United

nat we federa-

Amer-lown to ne faith o have

arisian

"S

DR

e hair, revents . Mrs. rick, of

, says:

e more

ars ago ny hair

began to turn

g r a y and fall out. Af-ter the use of igor my original ut. An nce kept "-Mrs.

ir Vigor restored ng grav, -H. W.

IGOR

SS., U.S. A

eadache.

EARS

SGR

RIEND

THE CATHOLIC RECORD

FIVE-MINUTE SERMONS.

Fourth Sunday after Pentecost. HOW TO PRAY. Launch out into the deep." (St. Luke v. (

In this account of the miraculous draught of fishes which we have just heard in the Gospel we see a striking illustration of what real prayer should be, and how it is rewarded. Suppose we devote these few moments this morning to the subject of Prayer. We know that prayer is an absolute necessity of the spiritual life. We are strictly bound to pray, if we would save our souls. The manner and the matters of our prayers are, within cer-tain limits, left to our own judgment. There are no conditions of length or lic Columbian. place or time. Long prayers are not necessarily the best ones; on the con-trary, the Publican said only seven words, and the Penitent Thief nine and we have yet to hear of prayers more promptly efficacious. We need not come to church in order to have our prayers heard ; God will hear us anywhere and any time-as He heard Jeremias in the mire, Ezechias on his bed of death, Daniel in the den of lions, the Three Children in the fiery furnace, Peter and Paul in prison.

furnace, Peter and Paul in prison. Note that our Lord first desired home. By careful cultivation of this Peter to "thrust out a little from the land," and afterwards to "launch out love for "growing things," a strong love of the farm may be developed. into the deep." So with our prayers. We must thrust out a little from the And this is emphatically what is they are most wofully lacking in. There are few of the heads of families land-that is, from attachments and affections of earth, before we can fully launch ourselves into the deep of in the country who do not know from spiritual union with God. sad experience what the "States" fever is. Let them try the experiment Do we "thrust out from the land when we pray? And have we Jesus Christ in the vessel of our heart when we make the launch? Our prayers, to be good for anything, should have four characteristics: they should be recol-lected, detached, definite and persevering.

Before we begin to pray, we must place ourselves in God's presence. We must collect all the powers of our minds and hearts, and set them on the one supreme object. The Memory must be called away from every-day way by which we may do good, as folthem. Do not keep alabaster boxes of your love and tenderness sealed up affairs, and used to furnish food for our meditation ; the Understanding summoned from its ordinary musings on worldly things, to reason and reflect until your friends are dead. Fill your lives with sweetness ; speak kind on what we pray for, and Whom we pray to; the Will steadily fixed on approving words while their hearts can hear them. The things you mean to say when they are gone say before God-striving to conform itself to the divine will, producing affections and they go. The flowers you mean to forming resolutions suitable to our send for their coffin send to brighten present needs. their homes before they leave them. If my friends have alabaster boxes Without detachment there can Vague, meaningless generalities are out of place in such a serious business.

Let us make up our minds beforehand about what we want, and then pray for that. It will not profit us much to ask for all the Cardinal Virtues and all the Gifts of the Holy Ghost at one time.

It will be quite sufficient, and decidedly more profitable, to single out some one virtue of which we stand in special need, and make that the particular burden of our prayers and thoughts and efforts for weeks, and months and years, if necessary, until we gain it. 4. And this, after all, is the true test of a genuine prayer—perseverance. "We have labored all the night, and can be no recollection. We must "thrust out from the land." And how can we do this if the vessel of our soul is moored to the shore by a thousand and one little cords of earthly desire, and worry and care, and anxiety and freshed and cheered by them while I passion? All these cords must be cut away, and we must "launch out into the deep," if we would pray aright and have God's blessing in ourselves. Let us have a clear, definite idea of what we are going to pray for.

Torouto, Ltd. Hopped Ales.

putation. . G. GIBSON, Sec-Tres

OUR BOYS AND GIRLS.

