

CIRCULAR.

---

We have the pleasure of now offering to our patrons a list of Occult Books of a quite unusual quality of scarceness and value

The major part is from the library of a well-known and expert collector who has devoted many years of a long life to this pleasant and inspiring duty.

The other departments are well represented, and we purpose issuing in due course catalogues from this purchase as well as from our own well-known and valuable collection, under the following general titles :

- Canadiana—Books and Pamphlets.
  - Americana (including some scarce items).
  - Ireland, Scotland, Masonic, etc.
  - Theology and kindred subjects.
  - English History and Literature.
  - Early Printed Books and Rare Folios,
French, German, Italian, etc.

Terms Cash. The prices are net and do not include express or postal charges. Books can be mailed throughout Canada at the rate of four cents per pound, and to the United States or Europe for eight cents per pound; four pounds being the limit. Any book published over twenty years is entitled to free entry into the U. S. To Great Britain and Europe generally there is of course no importing restriction whatever.

Librarians of American Institutions will save time by forwarding with order the necessary affidavits entitling Libraries and Colleges to import books free of the ordinary tariff charges.

JUST READY

another book by W. T. STEAD, the famous editor of
"Review of Reviews," and "Borderland."

"Letters from Julia ;

or, Light from the Borderland."

Mr. Stead describes these letters as a series of messages as to the life beyond the grave received by automatic writing from one who has gone before. He believes the spirits of the dead can reveal themselves to the living, and has faith in 'automatic writing.' The present letters were written by the hand of Mr. Stead, guided, as he asserts, by the spirit of Julia, a lady who died some months before. The little dainty volume is prettily got up.—London Pub.
