

Majesty's Justices of the Court of Bench, Common Pleas, or Barons of the Exchequer, (which they, or either of them, are hereby authorized and required to administer), in the Form following; that is to say,

I A. B. do swear, That, according to the best of my Skill The Oath. and Knowledge, I will faithfully, impartially, and truly execute the several Powers and Trusts vested in me by an Act, (intituled, An Act for appointing Commissioners to enquire into the Losses and Services of all such Persons who have suffered in their Rights, Properties, and Professions, during the late unhappy Dissentions in America, in consequence of their Loyalty to His Majesty, and Attachment to the British Government), according to the Tenor and Purport of the said Act.

And every other of the said Commissioners in this Act named, shall likewise take the same Oath, before the said Three Commissioners, who are hereby authorized and required to administer the same, after they shall themselves have taken the said Oath as aforesaid.

III. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Commissioners, or any Three or more of them, and they are hereby authorized, impowered, and required, to examine upon Oath, (which Oath they, or any Three or more of them, are hereby authorized to administer), all Persons whom the said Commissioners, or any Three or more of them, shall think fit to examine touching all such Matters and Things as shall be necessary for the Execution of the Powers vested in the said Commissioners by this Act; and all such Persons are hereby directed and required punctually to attend the said Commissioners at such Time or Place as they, or any Three or more of them, shall appoint.

Commissioners may examine Parties on Oath.

IV. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Commissioners, or any Three or more of them, are hereby authorized to meet and sit, from Time to Time, at the Office of the late Secretary of State for the American Department, with or without Adjournment,

Commissioners to meet at the Office of the late Secretary for America.