For the Girl who Recites. Now that the commencement season s drawing nigh, the girl who recites

"Growing Things."

entertainment and occupation."

of encouraging this natural-born love for the cultivation of the soil by giving the children plots of ground and seeds of their own, and we are much mis-taken if greater interest in the farm loes not result from it. - Antigonish

Speak out Your Love.

A French journal gives oue excellent

Let your friends know that you love full of perfumes of sympathy and affec-tion, which they intend to break over my dead body, I would rather they would bring them out in my weary days and open them that I may be re need them. I would rather have a bare coffin without a flower, and funeral without an eulogy, than life without the sweetness of love and sympathy. Let us learn to anoint our friends before-hand for burial. Post-mortem kindnesses do not cheer the burdened spirit. Flowers on the coffin cast no fragrance over the weary days

Good Resolutions.

Casket.

reat men. The Emperor Joseph of Austria set a good example in this respect one day when travelling in Italy. A wheel of is looking for something that elocutionists, good and bad, have not worn his carriage broke down, and he went to the shop of a blacksmith in a little threadbare. Has she ever thought of "A Legend of Bregenz?" Not long since an elocutionary contest was held in Cynthiana, Ky., and of the number village, and asked him to mend it with out delay. "I would," said the smith ; " but as who entered for the prize, the girl who recited this beautifully told story of the to-day is a holiday, all my men are away at church. Even the boy who blows the bellows is away." heroism of the Tyrol maid was awarded the medal. There was a tie between

The Emperor at the Forge

Some boys think it beneath them to help in common work. Not so with

"Now I have an excellent chance to her and another contestant, but the judges declared in her favor because warm myself," said the unknown Em-peror. So, taking his place at the belof the subject she had chosen.-Catholows (instead of calling one of his own attendants to do so), he followed the smith's directions and worked as if for wages. "Very young children," says an exchange, "enjoy a garden plot of their own, and the planting, transplanting, When the work was finished, instead of the little sum which he was charged, the sovereign handed out six gold weeding and watering furnish much ducats. The "You have made a mistake," said Some doubt is thrown upon this state-the astonished blacksmith, "and given ment by the fact that she commonly truth of this statement is well known, and it seems to us that the thoughtful me six gold pieces, which nobody in this village can change." parent might find in this tendency of child nature the key to the solution of "Change them when you can," said the laughing emperor as he entered his carriage. "An emperor should pay for such a pleasure as blowing the bellows." I have known some shop boys who would have waited long, and sent far for help, before they would have "come down" to blowing a blacksmith's bellows. It is not boys with the best sense who thus stand upon their dignity.

Anecdote of a Scholar.

Who has not heard of the grand cathedral of Notre Dame in Paris? But how many know the beautiful story told of him who built it, and who from a poor peasant boy rose to be Bishop of Paris? In the days then, when Paris was the Cariathsepher, or city of letters, of Christendom, and when students flocked thither from all parts, there came in quest of learning to the great city a ragged country boy. By begging his bread he kept soul and body together, while he stored his mind with knowledge. None was more attentive in the lecture room nor more assiduous at study outside of the More than a decade of weary schools. years thus passes by ; the poor peasant boy is grown to be a man, and Paris is proud of her great doctor, Maurice de Sully. His fame travels far, even to his humble home, where it gladdens his mother's heart and intensifies her ardent desire to see her boy once more To Paris she wends her way, staff in hand, clad in her peasant attire. The first fine ladies whom she accosts to inquire where she might find the doctor Maurice, take pity on her, and, bring-ing her home, offer her refreshments ; then throwing a fine mantle over her coarse woollen petticoat, they lead her to Maurice and introduce her as his mother. "Not so," exclaims Maurice, "my mother is a poor peasant woman ; she wears no fine clothes like these : I will not believe it is she unless I see her in her woollen petticoat. Whereupon the aged dame threw off her fine cloak, and her son embraced her, ex-claiming: "This is indeed my mother." Is it any wonder that when A profitable example has been afforded by President Edwards, whose "good resolutions" we may all of us the news spread through the city, as the chronicler adds, it did good honor lay to heart. "For the future direcion of my life I resolve," he says, to its master, who afterwards became "that I will make religion my chief concernment. That I will never be Bishop of Paris?

