their names. There had been 17 Presidents of Leagues, 13 of whom were invited, two could not be located, and two had died. Of the seven past pastors of the church six were invited and one had died. Of the total 400 members during these years, 335 were sent invitations, and fifteen are known to have died. Letters of cheer and of regret were received from all quarters of the continent, the League being represented by past members as follows: Quebec 1, Ontario 15, Manitoba 9, Saskatchewan 1, Alberta 9, British Columbia 2, United States 12, Mexico 2, a total of 34 cities and towns in twelve Provinces or States and three countries.
This shows the vast amount of good that is being done by the Leaguers, as some of these represent missionaries, and yet some pessimistic soul declares that the League is dying. Far from it!

The programme for the evening consisted of readings, vocal and instrumental music, all of a high order, those taking part being ex-members, who have become professionals in their several lines. The speakers, some of whom were present at the organization meeting sixteen years ago, made complimentary remarks regarding the League work. Rev. T. E.
Bartley enumerated many instances where people in the district during his pastorate had been brought into church connection through the systematic efforts of the League. About 200 members were present, and during refreshments, served in the Lecture Hall, renewed old acquaintances, and recalled old times. This was spent one of the most enjoyable social events of their lives.
