SABBATH SCHOOL TEACHERS AND SCHOLARS

WILL FIND THE People's Commentary on Luke a most valuable aid in the study of the International Lessons for 1890.

This valuable little work is by Edwin W. Rice, D.D., and contains the Common and Revised Versions, with Critical Exegetical and Applicative Notes, clearly explaining the Gospel, Map and Original Engravings. Cloth, 12mo, 336pp. Price $1.25.

What Biblical Scholars say of it.
From THOMAS L. GUYLER, D.D.
I do not see how it could be bettered. It is popular in its style, well abreast of all the latest additions to Biblical research, and sound in its theology. What could Sunday-School Teachers or Ministers desire more?
From CHAS. L. THOMPSON, M.D., Moderator of the Centennial Presbyterian General Assembly.
This Commentary is an especially timely and valuable contribution to the exegetical literature of the Gospels.

From HOWARD CROSBY, D.D., LL.D., Member of the American Bible Revision Committee.
I find it just the thing for the Sunday-School Teacher—informing and yet brief, taking advantage of the results of modern discovery and yet not wearying the reader with a detailed display.

From M. B. RIDDLE, D.D., Professor in Western Theological Seminary, Allegheny.
It includes features that could not be incorporated in earlier works, and is packed full of good matter.

Sent postage paid on receipt of price.
