

THE NEW SUB:

A Short History

The present SUB was built in 1950 at the end of a post-war enrolment boom which caused the campus to swell with the addition of returning veterans.

The early fifties saw little growth or activity and the SUB was not used to capacity. Then the post-war population explosion showed itself in a rapid increase in enrolment in the sixties, making SUB inadequate for campus needs.

SUB expansion has been an issue on campus since 1961, the year a Committee on Students' Union Building Expansion was appointed.

In 1962-63 a committee of Council chaired by Iain Macdonald was established to prepare a detailed proposal for expansion. Frank Noffke was retained as general consultant for the project.

change in site of the building was caused by the administration's decision to include a bookstore in the new SUB — formerly the site between the Administration Building and the Armed Services Building had been reserved for a proposed bookstore.

The students and consultants felt the change of site made a revision in design necessary and the SUPC went back to the drawing board.

Meanwhile, student dissatisfaction was becoming evident and the newly elected Students' Council established a board of inquiry to investigate the project and assess student opinion of the project. There was no great student interest — for or against the proposal and the planners continued project revisions.

During the summer of 1964, the Students' Union hired Marvin Swenson to act as professional adviser to the student government and general manager of the Students' Union. J. Andrew Brook was appointed chairman of SUPC for the 1964-65 term and the commission began detailed reports.

The revised detailed proposal, which the student planners and consultants prepared for the building, was approved by Students' Council Dec. 1.

The Board of Governors approved the design concept and the facilities list Dec. 4.

The University Capital Development Committee approved the financial aspects of the SUB project Dec. 14.

The Students' Union Planning Commission is now in the process of determining the specific spatial relationships and the traffic patterns of the interior design of the building and hopes to prepare the diagrams for blueprinting by Feb. 1.

The committee's preliminary proposal was approved in principle by the Students' Council and Council retained the firms of Richards-Berretti-Jellinek and Clarkson-Gordon as architects and financial consultants respectively.

The project, which had been approved in a four-to-one favorable vote in referendum, was then prepared in detail by the student planners and consultants.

At this time the project involved a three-storey structure to be built on the site of the Students' Union parking lot, south of the present SUB.

The project was approved in principle by the Board of Governors, Feb. 19, 1964 and was returned to student planners for study and redesign.

The Board at this time also decided to have the location changed to build the new SUB on the area between the Armed Services Building and the Administration Building. The
