SUDDEN DEATH :- Announcement of the death of Capt. Wm. McNaughton of Black River, which took place on Sunday afternoon last, was made in Chatham on Monday and was a great shock to citizens generally. He had been in town in apparently good health on Saturday, and attended to his cattle as usual on Sunday morning. After dinner he went to his bedroom for a nap. Mrs. McNaughton's attention was attracted by his heavy breatning and she went to his bedside and found him dying. He lived only a few minutes after. The funeral took place yesterday and was a very large one. Mr. McNaughton was in his 63rd year.
