June 11th., 1918

Sir,-

On the 7th instant the Department instructed Mr. A. B. Wilson, of Elkhorn, to forward to you groceries and provisions on hand at the Elkhorn Industrial School, which institution has been closed, and to send to you also a list of the said supplies and advise you of the date of shipment. Such of these articles as can be used at the Pax Hospital should be kept for that purpose. The balance should be issued as required to destitute Indians.

Your obedient servant,

Forbes
Act. Deputy and Secretary.

S. I. MacDonald Esq.,

Acting Indian Agent,
