ENCORE.

The bicyclist who was riding a very high wheel took a genuine header and turned an almost complete somersault. After he had recovered himself and wiped the dirt from his face and clothes he was very much astonished to hear one or two small boys on the sidewalk say,

"Mister, do that agin, will yer? This feller didn't see it."

MERELY FORMAL.

"What did she say when you ventured to kiss her?"

"She said, 'stop right where you are!'"

UNDER CONSIDERATION.

Mrs. Newlywed—"Before we were married you said that my slightest wish should be your law."

Mr. Newlywed—"Exactly, my love; but you have so many vigorous and well-developed wishes that I am as yet unable to decide as to which is the slightest."

ON RIVERSIDE DRIVE.

First pedestrienne—"I see you haven't 'Puggy' with you this morning."

Second pedestrienne—"No; the damp weather is so apt to take the curl out of his tail."
