I am sorry that, having been away from Ottawa the last two or three days, I did not receive your letter in time to write you sooner or to prepare any material. I shall hope to have it in readiness for you by tomorrow night, and to send it forward under another cover.

Meanwhile, I am anxious to let you know how matters stand with regard to the week-end visit, and to express to Mrs. Atkinson and yourself my very sincere appreciation of your invitation.

With kind regards,

Believe me,

Yours very sincerely,
