NO RELIGIOUS SERVICE AT FUNERAL OF BEBEL

Zurich, Aug. 18.—In brilliant sunshine, the body of August Bebel, socialist leader, was taken yesterday to the residence of his daughter, Mme. Simon, and after addresses there, was removed to the crematorium. The ashes were afterwards deposited in the grave.

Nearly 800 trade and labor organizations of many nations were represented besides socialist bodies of Germany, France, Belgium, Austria, Russia, Italy, Switzerland, the United States and Great Britain. The funeral procession had fully 20,000 men in line. The coffin was preceded by 500 wreath bearers, among whom were many women. A choir of 400 men sang beside the coffin.

The procession was accompanied by bands which played Chopin's and Beethoven's funeral marches. At the crematorium a Swiss deputy, Groulx, delivered a funeral oration and other prominent socialists spoke. There was no religious service.

EDITH RECOMMENDATIONS

MADE BY THE GENERAL TO IMPROVE CANADA'S MILITIA

Ottawa, Aug. 18.—The report of General Sir Ian Hamilton upon the Canadian militia, in the light of his recent inspection of that body from coast to coast, has just been made public by Col. Hon. Sam Hughes, minister of militia, to whom it was addressed. The report is very exhaustive and, both from a technical and literary viewpoint, it is an admirable work. It is different from that made three years ago by General French, but comparisons between the two are ingeniously avoided.

Many nice things are said of the militia, and likewise there are many criticisms. The recommendations are under eighteen headings. The more important, it would seem, are those (1), suggesting the formation of a strong reserve force by the simple process of enrollment, involving no service in peace, but preparation for war; (2), the deficiency of stores and equipment; (3), the reform of instructional schools.

A. O. H. OBSERVES DECORATION DAY

Memorial Service Held and Graves of Departed Members Decorated—A Large Turnout

A large gathering of people yesterday attended the Decoration Day ceremonies of the A. O. H. and assisted in paying tribute to friends and relatives departed, who lie buried in the old and new Catholic cemeteries or in the other Catholic burial grounds about the city. The ceremonies were most impressive. The decorating of the graves was carried out by a committee including the officers of the order, President F. L. Barrett, W. H. O'Neill, R. J. Harrington, W. H. Coates, J. G. McDermott and the Hibernian Knights with the Cadets. A committee consisting of Wm. O'Neill and John Bain visited the graves of departed members in St. Peter's and West Side parishes and laid floral tributes thereon, while another committee, Charles O'Neill, John McElhenry, and James McAndrews went to Partridge Island and decorated the graves of the Irishmen who died there in '46.

The City Cornet band rendered music at the grave-side in the old and new cemeteries. The ceremonies were conducted by Rev. M. O'Brien, and Rev. Father Walsh, C. S. R. after which the return was made to the city. The procession was very lengthy and most creditable. It consisted of the City Cornet Band, the Hibernian Knights, and members of the order with the A. O. H. cadets. There were great numbers of floral remembrances. Hundreds of people lined the route of march watching the procession.

CONGREGATION OF ST. PETER'S GIVE IN AID OF PORTO RICO MISSIONS

Father Lynch's Appeal Yesterday Responded to Liberally by The People

An appeal for aid for the Redemptorist missions in Porto Rico met with a prompt and generous response in St. Peter's church, North End, yesterday. The request for financial assistance was made by Rev. John Lynch, C.S.S.R., who has been in charge of the mission district there for the last eleven years, and who left there a few months ago on a tour of the houses of the order in the United States and Canada seeking aid. Thus far he has been warmly received, he said yesterday, and he greatly appreciated the manner in which the Catholics in all cities where he had visited had given to his cause.

At every mass yesterday morning he spoke of his object in coming to St. John. He told of the establishment of the missions in the island and of the labors of the priests and sisters of charity for the spiritual and temporal welfare of the poor people who lived there.

It was a most difficult task to labor amongst them, and he set forth many reasons why it was so arduous. The people were uneducated and poor, hardly having the bare necessities of life which, in that country, are much less than here. The climate was killing to the American missionaries and many of them, amongst them Rev. Father Pezney, who was for some years a popular priest in St. Peter's, had succumbed to its influence. There was much money needed to continue the work, to build churches and schools, to help clothe the poor, nurse the sick and in other ways to carry on the work of spreading God's word.

It was most imperative if the work was to be kept up that at least $50,000 be spent, and it was for this reason that he was making a round of visits to the Redemptorist houses. The collection taken in St. Peter's was very liberal.

BRITISH COMMENT ON GENERAL HAMILTON'S REPORT ON OUR TROOPS

London, Aug. 18.—The Morning Post, commenting on Canada and imperial defence, supposes that Sir Ian Hamilton's report means that if the "science paper" organization does not hang fire, the Canadian school boy will be given compulsory training. "If the boy," it asks, "why not the man? School training, while very valuable, does not create regiments, and if Canada is satisfied with this sort of thing, there will be a very rude awakening, should war ever break out."

"It is a serious sign of the times," it adds, "when an officer of such responsibility as the inspector-general makes such open-bouffe recommendations. It is even more serious than the report of a dominion arsenal."

YOUTH ELOPES WITH OLDER NURSE; RICH FATHER OUSTS HIM

Philadelphia, Aug. 18.—John Raymond Auch, aged eighteen, son of First Vice-president John F. Auch, of the Philadelphia and Reading Railroad, has eloped with Miss Edith West, a trained nurse, and he has been expelled from the parental home and told to get a job.

He is just out of a Quaker preparatory school and expects to enter the University of Pennsylvania next fall. His bride is said to be twenty-eight. The marriage was in the Little Church Around the Corner, New York. The groom then gave his age as twenty-one.

Young Auch said to a reporter: "My bride and I were happy until I got back home, and then my father told me I would have to shift for myself. I did said it was too late, as that would not make our marriage ineffective. So I have to go to work."

The bride says she will take her husband to Baltimore, where her father, a contractor, will give him a job outdoors that will brace him up a bit.

Young Auch says he met Miss West for the first time at Ocean City, N. J. July 5, at a dance. He fell in love with her, he says, "because she was so different and was so interested in me."

The elder Mrs. Auch is almost prosaically. The elder Auch asserts he will try to get the marriage annulled.

BIG DEMONSTRATION BUT NO RIOTING ON SUNDAY IN DERRY

Londonderry, Ire., Aug. 18.—With the exception of an outbreak in the waterside district on Saturday night, when a large number of shop windows were smashed, and some of the windows noted, there has been no further rioting by the Nationalists and Orangemen.

The funeral of Mr. Armstrong, who was shot and killed as he sat in his window several nights ago, was the occasion of a tremendous demonstration yesterday, but there was no disorder.
