BULLET IN HIS BRAIN
A MENTAL BENEFIT.

Frederick Bock, who attempted to end his life on July 11 last by shooting himself in the head in his home in Newark, was discharged from the City Hospital yesterday as cured. His case is regarded as a remarkable one from a surgical view point, as the bullet went through both sides of his brain, and when he first came under treatment it was declared that there was no hope for his recovery.

It is said that his mental condition is now better than it was at the time he shot himself and for some time before. He was turned over to the police and will be held on a charge of attempting suicide.

In the Meister singers visitors to the St. John exhibition will enjoy quite a revelation in the art of quartette singing—in the perfect harmony of voices, the faultless precision of the music, delicacy of shading, and above all in the beauty and cleverness with which every merit possessed by music is emphasized. Wherever these talented vocalists have gone they have held their audiences enraptured, and more encores than could be responded to have been demanded. There is no harmony like that of human voices perfectly blended, and in their class the Meister singers have remained pre-eminent for over twelve years, and in all countries.

POLICE COURT.

More Trouble with Unlicensed Junk Dealers and Chinamen.

In the police court this morning two common drunks were fined four dollars each or ten days in jail.

The case against the hackmen, Harry Barry and McCarthy for violation of the regulations at the Eastern Line S. S. Co.'s wharf was to have come up. Mr. McCarthy could not attend at the hour set and as the officer who made the complaint was not on hand the matter stands over.

A number of junk dealers who were reported for not having a license did not put in an appearance and his honor instructed the police to notify all who have not taken out licenses to be in court tomorrow morning and that if they fail to appear he will impose a fine of $40 on each offender.

Kwong Ling runs a laundry on Portland street. He is not a ratepayer nor has he a license. Yeo Goon works for Kwong and he is similarly afflicted. Sergt. Hastings located the "Chinks" and had them in court this morning. Kwong produced a license that bore the date of five years ago and insisted that it was all that he required. Police Clerk Henderson kept the license and the Chinamen were sent to the mayor's office to get new ones.

ALGIES LIONS ARE COMING.

Until F. G. Spencer's return to the city yesterday from Toronto there was some uncertainty as to whether Algie and her lions would appear in St. John during the exhibition. Algie's New York agent broke his agreement to appear here, but Mr. Spencer met Algie personally and induced her to make a new agreement. So that after all the St. John public will see Algie's lions.

LITTLEJOHN ACQUITTED.

Judge Says Bout Was'nt a Prize Fight.

It Might Have Been a Little Rough but It Was Perfectly Legal.

Judge Carleton this morning delivered judgment in the case of Littlejohn vs. The King, on appeal from the summary conviction of Magistrate Ritchie. His judgment establishes the legality of the Littlejohn-McLeod bout, which means the acquittal of Littlejohn on the charge of participating in a prize fight.

The judge carefully reviewed the authorities bearing upon the case. He commented upon the definition of a prize fight as contained in the criminal code. A prize fight is there defined as "an encounter with the fists or hands between two persons," by pre-arrangement. Among the preliminaries of a prize fight enumerated in the code is a published challenge. In the present case there was no evidence of a challenge having been issued. The parties in a casual way arranged for the go. They came together under the Marquis of Queensbury rules. A pugilistic contest conducted under the Queensbury rules is perfectly lawful. Their bout was a mere entertainment of skill and sparring got up to please an audience. There is nothing unlawful in a sparring contest, unless it develops into a fierce, brutal fight.

The circumstances in the Littlejohn-McLeod bout strongly supported the contention that it was a lawful one. A license was duly granted by the mayor, the police were present and took pains to see that everything was in order by examining the gloves and looking after other incidentals. The bout was brought to an end by Littlejohn being knocked out, but there was a doubt as to whether his being knocked out was due to his tripping and falling to the floor with great force or to a blow from his opponent. Judge Carleton thought that the benefit of the doubt should be given to Littlejohn. The contest was doubtless a rough one, but all manly sport is attended with more or less danger.

Littlejohn was accordingly acquitted and the conviction of Magistrate Ritchie quashed.

The only question which is now causing the sporting fraternity some trouble is, will McLeod get his deposit back?

AFRICAN CIVILIZATION MOVEMENT.

Dr. A. B. Walker Elected President—Mr. Chamberlain Condemned.

At a regular meeting Monday evening, the African Civilization Movement Society elected the following officers: Dr. A. B. Walker, president; Rev. E. L. Coffin, vice-president; Rev. J. C. Coleman, secretary-treasurer; and John Jackson, assistant secretary.

The following were appointed as council: Rev. J. C. Coleman, Rev. E. L. Coffin, John Jackson, Mrs. J. C. Coleman, Jack Walker, Miss Evangeline Williams and Rev. Geo. Gilbert Walker.

Rev. J. C. Coleman was appointed lecturer. Rev. Mr. Coleman is the presiding elder of the African Methodist Episcopal Church of Nova Scotia and New Brunswick, and is a gentleman of scholarly attainments. He was educated at the University of Toronto and is the author of several clever books, among the best known of which are "The Jim Crow Car," and "War is Going On."

Resolutions were passed unanimously condemning the attitude of Hon. Jos. Chamberlain towards the black race, and Dr. A. B. Walker was heartily thanked and endorsed for the able stand he had taken in the discussion of the matter in the public press. Speeches were made by the Rev. J. C. Coleman, John Jackson, Dr. A. B. Walker and others.

The object of the African Civilization Movement is to discuss and investigate all matters which relate to the welfare and destiny of the African race and to promote a feeling throughout the world leading to bringing of Africa within the pale of Christian civilization. Its motto is: "We plead for a full measure of justice, right, and equality for all mankind."

These rooms are large and well lighted and will make one of the best club accommodations in the city.

The improvements being made are elaborate. The walls are being repapered, new lavatories are being put in and in every way possible improvements are being made.

Will Call at Amherst and Sackville Every Two Weeks.

Last winter the Kilkeel was on the Parrsboro route but there is now some talk of a change being made. It is understood that the owners have secured a subsidy for the boat to run to up the bay points. The idea is that one week the steamer shall go to a point near Amherst, calling at Sackville and the following week to Parrsboro and Windsor. A new wharf has been built at Amherst near the old Marine Railway slip.

MORE TROUBLE IN N. S.

Bishop's Election May Be Voided After All.

HALIFAX, N. S., Sept. 12.—A slight technichality in the election of the Bishop of Nova Scotia has created quite a sensation. The canon requires, it seems, that if two-thirds of the clerical and lay members are present, a simple majority shall determine the choice. If not, the vote to be decisive must be a two-thirds vote of those present. There were in the lay side 115 votes cast, which lacked the necessary two-thirds by one-third of a man, two-thirds of 173 being 115 1-3. Should the letter of the canon be insisted upon, the vote polled must be not a simple majority, but two thirds of the number, or 76 8-9.

There is a probability that another synod may be called.
