P S A L. cxviii. 23.

This is the LORD's Doing ! It is marvellous in our Eyes !

WITHOUT any Reference to the prime and particular View of the Words ; I shall now only observe and briefly clear the General Truth represented in them, and then apply it to the Special Occasion of the joyous Solemnity of the present Day.

For, the General Truth exhibited in the Text is this—that some extraordinary Events, without being properly term'd miraculous, have such lively Characters of their being the Doings of GOD, as they are evidently so to unprejudic'd and careful Observers, and appear marvellous in their pious Eyes.

By some extraordinary Events ; I mean, some remarkable Ones in the natural and moral World, even in the present Ages as well as the former, which greatly affect humane Societies
