WANDERERS HOLD SPORTS

Saturday's Meet Was Most Successful of the Twenty-One Held by Club--Ross Won 5-Mile.

Halifax, Sept. 11.—The Wanderers' 29th annual sports came off on Saturday afternoon. The weather was ideal, the sun shone from a cloudless sky, and the tinge of early autumn was in the air.

For 29 years now has this influential athletic organization held its annual field day and of the 29 perhaps Saturday's was the most successful. The entry list was a good one, and although no records were broken, yet some fast time was made. Fritz Schaefer did the furlong in 10 seconds, equalling his own and the Maritime record. He also came close to the 220 yards and 440 yards marks.

In the bicycle events, Frowse and Perrin, the Chicago riders, had everything their own way. The former is an exceptionally clever rider. He shows good judgment and has a powerful sprint that generally carries him out a winner.

Will Ross made good time, but he could not do himself justice, as he has only been in training a couple of weeks, and carried ten pounds too much flesh.

The 5 mile run saw a great finish, the Wanderer man turning the tables on his old rival Rodgers, and beating him out in a spurting finish.

ST. PETERS WIN FROM CLIPPERS

Harrington Wins His Own Game in Ninth With Smashing Drive to Left Field, Making the Score 5-4--McBrine Tries Two Pitchers Without Avail.

St. Peters 5; Clippers 4. Manager Coughlan's green shirts again demonstrated their superiority over the Clippers Saturday afternoon when in a game that was marked by a mingling of good and bad baseball they annexed the long end of the score in the ninth, the final count being 5-4.

When St. Peters went to bat in their half of the ninth the score stood 4-4, and a single by Britt, followed by a smashing clout of Harrington's bat sent home the winning run. The wonderful little Wakefield twirler had won his own game, won from the McBrines for the third consecutive time and won in the ninth. It was a long drive to the outfield between center and left, which Art Finnamore misjudged by almost twenty feet, and was good for three bases if necessary, and the crowd gave him the glad hand in no mistaken manner.

Looks Good For Senior.

By romping off with their third victory the Saints have secured a mighty sale lead in the race for the championship harbor, and unless something like a baseball earthquake occurs, it would seem as if the conquerors of the St. Peters-Clippers team are going to be marooned in the doldrums of defeat and the wearers of the green and white regain the title, which they lost to the Marathons last season, and should this occur, it will merely be the outcome of Manager Coughlan's baseball wisdom in securing the services of Harrington during the early season.

McBrine has tried out his entire staff of box artists in an attempt to stem this tide of defeat, and although they have not been walloped particularly hard in any one case, they certainly have not proven a match for that cold-blooded curve engineer from Wakefield.

Coughlan, who warmed the bench during the entire season is working the best of the trio now. Only three runs were scored by the Saints in the game in which he was anchored to the mound while Howe and McGovern have been charged up with four and five respectively.

On Saturday, however, it looked much Clipperlike to the spectators, until the 7th, when Howe blew up.

An Aerial Ascension. Although perhaps, were it not for the transgressions of that ancient pair, Messrs. T. Howe and Long, the tale. The above mentioned rents did the aeroplane act, going up with disastrous results. The Clippers secured a lead in the early sessions and held it throughout, a wonderful assortment of luck and fielding saving the Clippers time and again. In the seventh with none out, and two on bases, things began to look rocky for the men and Howe hoisted the white flag. Callaghan was sent in to fill the breach and retired the side without any further hostilities.

In the 8th, G. Finnamore, who was acting in the capacity of spectator, succeeded Bill at second, McBrine evidently being not desirous of experimenting with his young utility man in a crisis.

The saints fell upon Call's offering savagely, but through sharp fielding by the men behind only one run was all they could manage to squeeze across the plate and the score was tied.

The big crowd sat up in anticipation of seeing something interesting. The Clippers were retired with dispatch in their half and it was then up to the saints to win in the ninth.

The Critical Moment. The rooters for the green and white went mad when, with one down Britt tapped out a clean single and then came Harrington. The wonderful little pitching machine received a great ovation from the big crowd, which yelled to him to knock the cover off the ball. And unlike the great Casey, of Mudville fame, he rose gloriously to the occasion. Callaghan next up the best in his repertoire and Harrington waited.

Finally the Clipper man grooved one right over—a walking high twister, and Harrington met it squarely on the nose. Like a speck the sphere sailed out between center and left.

Art Finnamore raced backward more than 20 yards, but misjudged the ball considerably and Britt brought in the winning run amidst thundering cheers.

Following is the score and summary. AB. B. H. P. O. A. E.

CHAS. GRANT NEW TENNIS CHAMPION

Halifax Man Wrestled Title from Angus Cassels of Montreal—Mrs. Babbitt Defeats Miss Thomson.

Before the largest crowd that has witnessed a tennis match here for some time, Grant, of Halifax, defeated Cassels, of Montreal, on the tennis courts, Gilberts lane, Saturday afternoon, thereby winning the Canadian championship. Cassels was preceded here by a great reputation, and although his defeat was unlooked for it was generally conceded that the Halifax man won fairly and on his merits. Grant's victory clearly demonstrated that Maritime tennis is fully the equal of the game as played in the large upper Canadian cities. Grant won out by steady consistent play and was accorded a hearty reception at the close of the match by a host of admiring friends. Cassels' style of play, however, was much admired, and at times he showed the flashes of brilliancy that had made him the former most tennis player in the Dominion. He was unable, however, to offset the steady clip set by Grant.

The weather condition was ideal for play, it being easily the finest day of the entire meet, and a far larger number of spectators than usual were on hand.

In the mixed doubles Turnbull and Mrs. Babbitt defeated Wiswell and Mrs. Lidyard, the Nova Scotia entry, in fine style, thus bringing the second championship to New Brunswick. Mrs. Babbitt's victory over Miss Thomson giving her the Fredericton lady the proud title of lady tennis champion of Canada. The champions in the different events follow:

Men's singles—Chas. P. Grant of Halifax. Ladies singles—Mrs. H. R. Babbitt of Fredericton. Mixed doubles—Mrs. H. R. Babbitt and Turnbull.
