

This Might be in Paris; But it's the Facade of St. Boniface Cathedral on the Red River.

Where the Bells of St. Boniface Chime Across the River to Winnipeg.

Winter Bricklaying on the Hudson's Bay Co. Building at Edmonton.

The Picture Editor's Scrap-Book

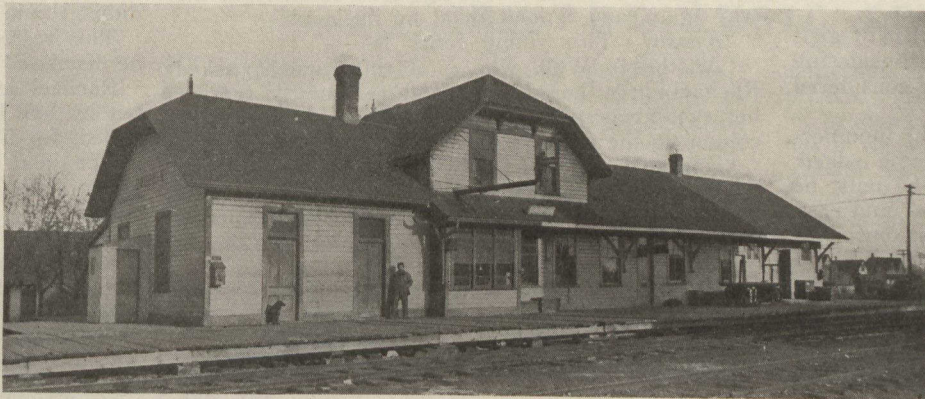

Odds and Ends of Human Interest from the Busy Cameras of Many Readers

An Ontario Ice-cutting Picture That Might Have Been Painted by Maurice Cullen.

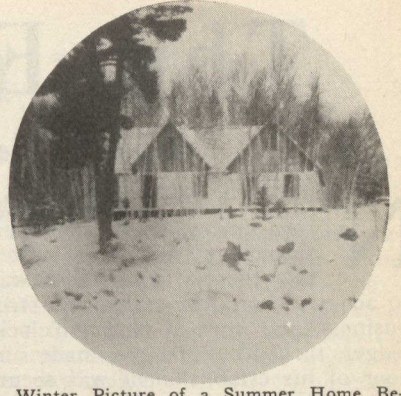

Putting the Roof on the Street Car Barns at Edmonton—in January, 1913.

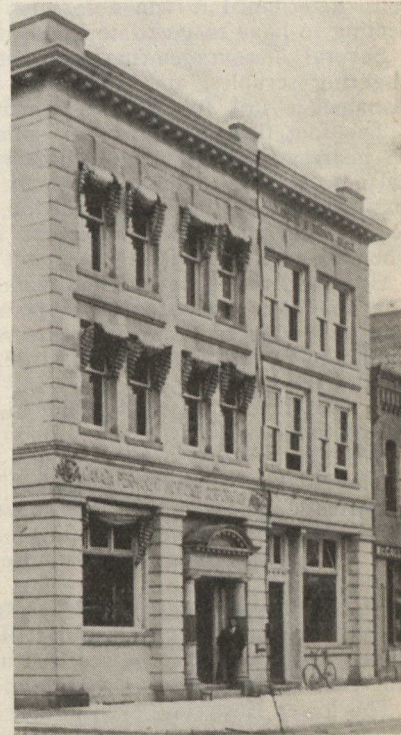

2.—The Second Dauphin Station, Erected in 1899, With Subsequent Additions.

3.—The New Dauphin Station, Built Last Year at a Cost of $50,000.

Winter Picture of a Summer Home Belonging to Capt. H. A. C. Machin at Kenotah Island, Lake of the Woods.

Land at $3,000 a Foot on Scarth Street, Regina; the Part of the Block to the Right of the Doorway Bought by the Canada Permanent Mortgage Corporation.

1.—First C.N.R. Station at Dauphin, Man.

Part of the Upper Lakes Grain-Carrying Navy, Loaded to the Brim, Stalled in the Ice at Port Arthur, Waiting for April 15.