The Price of Fame.

afraid or ashamed to speak in defence of religion. That I will make it my Scott is said to have written Waver daily practice to read some part of the holy scripture, that I may become acly in less than six weeks. He wrote very rapidly, seldom revised, and as a consequence, his novels are full of quainted with the will of God, and be blunders, inaccuracies and anachronquickened, and comforted, and quali sms.

BESTFOR WASH Dickens says, in the introduction to "David Copperfield," that he spent two years in the composition of that novel. He did not usually require so ong a time, many of his novels being finished in less than a year, and most of his shorter stories in a few days. George Eliot is said to have written "Middlemarch" in four months. worked slowly, writing with great care and deliberation, and making few erasures after her work was done. Bancroft devoted nearly thirty years to his " History of the United States," which is not a history of the United States at all, since it ends where the history of the country properly begins. Had the work been continued on the same scale down to the present seventyfive or eighty volumes would have been required. Mrs. Clark required sixteen years to prepare Concordance to Shakespeare, Cruden labored nineteen years on his

"Concordance to the Bible," and im-mediately after its publication was sent to a lunatic asylum. He never entirely recovered from the mental disease induced by this gigantic undertaking. Buckle devoted nearly twenty years o the collection of materials for his to the collection of materials History of Civilization." He wrote only a portion of the introduction, which remains a great monument to his literary and philosophical teach ings. If the work had been finished on the same scale as begun, a hundred volumes would not have been sufficient -St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

LORD AND HIS MOTHER.

Tradition furnishes the devout soul with two diametrically opposite de scriptions of the physical appearance of Jesus, and it is therefore to be supposed that there can be no certainty a God, His desire to shun every appear-ance of prizing the gifts for which humanity yearns, caused Him to as sume a body which was rather ignoble than attractive. Certainly this theory have seen Him, and there was no sightphet here speaks of the sacred countenance disfigured by blows, spittle and clots of blood, the defenders of the commonplace appearance of Christ de-

Old Gold ___Smoking Tobacco W. S. Kimball & Co. ROCHESTER, N. Y. Retail Everywhere 10 and 25C. per Package

17 PRIZE MEDALS.

המאמיו מסורנה במחרכה בפינה ההברוב ונכו לכם להומות הביין הבילה ומיודה הביין הבילה ומיודה ביות הב rar, king of Edessa in Mesopotamia, the particulars. Upon mentioning the PHYSICAL APPEARANCE OF OUR trait of Jesus, of whose wondrous deeds matter to him he expressed pleasure in rait of Jesus, of whose wondrous deeds making the facts public, if it was to had heard, the artist attempted to thought that they would benefit anyfulfill the commission; and how the effulgence of our Saviour's counter. Mrs. Smith could probably give the Mrs. Smith could probably give the ance so affected the painter that he was obliged to abandon his design. Nicephorus observes that St. Luke made portraits of Jesus, of His Holy posed that there can be no certainty as made portraits of Jesus, of his holy dance, of a rather severe nature, and to the physical appearance of His Mother and of the apostles; and he a number of medicines were tried, but proceeds to describe the appearance of without any effect upon the trouble. Tathers of the Church our Saviour was not at all like that noble and majestic, grave though sweet personage whom was beautiful. He was fully seven appeared to be getting more severe, palms in height. His tresses were continue going to school, having lost blond and wavy. His eyebrows were continue going to school, having lost blond and wavy. His eyebrows were continue going to school, having lost blond and wavy. His eyebrows were continue going to school, having lost blond and wavy. His eyebrows were continue going to school, having lost blond and wavy. His eyebrows were continue going to school, having lost blond and wavy. His eyebrows were continue going to school, having lost blond and wavy. palms in height. His tresses were blond and wavy. His eyebrows were black, and they did not quite form semicircles. His eyes were large, vivid and of a yellowish color. His nose was long ; His beard black and very short, though His lack ard very short, though His seems to be sustained by that passage (of Isaiah liti, 2): "There is no beauty in Him for comeliness; and we have seen Him, and there was no sight-liness that we should be desirous of Him." When we insist that the pro-phethere speaks of the service carriage was not haughty — indeed, He generally walked with His head. Minie. By the time two boxes were slightly bent. His complexion was like the color of wheat. His face was tion, and after the use of four more boxes was satisfied that Minnie was neither round nor pointed ; but slight-ly elongated and florid, like that of completely cured, as no symptoms of the trouble remained. This was about His mother. Gravity, prudence and clemency were stamped on His features ; in a word, He was very like His the end of June last, and since that mother. The reader will observe that time there has not been the slightest Nicephorus, being a Greek, tries to discern Grecian characteristics in the features of the Saviour, and it is noticeable that nearly every olden much improved. Mrs. Smith also said writer, while agreeing with those of that her younger daughter showed other races in a general description of symptoms of the same trouble, but the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills speedily dissipated it. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are offered clination to depict it as quite similar to

