LOCAL NEWS

QUEENSBURY. Col. H. H. McLean left this morning for Gagetown to attend the election proceedings this afternoon. POLICE REPORT. Gordon Livingstone has been reported by the police for throwing stones at teams in Hilyard street and damaging a team belonging to Frank Hollis. IN THE HOSPITAL. Edward Farrell, the boy who was shot in the head at Newcastle Bridge on Monday, and who had his right eye removed in the hospital here yesterday, was reported today as doing well. HARRIERS TO SACKVILLE. Capt. Churchill of the Y. M. C. A. Harriers football team, received a telegram from Mt. Allison today notifying him that all was ready for a match with Mt. A there tomorrow. The St. John team will leave for Sackville on the early train tomorrow morning.

KING'S DAUGHTERS. The educational classes under the auspices of the King's Daughters are to be opened next Monday night, Oct. 16, and will be held Monday and Thursday evenings throughout the winter. Further information can be obtained at the King's Daughters Guild, 13 Prince William street.

C. P. R. STEAMERS. The C. P. R. steamer Empress of Ireland arrived at Quebec yesterday at 7 p. m. The Empress of Britain was expected to arrive in Liverpool last midnight. The Lake Champlain arrived at Liverpool on Tuesday last at 8 p. m.

GOOD-BYE SUMMER. The public squares are beginning to look rather desolate these days. The leaves are being blown from the trees by the fall winds and the flowers are withering away. The benches will be removed in a day or so and stored for the winter.

GAME IN THE MARKET. Although there seems to be plenty of game throughout the province, there is but little as yet offering for sale in the local market. It is expected, however, that within a few days there will be plenty of it on the market. Ducks were offering this morning for $1.00 and $1.25 a pair.

NEW PAVEMENT HIDDEN. While it is a fact that a fine new pavement was laid in Pond street recently it would be difficult now to convince the ordinary individual that the street is laid with granite blocks. Over the surface is a foot or more of mud giving absolutely no indication that there is a pavement beneath. In fact at its worst Pond street never looked any worse than it does now. If the street remained as now and frost came it would be very rough hauling. This condition also applies to parts of Mill street, and even Smythe street.

WHITE PLAGUE FIGHT

The Work of the St. John Dispensary for the Month Ended Yesterday

The report of the dispensary work of the St. John Association for the Prevention of Tuberculosis for the month ended October 12, shows fifty-three patients on the books. Of these twenty-five are adults and twenty-eight children. The total attendance at the dispensary was forty-two, including twenty-seven adults and fifteen children, three adults and three children being reported as new cases. The number of patients discharged was eighteen, of these two adults died; two adults were returned to private doctors, one adult and one child were reported cured, and eight adults and four children were reported as not being tubercular. The dispensary was open thirteen days—five days for children and eight days for adults. The nurse made seventy-six visits—fifty-six for instruction and twenty miscellaneous.

Miss Gardner, superintendent of the Boston tubercular work, was in the city during the month and accompanied the nurse on two days visiting to the homes and was at the dispensary on another day. It is reported that St. Peter's church has undertaken to supply nourishment for one patient.

GRAND PRESIDENT HACKETT'S VISIT

Among local members of the C. M. N. A., who called upon Hon. M. F. Hackett of Stanstead, Que., the grand president at the Royal last evening, was Charles P. O'Neil, president of Branch 184, who extended a cordial invitation to Mr. Hackett to deliver an address at the opening of the winter lecture course of the branch next Sunday evening.

Mr. Hackett was on his way to Nova Scotia to attend a convention of branches of the order at Meteghan River next Saturday and he regretted that he would be unable to accept Mr. O'Neil's invitation but would try to meet the members on passing through the city on his return next Monday. He was also unable to accept an invitation to the Knights of Columbus smoker last evening. Hon. Mr. Hackett went across the bay this morning. He will probably arrange for one of the grand officers of the order to come to St. John during the winter to speak at one of the lectures.

BRUSSELS STREET CHURCH HAS PLEASANT SOCIAL FOR MEN

A social for men of the Brussels street church and congregation was held last evening in the vestry and was very much enjoyed by the fifty men present. Rev. M. F. McUTCHEON presided. There was an enjoyable program including a solo by George Brown, singing by the Victoria street church brotherhood quartette—Messrs. Nobles Brothers, Williams and Thorne—a chorion solo by Mr. Nobles, and a piano solo by Harry McFarlane. Addresses on brotherhood work were given by W. C. Cross, Mr. Pingley of the Y. M. C. A. and Rev. F. E. Bishop. Refreshments were served and a general good time enjoyed.

