

sandy and have rather pronounced back slopes. Their crest-lines, which commonly stand four or five feet above the inter-

FIG. 6. Map of the northwest part of Miscou island, showing the old beaches of Grande Plaine (with slight modifications from W. F. Ganong).

vening hollows, are surprisingly uniform for dune ridges. Measurements along the crest of the outermost or newest ridge, in