LTIMORE, MD WORK ur wareroom mple.

ROS. ing Engineers, one 538, ater Heaters.

1.5% ET. & SONB, nd Embalm-d day. factory, 543.

LE, FAILOR Street.

orkmanship.

the Saints

Jr One Year 00.

JO.. staints contains the Year. Tay ler's Lives " add which are added saints, recently be United States or Third Pienary like the Lives of by His Hollness by His Hollness by John Gilmary iftui frontispiece y John Gilmary iftui frontispiece and approved by ops. ent to any of our give them credits of THE CATHOLIC ree Dollars. We have taken nothing ; but at Thy word I will let down the net." "Never despair" is the Christian's motto. ed to se Never mind how long we may have labored and prayed in vain; never interests of His kingdom in the world. That I will every day reflect upon death and eternity. I will daily pray to God in secret. That upon all proper mind how weary the spirit, or how weak the flesh ; never mind how little seems our progress and how far away the "mark of the prize of our super-OCeasions, I will reprove vice, and discountenance it, and to my utmost en nal vocation." God will, as He has promised, finally and gloriously recourage virtue and religion. That I will dispute only for light, or to com-municate it. That I will receive light wherever and however overed. That I ward our perseverance. "To Him that overcometh I will give to eat of while give up no principle before I am convinced of its absurding or bad consequences. That I will neves be ashamed to confess a fault to an equa, or to an inferior. That I will make it the tree of life, which is in the para-dise of My God."

of our lives.

Western Handshakes,

day that he could not move it without great pain. Two of the fingers of his right hand, on which he wears a ring, were cut, and his entire hand was badly bruised by the hearty handshakes of Another Old Idea Exploded.

Another Old Idea Exploded. The old fashioned notion that to keep warm of the should be added with a succession of arments till the weight of them was a bur-den and one feit too bulky to move, has beer den and one feit too bulky to move, has beer den and one feit too bulky to move, has beer den and too be at and can adapt of the sa arrived, when a man can adapt is clothing to suit all weather without swath-is clothing to suit all weather without swath-too breath of cold or frosty wind can pene-ded the body escape through it, and it is obsolute non-conductor of heat and cold. Wate it from without, neither can the nation that it from without its adding any per-terble weither that clothing may be interlined with at through, without its adding any per-terble weither of croup, fresh cuts and provide the body escape through it, and it is perfect cute. I take great pleasure in the weithout a bottle in my house. The for the cure of croup, fresh cuts and perfect cute. I take great pleasure in the medicine sold as Bickle's Anti-Con-ment medicine sold as Bickle's Anti-Con-sing the passes, and is a sovereiga remediang it passages, and is a sovereiga remediang the passages and is a sovereiga remediang the passages and is a sovereiga remed the Westerners.

Cardinal Satolli shook hands with a rule to do no action, at any time or visitors for three hours at a stretch place, of which action I should not be during a reception in his honor at willing to be a witness against myself Kansas City on a recent Sunday. His arm was so lame and swollen on Mon-

horse.

hereafter." The Queen of Spain.

Congreve would Papare a drama for the stage in a week to ten days, though four or five times the period was given to the work of revision and Queen Marie Christine, regent of Spain, has just manifested in the streets of Madrid a pretty piece of dereconstruction after the play had be ference to the church that recalls th most picturesque incident in the career of the founder of the house of Haps-burg, to which she belongs. There is given to the actors.

