By means of the annual payments of Members and Associates of Convocation, a Fellowship in Classics has been founded. Grants have also been made towards augmenting the Lectureship in Modern Languages and the Fellowship in Theology.

Argent Wants.

The sum of $100,000 is urgently required to provide for the additional building, and improvements needed in the present building; also to meet the outstanding grants of the Society for Promoting Christian Knowledge, and to provide Professorial Chairs, instead of Lectureships, in the Departments of Physical Science, Natural Science, and Modern Languages. About $20,000 has already been obtained towards this amount.

Chairs in English and English Literature and History are also much needed.
