NOTICE TO CREDITORS

In the Matter of the Estate of Ann Conn, Late of the Village of Melbourne in the County of Middlesex, Widow, Deceased.

Notice is hereby given, pursuant to chapter 121 of the Revised Statutes of Ontario, 1914, and amending acts, that all creditors and others having claims against the estate of the said Ann Conn, who died on or about the 22nd day of March, 1918, are required on or before the first day of March, 1919, to send or deliver to the undersigned, the administratrix of the estate of the said deceased, their names, with full particulars of their claims, verified by oath, and the nature of the security, if any, held by them.

And further take notice that after such last mentioned date the administratrix will proceed to distribute the estate, having regard only to the claims of which she shall then have notice.

Dated at Melbourne this 28th day of January, A. D. 1919.

Minnie B. Howell, Administratrix of the estate of the said Ann Conn, deceased, Melbourne P. O., Ontario.

George S. Eddie of Carstairs, Alberta, has sold the homestead farm, south half lot 18, in the 2nd concession, Ekfrid, to James Hawkins for $8,600. This is a highly improved farm of 100 acres, with good buildings.

County Clerk Stuart received information recently from the Department of Militia, Ottawa, that it was expected every town and village in the county would receive some trophy of the war when distribution of these is made.

We regret to know that John E.
Hull, one of our enterprising and esteemed citizens, has decided to leave Glencoe and make his home in the West. Mr. Hull is advertising his home and other property in town for sale in this week's Transcript.

The annual "at home" of the Glencoe Book Club was held on Monday evening at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Strachan as a valentine party. National euche occupied the greater part of the evening. There were five tables, and all present were delighted with the good time afforded.

Prices last year for maple sugar and maple syrup were the highest ever known. Good sugar sold at 25 cents a pound, syrup from $2.25 to as high as $5 a gallon. There has not been much sign of decline this year so far. In 1911 the price of maple sugar ranged from five to ten cents a pound only, to the farmer.

Tillsonburg hockey team will play against the Thamesville-Glencoe Union team at Thamesville this (Wednesday) evening. This game decides the group honors. If the Unions win this game, and no doubt they will, they will play with the London Intermediates at London Friday evening, and London will play here on Monday evening.

Anniversary services will be conducted in the Methodist church next Sunday by Rev. Dr. Macdonald of Kin-tore. Mr. Irwin will preach in the Presbyterian church in the morning.
Mr. Lloyd taking the services at Al-vinston for Mr. McKay, who will preach at Kintore for Dr. Macdonald.
The evening Presbyterian service will be withdrawn.

Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Gillies of Mosa have the sympathy of the community in the death of their little son, Corwin Archibald, aged about three and a half years, which occurred on Thursday, February 6th, after a brief illness from complications following an attack of influenza. The funeral took place on Friday afternoon at Oakland cemetery, service being conducted at the home by Rev. G. S. Lloyd, pastor of Glencoe Presbyterian church. The pallbearers were Lachlan McKee, Mr.
William Brown, Duncan and Mac-Munroe.

A blanket of soft snow, less than an inch, fell on Tuesday night, laying the dust on the streets which was becoming quite a nuisance. Trucks, and during the past week have been dry and smooth and the wheeling good.

Spring-like weather now prevails.
George Bechill received the pleasing news yesterday that his brother, Isaac M. Bechill of Vancouver, is on his way home from overseas and would make him a visit. The brother was in the West and has been at the front through the Lachlan McKee of the war. He is an extensive miner and traveller.

A debate, "Resolved that the proposed provincial highway would prove a benefit to the community," featured the regular weekly meeting of the Presbyterian Guild on Tuesday evening. The subject was ably argued for the affirmative by Miss Marion Huston and for the negative by Mrs.
McKellar. After a lengthy summing up the judges were to one in giving decision in favor of the affirmative. Other members of the evening were a solo by Mrs. Anderson and a solo by Miss Cleo Sutton, which were well received, and short impromptu addresses by several of the members. A resolution of appreciation of the president, H. J. Jamieson, who is leaving Glencoe, was unanimously adopted.

The funeral of Miss Clara Gertrude Curry, youngest daughter of James Curry of Ekfrid, was held on Wednesday morning from the family residence to the Catholic cemetery at Wardsville.
Requiem mass was celebrated at 10.30 a. m. by the parish priest, Rev. Father Mahoney of Bothwell. The pallbearers were her five brothers, Robert, James, John, Michael and Patrick, and her brother-in-law, Alex. McKay.
Besides her father, she leaves five brothers and five sisters, Robert of Windsor, Michael of Chatham, James, John and Patrick at home, Mrs. Zach.
McCormick, Mrs. M. P. Egan and Mrs.
Alex. McKay of London, Nurse Annie of Chatham and Margaret at home.
Miss Curry passed away on February 4th after an illness of four and a half weeks with influenza-pneumonia. She was a girl possessing many good qualities, and her kindly disposition won her many friends.
