ST. MARTINS.

St. Martins, Dec. 6.—The death of John McLeod, M. P., was heard with regret by his many friends of this place. Should election take place shortly to fill the vacancy caused by his death the election of St. Martins would be a foregone conclusion.

Great interest is being manifested by the farmers in agricultural pursuits. At the last regular meeting of the Farmers' Institute the growing of crops and the production of pork was interestingly discussed by several members. Fred Black reported that he had grown 2,500 pounds of squash and 1,500 pounds of pumpkins during last season.

Mrs. J. E. Hopper, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. E. A. Titus, has returned to St. John.

Capt. Geo. R. McDonough has removed his portable mill to Lake Lomond, while awaiting loading the boiler Mr. McDonough had his hand caught between the wheel of the wagon and the boiler and received a painful and serious injury.

The St. Martins Debating Club has been reorganized for the winter months. F. M. Colman was chosen president and B. F. Palmer secretary.

A heavy fall of snow on Tuesday night is a boon for the lumbermen. Bentley & Co., J. P. Mosher and Capt. McDonough are preparing for a winter cut, and already have a large quantity of pine, spruce and fir cut and stacked.

Burchell Brothers have finished their lumber cut and are moving for the winter to the point of shipment.

ENGLAND NEEDS MORE MULES

Eight Transports Are at New Orleans—Buyers Scour the West.

New Orleans, Dec. 8.—The largest number of British transports ever in this port at one time may now be seen at Port Chalmers. There are seven at the docks and one in mid-stream, each waiting for its turn to receive a cargo of horses.

This fleet of transports serves to bear out the idea that the British government is prosecuting more vigorously than ever the business of shipping of horses and mules to the seat of war in the Transvaal.

The eight vessels represent 8,000 head of horses and mules.

Agents of the British government are scouring the west with greatly increased energy for more horses and mules.

Evangelistic Work in Schools

Rev. A. M. Hubley, president of the Provincial Sunday School Convention; Rev. J. C. Freeman, chairman of the executive and Rev. A. Lucas, the general secretary, have issued a circular letter to the superintendents, teachers and other workers relative to evangelistic work in the Sunday schools. The circular says:

In accordance with the resolution passed at the recent Provincial Sunday school convention in Fredericton, the executive committee take this means of calling your attention to the important matter of evangelistic work in the Sunday schools.

We believe that there are thousands of God's favor in reviving His work, and from the teaching of His word, with personal effort to get consideration of eternal things, we ought to expect His blessing.

In the past years some schools have sought and received a gracious outpouring of the holy spirit, and many scholars were turned to the Saviour, and have since lived Christian lives. Does not this indicate that He is ready to be found of all who seek Him earnestly, and that the time has come for a "forward movement" towards God, that our Sunday schools may be visited with His salvation?

The second week of January is recommended by our provincial convention as a week of prayer for our Sunday schools, during which special appeals be made to bring our scholars to decision for Christ.

The result of such movement will depend upon the preparation beforehand in the heart and mind of Sunday school workers. It is not even now too early to begin such preparations. We therefore suggest that superintendents and teachers

RIVERSIDE.

Riverside, Albert Co., Dec. 2.—Frank Keizer, of Boston, is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Keizer, of Albert. J. McLean, of Machias, Me., is visiting G. D. Prescott, of Albert.

Rev. G. H. Beaman, evangelist, who has been making a tour of the west, came to Albert on Monday. He is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Fullerton.

Rev. F. Davidson, pastor of the Hopeville Baptist church, intends holding a series of special services at Albert commencing Dec. 28.

The Shilo workers are still laboring at Albert. It is said they are to be reinforced by two gentlemen speakers in the near future.

Miss McKinnon, of Hillsboro, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Burns.

Mrs. A. W. Smithers, Jr., and little daughter, who have been visiting Waterford, Kings county, returned home Wednesday.

Mr. Manzer, of Moncton, was in town Friday.

Miss Clara Colpitts, who is teaching in Caledonia, spent Thanksgiving at her home.

Charlie West, of Hillsboro, spent Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elijah West.

Sullivan Anderson, of Waterside, is moving into the house vacated by Hilary Peck.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Carter, of Hopeville, were in town on Sunday.

A joint stock company has been formed to take charge of the Shepody Hotel. Mr. Turner, the present manager, will continue in that capacity until another can be procured.

A special Thanksgiving service was held in the Presbyterian church Sunday afternoon.

The pastor, Rev. R. H. McPherson, spoke very impressively to a large congregation from Psalms 66:30: "I will praise the name of God with a song and will magnify Him with thanksgiving."

The music furnished by the choir was most suitable and much praise is due to the efforts of the organist, Mrs. J. H. Carmichael, for its success. Special mention is to be made of the rendering of "The Birdie's Song" by five little girls. Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Cope, Harry Hughes and Harry Walton have united with this choir, making it one of the best in the place.

A bear weighing 329 pounds was killed near the Crooked Creek on Saturday by three men who were working in the woods.

HOPEWELL HILL.

