Invitations were received from St. Stephen and Campbellton to meet next year, and it was decided to meet in St. Stephen. Before closing honorary membership was conferred on Barry Allan, A. W. Rideout and John Cowie.

Centreville Notes.

Centreville, March 16—Chief Supt. of Education Carter, accompanied by Inspector Maher of Woodstock, who have been visiting the schools of Carleton county, arrived here on Thursday last. With Dr. Hugh Peppers they visited the school here and expressed much satisfaction with its condtion under the care of Miss McLeod, principal, and Miss Ballock, primary teacher.

A very successful supper was given in Sherwood's hall last week by the Church of England Guild. Afterwards the young people tripped the light fantastic for a time.

On Thursday evening A. F. Lockhart, of Hartford, and a number from neighboring lodges attended the session of the recently organized Orange lodge here, and assisted in the initiation of twelve new members.

Friday evening an interesting meeting was held in the Methodist church in the interests of the Laymen's Missionary Movement. Addresses were given by several visiting ministers, and a solo by Miss Pierce, of Florenceville, was much enjoyed.

Rev. Mr. Ayres will be succeeded on this pastorate, in June, by his brother-in-law, Rev. Mr. Pierce, of Prince Edward Island.

A largely attended missionary concert was held at Tracey Mills Sunday evening by the Women's Missionary Society. The offering amounted to over $16.

Mr. and Mrs. Sydney Niles were visiting friends at Woodstock several days last week.

Thos. G. and Mrs. White spent Sunday at Woodstock, from which place the latter will leave for St. John to attend the millinery openings.

Mrs. Jas. Vandyne has returned from Monticello.

Messrs. C. M. Sherwood and H. J. Clark have been quite ill for the past few days. They are improving now, however.

Rev. E. L. Steeves, of Hartland, is announced to preach on Sunday in the Baptist church here. Rev. Mr. Ferguson will take Mr. Steeves' appointments at Hartland on that date.

Word has been received that Chas. F. West and Murray McAulay, who lately went to Boston, have decided since arriving there not to enter a school for chauffeurs, but have applied for positions on the elevated railway.

Burpee & Wilson, of the woodworking factory, Avondale, have leased the Cornell saw mill at Lakeville and are cutting a large operation. On Friday, a young Englishman working there, had his hand badly cut by its coming in contact with the circular saw. It is thought, however, by Dr. Bearinto, that the fingers may be saved to him.

Colin King and wife, of Woodstock, spent Sunday at Lakeville.

Gerald Bearisto, son of Dr. Bearisto, of Lakeville, has returned again to the west, where he is engaged with a telephone company as a local superintendent. He was accompanied by his younger brother, and thus the drainage of the country's young blood goes on.

MRS. HOLT CELEBRATES HER 107TH BIRTHDAY

Wednesday, March 16.

St. John's oldest lady, Mrs. James Holt, celebrated her 107th birthday yesterday. Mrs. Holt, who is living in the Mater Misericordiae Home, is at present enjoying the best of health. She was waited upon yesterday by Mr. and Mrs. Alois Werner, Mr. and Mrs. Bartholomew Holt and Mrs. James Daley. Mrs. Werner is a daughter, Mrs. Daley a granddaughter, and Mr. Holt a son of the old lady.

Mrs. Holt was born in Ballyshannon (Ire.) She has been a resident of this city for 100 years, having left the Emerald Isle when she was seven years old. She is possessed of a very keen intellect and can tell many an interesting anecdote of early days in this city.

WEEK'S BUSINESS WAS VERY DULL

Some Activity in the Provision Market, But, Otherwise, Prices Remain About the Same--The Week's Quotations.

Business has been very dull during the past week in nearly all the commercial markets. Outside of a little activity in the provision market, prices remain about the same. The sugar market has not advanced any more, with the exception of Paris lumps, which have advanced fifteen cents. All grades of pork, as well as lard, have advanced. Canned goods have also increased slightly. The fish market is still very dull, but the outlook is somewhat brighter at present. In the country markets prices, with the exception of ham and bacon, remain the same. Eggs are a little scarce and the prospects are that they will remain so for some time. The principal quotations for the week are as follows:

Lumbermen are all returning from the woods after a hard winter's work. They report the logs all safely browed and ready for stream driving. The cut in this section, however, is very little over half of last year, the season having been very much against lumbering operations.

To be honest about it, dogs are a perfect nuisance in town or city, and nine out of ten owners have about as much use for them as a mule has for a double set of legs. We keep them because the children are fond of them, and so are we, but really Aylmer would be a far pleasanter place in which to live and our citizens who have gardens would have far less to answer for at the judgment day if this were a dogless town.
