RCMP VETERANS' A.G.M. The next annual general meeting (A.G.M.) of the RCMP Veterans' Association will be held this coming June, 14th to 16th inclusive, at St. John's, Newfoundland. All veterans and all ex-members (whether you belong to the Vets. Assn. or not) are welcome and encouraged to attend. The veterans in Newfoundland wish to draw to the attention of every prospective visitor the great opportunity this occasion provides for all to visit their scenic province with its unique character. Why not sail from Sydney, Nova Scotia, aboard the C.N. ferry to Argentia, Nfld. — a veritable sea voyage of eighteen hours that will put a delightful variation in your vacation. Landing at Argentia, you'll be but an hour away from St. John's. Then on your return trip to "Canada" (as the Islanders still say) go by way of the Trans-Canada Highway to Channel — Port aux Basques. There you'll pick up the C.N. Ferry back to Sydney, N.S., — a six-hour cruise. In all, a trip of entertaining variety, as scenic and unique as any place in Canada.
