Ref. 9274

Department of the Interior,
Dominion Lands Office,
Ottawa, 25th October, 1911.

Memorandum.

Referring to the subject matter of this file, the undersigned begs respectfully to remark that if it can be shown that the squatters alluded to settled upon the land after having been sufficiently informed that the same was part of the land described as the Reserve of the Band in question set forth in the Treaty, their claims should be disregarded and they should be notified to remove outside the limits of the Reserve, which latter should be surveyed as soon as circumstances will make it
