Perpetual Youth

Let Me Tell You How to Regain All Your Old Vim, Vigor and Manly Strength. Be a "Health Belt Man;" Feel Young for Balance of Your Life. Age Doesn't Count if You Have the Vitality.

"I could shout for joy. After years of suffering and debility, your wonderful Health Belt cured me. I am a man again. Use my name as you see fit."

C. SIMPSON,
Pilot Mound, Man.

Perpetual youth. That is precisely what I mean. I say as man to man give my Health Belt a reasonable chance, and it will carry you through any business, mental or physical strain you may be under. It doesn't stimulate; it simply adds the electrotonic element to your bone, nerves, tissue and blood; all the force and strength which has been drained from your system by some earlier indiscretion. My Health Belt is essentially a strength giver. It overcomes the private symptoms of weakness in men which sap the vitality. If you are nervous and lack manly vigor, you are passing away thousands of brain cells every day. Ask your physician if this is not true. I stop this awful, weakening process. You wear my Health Belt nights; while sleeping a great stream of soft electricity passes into your body at the small of the back; it cures backache in one application; you feel better immediately; inside of an hour; two months will make a new man of you. No drugs; no privations; no restrictions except that you must give up all dissipation. Let me restore your vitality and you will be able to face the world with new ambitions. The Health Belt cures other ailments, too. A positive remedy for rheumatism in any part of the body, sciatica, lumbago, kidney, liver, stomach disorders.

Special attachments furnished, and worn by women as well as men.

statements. On what authority does he make them? If a man is able to win a girl's affection merely by his correspondence, I should say that he is worthy of the girl or that the girl was not worth winning. I am of opinion that correspondence reveals a person's character far more truly than occasional meetings. I never knew anyone who could write a nice letter who was not a nice person to live with. Whether they would be suitable for a life partner is an entirely different question and can only be decided by the persons themselves. What appeals to one person in a letter does not appeal to another, and so we have various opinions of what constitutes a really nice letter. I wonder if Hiawatha can give us an example of a girl falling in love with a man's letters and then marrying him on the strength of that love! I think she would be hard to find. Such an instance has certainly never come to my knowledge. The second statement calls for brief comment.

The letter from an unsatisfied wife does not show the first statement to be true. I think I am correct in saying that an unsatisfied wife did not marry her husband on the strength of her love for his letters. I would like Hiawatha to explain to us how he can reconcile these two statements.

Although my criticism may appear to be somewhat harsh, it is certainly not intended to be so. Apparently Hiawatha is still very young and inexperienced. I admire his outspoken opinions about dancing as it is practised in this twentieth century. I never could, however, see any harm in a quiet game of cards, though I very rarely play, not liking the game. I am delighted to hear that Hiawatha is a Christian. I sincerely hope he may remain so. There are far too few Christians in this world. There are several other criticisms I should like to make of Hiawatha's letter, but I fear my letter is becoming tedious, so I will conclude. Thank you, dear Editor, for this space.

Pete is Welcome.

Tuxford, Sask.

Sir,—Being a reader and subscriber to your valuable magazine, may I enter your charming circle of correspondents? As it is very dull here on the winter evenings, I would like, with your assistance to gain a few correspondents to pass time away and exchange views with same. I long for spring with its healthful climate and fine scenery, as I only live about a mile and a half from Buffalo Lake, in the Qu'Appelle Valley. The lake is about 15 miles long and from ¼ to ½ miles wide, with high hills and deep ravines on each side, and to the south and west a level prairie, and north and east more rolling prairie. The country is getting quite well settled around here, the prairie mostly broken up and raising good crops each year. I live in the famous Moosejaw district, and am very well satisfied with having come from Iowa five years ago, and would not care to go back there to live. I will sign myself

Wild Olive has her Say.

Elm Creek, Man.

Sir,—Here is another member who would like to gain admission to your club and not to the w.p.b. I am very young—only 15. Have blue eyes, fair complexion, brown hair, and am 5 ft. 2 in. tall. I am fond of music and embroidery. I also play cards and dance, and am very fond of outdoor sports. I like the violin and organ. I play a little on the organ myself. Now, girls and boys, do you suppose "Archibald" really meant all he said. I believe he is just a jolly boy who wrote for fun, and is perhaps laughing at your criticising him. If we all meant all we say, I am afraid we should have a rather dry time. Some of the letters are very good, and perhaps "Archibald's" letter cheered some poor, lonely "homesteader" up who took it in fun. I know I only laughed when I read it. And I always read all the letters every month. I would like a few correspondents of either sex between 15 and 25. Gentlemen who write must not be of the

All Skin Diseases Can be Directly Traced To BAD BLOOD.

Therefore to get rid of these skin diseases it is absolutely necessary that the blood should be thoroughly cleansed of the accumulated poisons, and for this purpose there is nothing to equal Burdock Blood Bitters.

This remedy has been on the market for over thirty-five years and when you use it you are not experimenting with some new and untried remedy.

Miss Stella Eichel, Maitland Forks, N.S., writes:—"I have been bothered with Salt Rheum on my hands for three years and it itched so I didn't know what to do. I tried everything but nothing seemed to be any good. I heard of Burdock Blood Bitters and bought two bottles of it, and now I am perfectly cured and have no Salt Rheum on my hands any more. I cannot speak too highly of Burdock Blood Bitters."
