Peter Sheehan, who keeps the crossing gates where the railway tracks cross Mill street in front of the station, placed a life to his credit about 11.20 last night, when he went to perform his nightly duty of switching the Boston train engine from the siding outside the station by which it gets around the train it hauls to take the main line again for Bay Shore, he found a man lying directly across the main line track, about four feet from the switch. The man escaped death by not more than thirty seconds, for within that time the engine passed over the spot where he had lain. Mr. Sheehan pulled him to his feet when the engine was half way down the length of the train shed, and about 150 yards away. He was lying upon his back, with his middle directly on one of the rails.

Matinee Saturday afternoon. FOUR MAGNIFICENT NEW FEA-

TURES AT NICKEL.

Miss Ray Hope held her hearers in the hollow of her hand, as it were, at the Nickel last evening in reciting with enthralling dramatic effect Will Carleton's Western poem, "The First Settler's Story." It was a personal triumph for the clever little lady from New York and everybody from orchestra rail to gallery-top applauded her for it. Today there will be new pictures of which the following are principal: "Aviation Contests at Los Angeles, California," a film that has excited a lot of interest; "Trappers vs. Redskins," a story of the strenuous days when the prairies were infested with warlike tribes and the white man had to fight every inch of his ground. A magnificent Shakespearian production of "Julius Caesar," will be included in the bill, and two comedies, "Baby's First Tooth" and "That's What They All Say," a skit on the men. Mr. Robson will sing his new number and the orchestra has a novelty list. On Saturday afternoon the Nickel will be headquarters with the children again and a fine Indian picture awaits them.

MANDY HAWKINS AT THE OR-

PHEUM NEXT WEEK. The Orpheum have secured a record breaking act for next week. The Old Homestead was never played in Saint John, but at the Orpheum all next week will be heard its practical double. Danny Man, one of the most versatile and clever comediens in the country, has produced a rural playlet named Mandy Hawkins, which will receive its first St. John presentation at the Orpheum Monday, and if half of what the Halifax, Moncton, and other papers say can be believed, the Orpheum patrons are in for a great big dramatic and comedy treat for the exceedingly low price of ten cents. Many is a scream from start of finish, and is just the class of entertainment which best pleases in St. John, nothing vulgar or suggesting anything that will offend the most refined taste. Space does not permit any description of the act or play itself, but it will certainly start prople talking next Monday evening.

At the request of hundreds, the Unique is repeating Nero, or the Burning of Rome, today and Saturday, with the lecture of Mr. Hurley, which all agreed improved the subject so very much. With Nero will be given five other new subjects which emphasises the fact that the repeat is but an addition to the regular programme. Ever since Nero was last shown these requests have been pouring in until the management was forced to the conclusion that Nero is by long odds the most popular picture ever shown in the city. The following features will be included in the programme: The Accomplice Drama Merry Widow Hat (comedy), Pete At The Sea Shore (comedy), Pigmy World, Transformation, Beauty Contest (comedy). Don't let the children miss the mammoth picture programme Saturday afternoon.

CHAMPIONSHIP RACES POST-

Owing to the very mild weather the final races in the city championship series have been unavoidably postponed. They will be held just as early next week as possible, probably Tuesday

The German woman who was admitted to the Evangeline Home a few days and who was atterward arrested on the charge of wandering about and not giving a satisfactory account of herself is at large again. The woman, who was known to the Salvation Army as Annie Muller when she was admitted to the Evangeline Home, has been adjudged to be insane, and the question arises what steps are to be taken to dispose of her. The woman came here from the United States after spending a few weeks there, and it is the general opinion that the Immigration Danartment should take steps to fused to touch the case, but it is nderstood that application will be woman, as it is feared that she will become a public charge or worse.

A party of two hundred immigrants brought to Canada from Great Britain by the aid of the Salvation Army is Jennings met the party at Halifax. The members of the party are destined for the West. Many of the S. A. immigrants decline further aid after landing, having friends located in various parts of the Dominion, to whom they go. This year but few immigrants have been located in the Maritime Provinces by the Salvation Army and in some cases the locations have not been satisfactory.

A recommendation to the Common Council that the transfer of the Harbor property on West Side be made to the C. P. R. on condition that development of the forty-acre tract be begun within five years was passed by the Harbor Board yesterday afternoon. The board also decided to have a committee composed of Ald. Belyea, Chief Kerr, and the City Engineer investigate the matter of better fire protection for Sand Point.

Fred E. Whitcomb, for years supervisor of signals on the Albany division of the Boston and Albany railroad with offices in this city, will be promoted, it is understood, to be general supervising engineer of signals on the entire Poston & Albany system, with offices in Boston. It is said Mr. Whitcomb will take up his new duties the first of next month and will remove to Boston. The read's new system of three lights instead of one will shortly be put into effect on the road, and Mr. Whitcomb will have charge of the installation.—Springfield, Mass, Union. Mr. Whitcomb married a St. John girl, Miss Lillie M. McClaverty, daughter of the lete Arthur McClaverty of North End, and a sister of W. J. McClaverty of the St. John post office,

Martin Fritz, a C. P. R. checker at Sand Point, had the misfortune to lose sixty-five dollars last evening. Fritz put the money in his pocket and came over to the city. He went into a store on Union street, and after making a purchase started to look for his sixty-five bucks, but only to find that they were missing. He searched every one tut failed to find his money. There were three ten dollar bills, six fives. one two, and three ones. Fritz belengs to Montreal.

The staffs of the Unique and Orpheum took advantage of the slight suggestion of sleighing which remained Wednesday evening to disport themselves on the Marsh road, when to the number of about forty-five they to the number of about forty-five they crowded into one of the largest teams available and enjoyed a five mile drive as an appetizer for a spread fit for kings which awaited them on their return in the large hall immediately over the Unique Theatre. The pleasant evening was made possible through the efforts of Steve Hurley, and the excellence of the culinary department reflected huge credit upon the French cook, Rainnie Archambault, who, with his able assistant, John Triffs, placed a standard for the appetites of placed a standard for the appetites of the amusement house staffs which it will be difficult to reach in the future.

Had Weak Back. Would Often Lie in Bed for Days Scarcely Able to Turn Herself.

Weak back comes from the kidneys, and when the kidneys are out of order the whole system becomes deranged. Those who have never been troubled with kidney trouble do not know of the suffering and misery which those afflicted undergo. Doan's Kidney Pills are a specific for all kidney troubles.

They begin by heiping the kidneys to flush of all the acrid and poisonous impurities which have collected, thus clearing out the kidneys, bladder and all the urinary passages and carrying away the uric acid, the chief cause of rheumatism, from the blood.

Mrs. Arch. Schnare, Black Point, N.B., writes:—"For years I was troubled with weak back. Oftentimes I have lain in bed for days, being scarcely able to turn myself, and I have also been a great sufferer while trying to perform my household duties. I had doctors attending ne without avail and tried liniments and plasters, but nothing seemed to do me any good. I was about to give up in despair when my husband induced me to try Doan's Kidney Pills, and after using two boxes I am now well and able to do my work. I am positive Doan's Kidney Pills are all that you claim for them, and I would advise all kidney sufferers to give them a fair trial."

Price, 50 cents per box, or 3 for $1.25, at all dealers or The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

In ordering specify "Doan's."