Hopewell Hill, Dec. 5.—Sheriff E. W. Lynds, of Hopewell Cape, owner of the tug "W. W. McLaughlin," has received intelligence of the vessel's arrival at Buenos Ayres on Dec. 3.

Mariner M. Tingley came home today from Bothwell, where he has been lumbering for Thomas Goodwin, Mr. Tingley intends staying home until after Christmas.

Miss Maria Reynolds is quite ill.

The C. T. U. met in regular session at the home of Mrs. Frank Carney at this place, today.

Schooner Jessie has arrived with freight from St. John and will return to that port.

Arrange for an early conference with their pastors and other Christian workers to consider:

1. If God is pouring out His spirit also here, quickening teachers and turning scholars to Himself, has not the time come for special prayer and effort in your school?

2. Whether this can best be accomplished by your own school alone, or by uniting with other schools in your locality?

3. Whether it would be of advantage to ask help from persons of experience outside your own locality and can this committee render any such aid?

One denomination has already adopted this evangelistic week.

We ask your prayerful consideration of this subject, fraught with so much interest to home, church and nation. We believe that God is calling and not to respond may be to close the doors for a long time.

As an organization set for better Sunday school work, we desire to aid it in every way we can.

Our Sunday School Advocate for January will be a special evangelistic number. A large extra edition will be printed to meet the demand, and extra copies can be obtained for distribution in your locality on application early to our general secretary, Rev. A. Lucas, Sussex, N. B.

MORE VALUABLE THAN OIL

Splendid Artesian Well Struck in the Heart of Death Desert.

El Paso, Tex., Dec. 8.—A despatch from Las Cruces announces that the oil borers at Engle, N. M., have struck an artesian well at a depth of two hundred feet, which swept one thousand gallons per hour through a two-inch hole. The well is situated in the heart of the famous Death Desert, which is one of the most arid regions known, and the strike of water will prove far more valuable than an oil gusher. During the Mexican war, out of a column of 150 soldiers who attempted to cross the desert, all but fourteen perished. Great excitement has been created by the strike.

The Alert is owned by J. Nelson Smith, of Hillsboro, N. B., and was built by G. S. Turner at Harvey, N. B., in 1890.

After a couple of days' fair weather following the heavy frost, the barque, the Alert, experienced more rough weather and gale after gale was encountered, but the only additional damage done was the breaking of a few windows. The barque, however, was not damaged.

The damage to the barque is not the only matter that is worrying Captain Rice, who has not in the least well during the voyage. Monday, when Dr. March visited the barque, he found that Captain Rice had experienced an attack of the grippe, and one of his arms was partially paralyzed. Captain Rice was feeling ill and did not leave the barque after arrival. He does not know what will be done with the vessel until he receives word from the owners.

Alert Badly Battered in Recent Storms.

PUT INTO THIS PORT.

Is Bound to Annapolis—Furious Gale Carried Away Many Spars and Sails—Boatswain Struck by Wreckage from Aloft and Injured—Captain Ill.

The barque Alert, 535 tons, Captain M. Rice, bound from Annapolis, B. C., for Annapolis, N. S., arrived in the harbor Monday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, presenting a dilapidated appearance as far as her rigging was concerned.

The barque, under what sail she could carry, came along Monday for this port and drove into the harbor before a fair wind without the aid of pilot or tug, and came to anchor off Reed's Point wharf. She was boarded by Dr. March, quarantine physician.

After the crew had been vaccinated and the vessel pronounced clear of disease, a Telegraph reporter was allowed to climb over the side and make his way to the cabin, where he found Captain Rice just covering the mark on his left arm made by vaccination. Asked about his voyage and his ship, Captain Rice, who is in ill health, said that the barque had come from Chatham last June, worked at the sawmill all summer, and boarded with her. Four weeks ago today he left her house for St. John, wearing the clothes he had on when found dead. How he met his death is still a mystery.

AUSTRIAN CODE OF HONOR.

A Civilian Suffers Severely for What Is Excusable in a Soldier.

The absurdity and wickedness of duelling has rarely been more dramatically illustrated than in the duel fought by two citizens of Vienna a few days ago, says The London Telegraph.

A handsome woman, thirty-five, is the wife of the junior partner in a large manufacturing firm, mother of a boy of thirteen, had for two years carried on an intimacy with a Lieutenant of Hussars, Benno von Soyka, meeting him clandestinely at his rooms, and seeing him openly in her husband's home. About a week ago the husband was informed of his wife's doings, surprised her in the Lieutenant's rooms, and insulted her. The wife declared she would not return to her home, but would go to her parents and wait for a separation, when she would marry him. The officer wrote to her outraged husband, whom he felt he could not challenge, a letter saying that his regiment had been transferred to a garrison in Hungary, but that he would wait for his orders until the 8th of the month. The husband understood the hint, and sent his second, the two met in the military riding school, where all duels are fought in Vienna. The officer's first shot missed fire. The second hit the wife in the chest. The officer's first shot missed fire. The second hit the wife in the chest.
