BIBLE ASSURANCE.

Author of "From the Altar to the Upper Room," etc.

Paper covers. 10c. net, postpaid.

Rev. E. B. Ryckman, M.A., D.D., writes: "Bible Assurance, by Rev. R. C. Horner, is concise, terse, incisive, scriptural, and in accord with genuine Christian experience. His pointing of the necessity of clear conviction, and thorough, honest, repentance, is very effective; his exposition of death to sin and self, and of entire renewal and full assurance, is a good statement of the privilege of the sons of God."

Christus Comprobat

OR,

THE TESTIMONY OF CHRIST TO THE OLD TESTAMENT.

SEVEN ADDRESSES

BY

C. J. ELLICOTT, D.D.

(Bishop of Gloucester and Bristol.)

Cloth, 70 cents, - - Postpaid.

This striking little work has already run into the fourth edition. - It is a trenchant defence of the historical trustworthiness of the Old Testament. The author in his introduction writes: "That which calls out our present anxiety, and makes discussion imperative, is the strange fact that views which appear to many inconsistent with what may be termed the historical trustworthiness of large portions of the Old Testament, are now advocated and commended to us by earnest Christian writers, of whom it is impossible to speak other wise than with respect, and who, in argument, must be treated by us with all brotherly kindness and consideration."
