BIG STRIKE IS FINALLY SETTLED

Grand Trunk Trainmen Start to Work To-day—Get Scale in Eighteen Months

Montreal, Aug. 3.—The strike of the Grand Trunk Railway trainmen and conductors, which was launched at 9.30 p.m. on Monday night, July 18, was officially declared off at 6 o'clock last night.
The effect of the G.T.R. strike settlement is a compromise. Whereas the company was willing that the standard rates should go into force in 1913, they have agreed that they shall go into force in 1912. Also, the rules which have gone into force on the C.P.R. have been agreed upon. They are particularly favorable to the men. The terms of the settlement of the difficulties are as follows:
1. The company will put back as soon as possible the men, other than those who have been, or may be, found guilty of acts of violence or disorderly conduct, the understanding being that there is to be no coercion or intimidation used towards the new men.
2. The company will put into effect, from May 1, 1910, the rates named in schedule of rates dated July 18, 1910, those rates to be embodied in the present schedules now in effect on this line, it being understood that those rates shall in no instance effect a reduction in any existing rate.
3. The company will, on Jan. 1, 1912, make effective in train and yard service on the G.T.R. the rates of pay and rules contained in the schedule of rates on that date in effect on the lines of the Canadian Pacific Railway east of Fort William.
The three above propositions shall apply also to the Central Vermont Railroad Co., the said railroad to be substituted for the Grand Trunk Railway, and the Rutland Railroad to be substituted for the Canadian Pacific Railway, wherever the same are in the above.
In the case of the Central Vermont, by the "schedule of rates dated July 18, 1910," is meant the schedule issued by the management of that company on July 1.
Signed: Charles M. Hays, President G.T.R. System.
Attest: A. B. Garretson, pres. O.R.C.; W. G. McMurphy, pres. B.R.T.
For the O.R.C.: Robert Kelley, N. Foy, Ed. Z. Sinclair, J. E. Mann.
Approved by S. N. Berry, V.P. For the B.R.T.: Maloney, J. A. Conner, W. E. Berry, P. A. Hebert.
Approved by James Murdoch, V.P. was stated by President Garretson of the O.R.C. lines and that the company and brotherhood officials parried on the most friendly terms.
The following general order was sent out by Vice-President Hays, Murdoch, B.R.T., and Vice-President Sam Berry, O.R.C., to the strikers' committees:
Advise all men to report for duty at once.
Instruct to carefully avoid any mistreatment of strikebreakers until they are eliminated from the service.
All men will be returned to the service as soon as possible.
The increased rates of pay are made retroactive from May 1, 1910.
The standardization on the Central Vermont also is made Dec. 31, 1911, but the same to equal the Rutland, rather than the P.R., as in the Grand Trunk system.
As to the question of having restored to the strikers the pension privileges lost by the strike, Mr. Murdoch said that had not been discussed in the conference. He explained why.
"We have always taken the position that pensions are an unknown quantity," he said, "that they are placed into effect on many systems only for the purpose of testing the loyalty of the men to their organization in the time of trouble."
"If the men employed in train service get the wage rates and conditions of employment to which they are entitled during the years they are able to give loyal and useful service to their employers, they will probably be able to place themselves in a position whereby they are not of necessity dependent in their advanced years on the pension fund."
The local committee of 42 men from Chicago to Portland, will gather here as soon as possible with Mr. Murdoch to frame the conditions, etc., which go with the settlement, and arrange for the payment of the strike benefits to the 2,000 or 1,000 men affected.
Gives Credit to Men.
Ottawa, Aug. 3.—At 7.20 o'clock last night Hon. Mackenzie King, Minister of Labor, announced that the G.T.R. strike had been settled, as a result of Government intervention.
He stated that the successful issue of the negotiations was due mainly to Sir Frederick Horne.
Indeed, he remarked, that had it not been for the services of the Minister of Mining, he did not believe that

JULY WEATHER

HIGHER THAN AVERAGE DURING PAST TWENTY YEARS.
Toronto, Aug. 3.—The official weather statistics for Toronto, issued at the Meteorological Office this afternoon, show the mean temperature for the month of July to have been 71 degrees, which is 2 degrees above the July average for the last twenty years.
The highest point was reached by the mercury on the ninth, when 83.3 degrees were recorded, while a minimum temperature of 61.5 was registered on the 24th. On only three nights was the weather cooler than 65 degrees.
On four days during the month the temperature exceeded ninety degrees as follows: July 1st 92.7; July 3rd 93.7; July 24th, 93.3; July 28th 90.7.
The total rainfall for the month in Toronto was 3.9 inches. This is twenty-seven one-hundredths of an inch in excess of the average July rainfall for the last twenty years.
On the 16th of the month rain fell almost steadily from five minutes past six in the morning until ten minutes past three on the afternoon, to a depth of 67 inches.

Mrs. H. G. McBurney and Miss Birdie of Woodstock, were callers at Mrs. Jas. McCorquodale's, Thames street north.

A regular meeting of the Retail Merchants Association will be held in the council chamber at 8 o'clock tomorrow night. All retail merchants are invited.

Sharon May Go Free.
New York, Aug. 3.—The forty days allowed the Italian Government under its treaty with the United States to make formal demand for the custody of Porter Charlton, held in Jersey City, N.J., for the murder of his wife, Mrs. Mary Scott Castle Charlton, at Moltrisi, on Lake Como, expired at midnight last night.
No such request has been received by the State Department in Washington.

The interest of the U. S. Government in the case dies with the expiration of the forty days, and the British situation confronts the officials of a confessed murderer being held without legal process.
Three courses are open to the attorneys retained by Judge Charlton, father of the young assassin. The first is simply to demand that the youth be released, there being no legal charge against him. The second is the issuance of a writ of habeas corpus to secure his release, while the third is the institution of insanity proceedings.

Endorsed Naval Policy.
Regina, Sask., Aug. 3.—At the meeting here Monday night an unusual incident occurred, when 200 German immigrants, under the leadership of Theodore Semitz, welcomed Sir Wilfrid. As Semitz rose to address the Prime Minister a remarkable demonstration took place, which developed into a protest meeting. Not only did the young German endorse the Government naval policy, but a gathering of young Hebrews took the same stand, and further, the young Englishmen who have been in the country for less than twelve months gave their expression of approval to the Government's policy. The youngest of the group were boys of no more than ten years of age, so far the navy has not been the most popular question before the public.
At Weyburn, Sir Wilfrid and his party were tendered a complimentary banquet on their arrival.

Defy the Authorities.
Ottawa, Aug. 3.—The Transcontinental Railway Commissioners are much concerned over reports from La Tuque, concerning whisky troubles in the vicinity of construction work. The law is that whisky cannot be sold within five miles on either side of the railway, while under construction. Reports to the commissioners state, however, that the whisky sellers are openly defying the authorities, and refuse to remove themselves. The situation is so serious that half a dozen Dominion policemen were sent to La Tuque yesterday, heavily armed, and with the simple order to see that the law is obeyed.

Boys Buried in the Sand.
New York, Aug. 3.—Three little boys, who had been searched for high and low since they were missed from their homes on Madison street in Brooklyn Monday afternoon, were found dead yesterday in a nearby vacant lot, where a sand embankment had fallen upon them while they were playing. The bodies of the boys in the sand pile was discovered at 2 1/2 feet.

NO BETTER BAKING POWDER AT ANY PRICE.
No matter how much you pay for baking powder, you can not get anything purer or more wholesome than White Swan Baking Powder at 25c a pound, which is free from alum.

ESCAPED FROM LONDON JAIL

John Roberts and Joseph Steadman Climb Wall and Drop Over to Freedom

London, Aug. 3.—Up until midnight, when the Middlesex county constabulary and the police of all the cities in Western Ontario, who were notified, ceased their operations until the morning, John Roberts, under sentence of three years for burglary, and a young man with a prison record and Joseph Steadman, awaiting sentence for burglary, both of whom escaped from London jail in a sensational manner yesterday afternoon between one and two o'clock, had not been apprehended.
Sheriff Cameron of Middlesex, and Governor Carter expect that the morning will see the return of the two youths to jail, when Roberts will be pushed to the penitentiary.
Roberts, who had been suffering from an infectious disease since he was sentenced on July 20 for robbery at the McMahen & Grainger, wholesale, was only given his clearance yesterday by the jail physician, and was to have left last night in charge of an officer for Kingston.
Yesterday afternoon, just after his escape had been learned, the girl he had said he was going to marry and his sister visited the jail to see Roberts for the last time.
Steadman is a youth who also has a local record and hail from the other side of the line. His crime was breaking into and stealing a quantity of goods from the National Bowling Alley to another cell.
Sheriff Cameron, who was apprised of the escape shortly after two o'clock, immediately had word rushed to the country, and High Constable Hughes started up on a chase on the way to Byron, as that was thought to be the selected route of the men.
To a reporter the sheriff said: "Everything has been done to recapture the prisoners. Every telegraph office from Niagara Falls to Windsor has been notified, with good descriptions of the men, who were in civilian clothes."
"The men climbed the wall and effected an escape by the roof. Their escape was due to the carelessness of Believing Turnkey Sadler."
A report was received by Governor Carter at nine o'clock that Roberts had been making for St. Thomas on a bicycle. He commented with St. Thomas, but the police there had no track of him. It was thought he might be making for Port Stanley to take the first boat.
That the escape had been planned for days is proven by the cunning of the two prisoners, the dangers of incipit jury should either make a false step, and the absolute during of the scheme which was to be pulled off in front of many who might see them before liberty was gained.
Governor Carter was well aware of the caliber of both of his prisoners, and he took every precaution to keep his eye peeled for the slightest move on the part of either.
The first break came on Civic Holiday night, when Turnkey March discovered that Steadman, along with another prisoner, had torn up some sheets to make a long rope. The governor immediately had Steadman taken to another cell.
The men had been in tight positions before, as both have records, and they untold their plans.
County Constable Sadler, relieving Turnkey, had charge of the men, and with Turnkey March, opened the cells for the prisoners to scatter out into the exercise courtyard for an afternoon airing.
In one corner of the courtyard a lavatory wall forms a solid corner with the jail walls. Some ten feet away another lavatory forms a solid wall, one of which forms a solid corner with the jail walls and hides the view to the entrance door of the jail to a man standing in this particular end of the courtyard.
Under instructions from Governor Carter the prisoners are not permitted to go into this corner unless some one in authority goes with them or unless they are under the surveillance of the turnkey in charge, who would have to take his position, if he would keep his men in view, about the centre of the wall green.
Yesterday was their day. Believing Turnkey Sadler was sitting on the doorstep, out of sight of the corner where, hidden by the lavatory, the two were to scale high in the air and beat it across the roof of the jail, past the second courtyard and then jump into the outside world.
Roberts and Steadman made the corner in safety.
This was the first step, and they were in full sight of at least a dozen prisoners.
Roberts started on the climb-up, and the wall is about 25 feet high, but every few feet stood a window, or a ledge, where a tight finger grip or a toe clutch assisted an upward movement of a good climber.
Both started, and evidently assisted by one or another of the big red-men, made the climb in quick style.
With success so near and the assistance of a rain pipe, which hangs ## over the cornice, and a vicious pull, both men were on the roof, and the rest was easy.

When the outer wall was reached both jumped to the ground among some flowers which decorate the walk from the door of the corridor leading from the jail proper to the court house, and about six feet away, and hustled to the gate, flung it open, and vanished quietly away in the direction of King street bridge.
At two o'clock, when Turnkey McLeod and Governor Carter were watching the men file in, McLeod noticed that Roberts did not appear. He told the governor, and a diligent search was made of the cells with the hope that he was hiding some place or had slipped in with some of the other men.
The alarm was given, and Believing Turnkey Sadler could not tell whether he had Roberts out for an airing or not. Then Steadman was missed, and Sadler could give no account of him, either.
On going upstairs Governor Carter noticed the gate open and immediately notified the sheriff, the police and the county constables that his two men were at large.
Turnkey McLeod then discovered the footprints of the men across the loose earth surrounding the flowers and vegetables, and a second or so, where the heel marks in the soil where the drop from the wall was made.

CRIPPEN'S FATHER

AGED MAN IS BROKEN DOWN BY SON'S ARREST

Los Angeles, Cal., Aug. 2.—Bowed down by years and broken by the arrest of his son, the father of the man who is suspected of having killed his wife, M. A. Crippen, father of Dr. Hawley N. Crippen, presents today the most pathetic figure of the case that has engrossed the interest of two continents.
"I have not the money to go to Hawley, but if I had, I would gladly go and be of whatever consolation I might be to him," said the suspect's father.
"I have not received any word from him, and do not expect to. It is hard to have to be alone and suffer, but I don't think it will last long. I am not long for this world now, and since this trial has come to me I have not had a single day of good health."
"They cannot prove anything on Hawley. They cannot even prove that Belle Elmore is dead. Why should I believe him guilty? I know that he would not do such a thing. It passes belief. I may never know the truth as I don't think I can stand this worry much longer. I feel as if I would like to go away alone and die. I did my best to educate Hawley and his son. I did the best I could, and now in my old age I am alone and overwhelmed by this disgrace."

POWER FOR DETROIT

WINNIPEG MAY DISPOSE OF ITS SURPLUS ACROSS THE RIVER

Winnipeg, Aug. 2.—After the lapse of a month since the public vote was taken, discussion of the scheme for bringing Niagara power to the border was renewed at last night's meeting of the City Council, with the result that the Council decided to ask for bids for the purchase of surplus power under a 1500-horse-power contract which may be marketed in Detroit. Alderman Bedford moved that the City Council ascertain the intention of the Ottawa Government in regard to the proposed export of power. The motion did not succeed, the decision being to leave companies bidding for power to make their own arrangements for export.
