

THE HOME OF THE ROYAL PRINT & LITHO LIMITED AFTER THE EXPLOSION. This building is situated more than two miles from the scene of the disaster, and so great was the explosion that every window was shattered. Temporary repairs were completed and business resumed with but little delay.