OPPOSITION PREPARED FOR ACTION

Meeting of M. P. P.'s Here To Discuss Political Situation and Arrange Course to be Followed

The rumor that there is a possibility of a provincial general election being held in a short time evidently stirred up the members of the opposition party for a considerable number of them arrived in the city yesterday and this morning they were joined by their leader Hon. C. W. Robinson. The selection of a new leader and premier by the government party and the fact that he has asked until next week, before he will be able to announce the personnel of his cabinet, would naturally make it difficult for the opposition to determine distinctly their plan of action, but in so far as was possible they made ready for any decision reached by the new government.

If Premier Fleming decides to go to the people at once the opposition is ready. It is expected that the by-elections in St. John, Charlotte and Sibley and in the other parts of the province will be held in a short time.

They had reason to be greatly satisfied with the results of the last election from a provincial point of view. In only five counties out of fifteen did the Tories have a majority—York, Sibley, Kings, Kent and Charlotte. Albert and St. John both gave the Liberal candidates majorities and one of the leaders to-day declared that the opposition members naturally feel that without the insidious and fake canvasses that were used against the federal government, without the influence of Mr. Hazen, who had for many years been the chief of the provincial government party in power and out of power; and with the extravagant and reckless methods of the administration and the great dissatisfaction felt with their administration of the roads and bridges; with the favoritism and graft that were used in every one of the 19 parishes in the province; with the vacillating and unsatisfactory position of Valley Railroad affairs, the electors of New Brunswick are quite prepared to follow the example of the people of the dominion and elect the power so strongly entrenched.

JOHN DIXON OF THE CUSTOMS SERVICE DIES SUDDENLY

Long Time Respected Resident of Carleton—Children all in the West

Many will learn with regret that John Dixon, who had been in the customs service here, died suddenly this morning. He had not been well for some little time, but was quite bright last night at his home, in Winslow street, Carleton, and there was no thought of what the morrow would bring. This morning he was suddenly stricken. Mr. Dixon was born in Ireland, but had been here for forty years, and had won the respect of the community. He was a member of Carleton Presbyterian church. Surviving here are his wife and five children. Mrs. D. C. Mackenzie, and Misses Clara, Kathleen and Annie Dixon in Calgary, and John, in Hulton, Alberta. The funeral will be held on Sunday afternoon.

VARIED LIST IN THE POLICE COURT

People in Domestic Troubles Case Sent Away—Constable Has Man Arrested

Charles McElmon, charged with stabbing Charles Thompson and attempting to stab Mrs. Campbell and her son, was again arraigned in the court this morning, after the evidence of Dr. C. M. Pratt, who attended Thompson, and Policeman Sullivan, who made the arrest, was taken. McElmon was committed for trial. When asked if he had anything to say to the prisoner he replied that he had nothing to say except that he was intoxicated on the night of the trouble and he did not know what he was doing. He was represented in court this morning by E. S. Ritchie. Four prisoners, charged with drunkenness were also before the court. Samuel Black was fined $4 or ten days in jail and Henry Craft and Antonia Larsen $8 or thirty days in jail. Joseph Moore was fined $4 or ten days for drunkenness and an additional $8 or thirty days in jail on the charge of using obscene language. Alexander Day appeared to answer to the charge of assaulting Constable Heffer. He denied it and said that the constable was trying to collect for him money that he did not owe. Constable Heffer said that he wanted the man arrested for the debt and he was taken into jail. Day said that if he was arrested that he would bring action against those responsible. Mrs. Wellington Bacon charged her husband with non support. Bacon said that his wife had left him and that he did not think he was responsible for her now. The court told them that they would have to settle the matter out of court and they went on their way. William Harry, arrested some some few days ago on drunkenness charge was brought into court and further remanded.

CRADLE ROLL DAY

The annual cradle roll day of Portland street Methodist church was observed yesterday afternoon with more than usual interest. The vestry of the church was beautifully decorated for the occasion and thirty-five members of the cradle roll of 127 enrolled, with their mothers and a large number of visitors spent a most pleasant afternoon from 3 to 5 o'clock. One important feature was the baptism of eleven infants by the pastor, Rev. H. D. Macfarlane, after which refreshments were served to all present. Mrs. E. A. Sinclair, Mrs. A. W. McInnes, Mrs. Wm. McInnes and Mrs. J. A. Stevenson, with their assistants, are deserving of much credit for the excellent work they are doing in connection with this department of Sunday School work.
