John L. Ervin.

Thursday, May 21.

Death came suddenly, last night, to John L. Ervin, a night watchman employed by the Street Railway Company at the car sheds in Union street, West Side. Mr. Ervin, who was sixty-seven of St. James and Ludlow streets, was leaving Home for work last night, after supper, apparently in his usual good health the had walked only a few yards, however, whien he was suddenly taken ill, and had to be carried back to his home, where he expired almost immediately. Dr. Neve was called in, but his services were of no avail.

Mr. Ervin leaves his wife, two sons and two daughters to mourn. He was much liked by his fellow employes, and many friends will hear of his death with regret, and extend sincere sympathy to his family thus so suddenly bereaved.

Howard D. McLeod.

Thursday, May 21.

Chief Justice McLeod last evening received a telegram telling him of the death of Howard D. McLeod, formerly of the Dominion Savings Bank here.
