of the January 1 to May 31 period of 1913. The figures in detail show:
