The high standing of the Bank of Brit

ence, religion, showing concerning the how and why of things, reveals and which is of its essence. Essentially theistic, it teaches how man may become conscious of his divine origin, and at last unite with that infinite and eternal spirit, cast off all that is material, and to which all must return. The Theosophical society has three objects: 1. to form the nucleus of a universal brotherhood of man without distinction of race, creed, sex, caste or color. 2. to promote literature, religions and sciences. 3. the study of Aryan and other Eastern literatures, religions and sciences. 3. to investigate unexplained laws of nature and the psychical powers latent in man.

No better flautist than Johann Rooden has appeared on the Victoria stage. His selections showed how perfectly at home he is on the mellifluous instrument. Mr. Ryan, in spite of advancing age, seems to have the same mastery over that difficult instrument, the clarinet, he has shown in former years. He received, with very hearty applause, the solo selections by L. W. Hoffmann were most ably done. Miss Lila Juel is the possessor of a very sweet soprano voice, which she displayed to advantage several times during the evening.

-A burglar entered Van Sacklin's barber shop, Tronace avenue, last night and stole $2 in cash and cigarettes and tobacco.

The steamship City of Puebla will return to the Victoria route about June 1. The Queen will be withdrawn after this trip and the Mexico port in her place.
