

TABLE OF CONTENTS

	PAGE
Preface	v-vi
Table of Cases Cited	xi-xxx
Table of Statutes Referred to	xxxi-xxxiii
Table of Abbreviations	xxxv-xxxvii
Addenda	xxxix
Leading General Propositions	xli-xlviii
Historical Introduction	1-35
Sec. I. Formation of the Dominion of Canada—Its Component Parts—Canadian Constitutional Acts	37-40
Sec. II. Synopsis of the Scheme of the Canadian Constitution as contained in the British North America Act, 1867—Its general analogy to the Constitution of the United Kingdom	40-47
Sec. III. The Imperial Parliament — Its paramount authority	47
Sec. IV. The Genesis of Confederation—The Pre-Confederation Constitutions	47-49
Sec. V. English Law in Canada—Systems of law in the Different Provinces	50-59
Sec. VI. The Crown in Canada	59-66
A. The Crown one and indivisible	59-60
B. The prerogative of the Crown in Canada	60
C. The prerogative may be bound by Dominion or provincial statutes	60-61
D. The representatives of the Crown in Canada	61-62
E. The Federal disallowance power	62
F. Principles on which the Federal disallowance power is exercised	63-66
Sec. VII. Certain Introductory Matters and General Principles of Interpretation of the British North America Act, 1867	66-80
A. Plenary powers of Canadian legislatures	66-67
B. Imperial Treaties	67-68
C. Power of Canadian legislatures to delegate their Functions	68-69
D. Law Courts not concerned with the motives of the legislature in legislating	69
E. Colourable legislation	69-70
F. Law Courts not concerned with justice of legislation	70