

THE STANDARD'S $6,000 PRIZE CONTEST CLOSES SATURDAY, JUNE 8, AT 8 O'CLOCK P.M.

The Battle of the Ballots is Now On and Who Are the Most Popular and Energetic Contestants in this Section is the Question--Public Interest in the Result is at a Very High Pitch

Candidates Should Not Lose Any Time--Votes Must be in this Office by 8 o'clock Saturday Night, for the Contest Closes Positively at that Hour, or They Will Not be Counted.

It will be decided Saturday night at 8 o'clock to whom the Standard will give two Ford automobiles, eight pairs of gold watches, eight diamond rings, and eight gold watches.

Saturday night and it will be all over but the shouting. That will have to come later, for until the last of the votes are counted and the contest manager, as they should be, will be put into the locked ballot box, as are those brought into the office.

The box will not be opened until the judges take charge of the same, at 8 p. m. sharp.

This makes it quite impossible that anybody but the candidates should know what his or her strength is or what changes have taken place in the standing of the contest since the last count was made in the publication.

For all the contest manager knows some of the candidates that were not in the running at all during the last week may have given votes in the ballot box to give them a prominent place. And they may still be in the "also ran" class.

But speaking of rumors, there were rumors of dark horses yesterday that were quite worthy of credence. In some of the districts there were openings that simply yearned for dark horses. And there were some stars that were quite worthy of credence. In some of the districts there were openings that simply yearned for dark horses. And there were some stars that were quite worthy of credence.

There came word Monday and one yesterday from two towns that had heretofore not been conspicuously in the fight. All the towns are proud of their favorite sons and daughters and there is no sign that the residents of these towns are laying down now at the finish.

It would be idle to speculate on what will be done in the towns and villages who have favored sons and daughters to elect, but they have a very good idea of how to hustle and there are no signs that the residents of these towns are laying down now at the finish.

between now and 8 p. m. Saturday, June 8. Indications point to a strenuous finish and many subscribers will be added to The Standard list before the close. Claims and counterclaims of the contestants and their friends indicate that the outcome is every where in doubt and the interest will be at white heat.

But it will be over in a few hours, even though it has been a warm race, the good feeling will be so prevalent that the losers will be helping the winners celebrate. Everybody will be happy and those who have worked the hardest will be the happiest of all.

No information regarding the reserves polled-to be credited after the close of the ballot box will be given anyone, so do not hesitate to bring or send in your reserves as early as possible. Do not forget that votes in this contest are not transferable and that every vote issued must have the name of the contestant written thereon. Any votes coming in after the closing of the contest, unless the same are made by the contest manager, will be cancelled at once. The contest closes Saturday June 8, at 8 p. m. sharp.

Votes allowed on all subscriptions between the dates of Tuesday, June 5, and Saturday, June 8, inclusive.

COMMERCIAL GRADS. AT ACADIA ACADEMY

Faculty Aims to Make Course Equal of any in Dominion--Art Exhibition Proved Success.

Wolfville, Nova Scotia, June 4.--Wolfville has already become a "sweet Auburn," being not only the loveliest of the Land of Evangeline but also in being rapidly deserted by its hosts of visitors and the great bulk of the student body from college, seminary and academy. The hustle and bustle of the great exodus, which started at day-break on Thursday, was in marked contrast with the very gradual process during the preceding fortnight and Jupiter Pluvius, having considerably restrained himself so that Old Sol could have a clear sky, it has rained ever since and those who remain say: "How providential! What a blessing it kept off so long!"

Two items of interest have lately been mentioned in the other wise ample reports.

The first is the granting of diplomas and certificates by the Acadia Business Academy--a department up on which the governors and faculty are concentrating attention.

Commercial diplomas were granted to W. W. Frost, L. A. Corkum, and Florence Rand.

Bookkeeping was made at least an average of 67 and not less than 90 in any subject.

Certificates were given to Miss Stuart, W. Walter Rand, Fred Rand, Alex. Macdonald, Leopold, Ben Sullivan, Pearl Porter, Edna Nelly, Steve Hopper and Gordon Blair. All these qualified in S. E. Bookkeeping.

Stenographer's diploma--Misses Elmore Eaton, Alice M. Davidson, Ruth McMahon and Dorothy Larkin.

The other important omission was the Seminary Art Exhibition held in the Altman Hall, on Wednesday afternoon and evening by graduates of No. 2 Art Department, Miss Florence Sullivan, N. E. and Miss Clara Chisholm (D. E.), and Clara M. Murphy.

"Little Boy Blue" is a Winsome Girl!

MISS GERTRUDE BRYAN.

When Henry W. Savage set about staging the musical operetta "Little Boy Blue" nearly a dozen applicants were tried out for the title role. None suited. Someone suggested Gertrude Bryan. No one in Savage's office had ever heard of her before but she was given a chance. The success of this 19 year old girl was instantaneous.

The Mayor of Kentville, who presided, and the Messrs. Newcombe and other friends, expressed themselves in appreciative terms of the Wolfville boys' performance. On this occasion of sweet revenge by winning the honors in the wigwam building competition, which the Cuckoos annexed at Wolfville.

Scoutmaster G. J. McKinnon, having returned after Acadia's closing, to St. John, N. B., was greatly missed. He being so very popular with all the Wolfville lads in whose welfare he has always delighted to interest himself.

In the course of his remarks, which ran the true better of earnestness and enthusiasm, he emphasized the importance of the ever-present "Boy Problem," because the boy of today is the man of tomorrow. If any thing permanent is to be done for the average man, it must be begun before he is a man. There is no question for any quarrel with the many organizations for dealing with the "boy problem," but the fact cannot be over emphasized that the boy of today is the man of tomorrow.
