

ANNEX B

RESPONSIBILITIES OF THE GOVERNMENT OF EL SALVADOR

The Government of El Salvador shall provide and pay for:

1. (a) normal hotel expenses, including meals, for Canadian personnel and their dependents, until it is possible to secure permanent housing, as well as during the period immediately preceding their departure, once the permanent housing has been relinquished;
- (b) housing containing furnishings, of a standard equivalent to that normally accorded a civil servant of the Government of El Salvador of comparable rank and seniority, when the stay in El Salvador is more than six months. If the stay is less than six months temporary lodging in a house or in an adequate hotel.
2. Transportation:
 - (a) Between the point of entry in El Salvador and the place of residence for Canadian personnel and their dependents, at the commencement of an assignment;
 - (b) between the place of residence and the point of departure from El Salvador, for Canadian personnel and their dependents, on termination of an assignment;
 - (c) for all official journeys, including transportation between the official's place of residence and his place of work when these two locations are not in close proximity; such transportation to be of a similar standard to that normally granted to a civil servant of the Government of El Salvador of comparable rank and seniority;
 - (d) between the points of entry and departure in El Salvador and the destination point of the professional and technical equipment and the personal and household effects of the Canadian personnel and their dependents; such transportation costs to include, where applicable, customs clearance and temporary warehousing in relation to arriving shipments and export packaging and temporary warehousing in relation to departing shipments.
3. Office accommodation and services at Salvadorean government standards, including as appropriate, suitable office space and furnishings, clerical staff and stenographers and other professional and technical equipment, telephone, postal and other facilities necessary to enable the Canadian personnel to carry out their assignment effectively.
4. Assistance in expediting the clearance through customs of any personal and technical effects of Canadian personnel and their dependents.
5. All Canadian personnel will be entitled to leave for a maximum period of four weeks per annum, which leave shall be granted in accordance with Canadian leave regulations, either inside or outside of El Salvador at such time as may be arranged or agreed between the Canadian personnel and the appropriate Salvadorean authorities.
