EMPRESS OF BRITAIN.

The S. S. Empress of Britain arrived at New York on Tuesday from England and landed 2,460 American soldiers.

WERE HELD UP.

The steamers Metagama, Saturnia and Sunbeam, with full cargoes and bound for British ports were held up for a time yesterday owing to the thick snow storm.

THE FURNACE LINE.

The Furnace Line Kanawa steamed from London on December 10 for St.
John with general cargo.

THE MANCHESTER LINE.

The annual report of the Manchester Line, Limited, of Manchester, England, shows a satisfactory year.
Business was concluded on June 30th.
The whole of the company's fleet is under equilibrium and running on government account, though a number of the steamers have been retained in the Canadian trade. At the outbreak of the war the fleet consisted of fifteen steamers. Of this number eight were sunk by mine or submarine. Replacements were made by purchasing five and building two steamers. The new boats, Manchester Brigade and Manchester Division, were delivered to the owners during the past summer, and have been in the port of Montreal.
They are capable of carrying over 8,000 gross tons of cargo, and are of greater speed.

With the removal of restrictions made necessary by the war regula-ry of the movements of steamers should soon be resumed, and the gradual relaxation of import and export licenses in this country and in Great Britain will permit before long a return to something like normal conditions. The Manchester Line, Limited, are in good position to share largely in the big export and import trade which is confidently expected to develop between Canada and Great Britain. The company operates between Manchester and Canadian ports, and also has a service to Philadelphia.

MAY LAUNCH NEXT MONTH.

It is expected the new four masted schooner Randfontein will be launched early next month from the Strait Shore yards. She is rapidly nearing completion and is a fine looking vessel.
The Silver Leaf.

Mention of the loss of the schooner "Silver Leaf," which left St. John on Sept. 11, recalls the visit of Captain Poots, of New York, to the city in the early summer, relative to procuring a commander for the vessel. He visited Nova Scotia at first and having procured a captain for the vessel, sailed his arrival in this port to take it over. However on arriving here the captain had procured another vessel.
Captain Poots then procured the services of Capt. Joseph Read, formerly of Fredericton. It is understood that Captain Read accepted the command when a monthly salary of $300 was given him.