Irving wrote the first one hundred and twenty pages of "Bracebridge Hall" in ten days; the "Alhambra" not a history of Germany that does not describe in glowing colors how Em-peror Rudolph on one occasion, when was mostly written during the three months he spent in that palace; his out riding in the mountains, met an "Life of George Washington" required nearly five years.

aged priest conveying the sacraments Emerson is reported often to have to a dying person, and how he alighted spent from six months to a year in the from his horse, lifted the priest into the saddle and then trudged alongside mposition of one or two short essays. His object was the condensation of the on foot, cap in hand and leading the greatest possible thought into the few-finished.

labor of one man.

imitable poem.

The other day the queen regent, est number of words. Johnson commonly required three or while out driving with her brother, the gigantic Archduke Eugene of four months for the composition of a drama. He generally revised it after Austria, met a priest accompanied by his acolyte, who was carrying the the rehearsals had begun, adding here Viaticum to a dying woman. As soon and taking away there as his judgment as the queen heard the tinkle of the and fancy dictated.

Froude passed seven years in collectacolyte's bell she at once stopped the carriage, alighted with her brother, ing materials and in writing his his-tory of England. He was very careand then, after having forced the priest to take his place therein, ordered ful in the selection of data and spent whole days in the effort to verify a the coachman to proceed at a walking single fact or citation. One of Milton's biographers says that pace to the residence of the dying woman, Her Majesty following behind the carriage on foot with her brother, nearly twenty years elapsed between the sketching out of the plan of "Parwho doffed his hat. - Chicago Record.

adise Lost " and the completion of that Great battles are continually going on in the human system. Hood's Sarsaparilla drives out disease and restores health.

Origen replied that the eatures," Burns committed his poems to mem Christians did not believe that Jesus was of insignificant height, but that ory as he composed them, and when he sat down to write he had before him no they rightly held that He did not have labor of composition, but only the task a majestic appearance or a beautiful of writing down what he had already countenance. Then we hear St. Cle-ment of Alexandria, St. Athanasius

Gibbon devoted over twenty years of and Tertullian avowing that the his life to the labor of reading for and writing the "Decline and Fall." It appearance of Jesus, and not merely was one of the most stupenduous literthat which He presented amid the horrors of the Passion. St. Irenaeus is ary feats ever accomplished by the of the same opinion; he re-marks that the face of Jesus Thomas Moore often wrote a short Prem almost impromptu. He con-sumes over two years in reading and preparine material for "LallahRookh," and two year- more in writing that in-imitable noem. was not beautiful ; but "un-seemly." St. Augustine also favors this supposition ; for he says : "As man, Christ had neither beauty nor comeli ness." However, the reason assigned by the holy doctor for his opinion is exceedingly weak. He says: "Unless the Jews had deemed Him ugly they hinks that it was necessary for Our thinks that it was necessary for Our Lord to assume a lowly and even des-bicale appearance, lest some might be so atth-ated by His beanty as to neglect His most important teachings for the mere pleasing of gazing upon Him. Certainly this argument is no more weighty than that of St. Augustine. In direct contradicion of this cer-tainly repulsive theory, we find many ecclesiastical writers contending that cclesiastical writers contending that Jesus Christ was of remarkable beauty. These authors rely chiefly upon a passage in Psalm xliv, which all Scriptural cholars regard as referring to the Messiah: "Thou art beautiful above the sons of men; grace is poured abroad in thy lips. * * * With thy comeliness and thy beauty set out, With roceed prosperously and reign." St ohn Chrysostom says that Christ was vonderful not only in His miracles ; His beauty struck even a casual ob-server. St. Jerome says that Our Lord drew people toward Him by the brilli-ancy of His eyes. And St. Bernard tells us that the voice of Jesus was sweet and His features beautiful that men were attracted to Him by His work. The actual labor of composition appearance no less than by His words. dance by the use of Pink Pills, the work way difference and a your defers and way it will be for your lateral and the for your lateral and a way and the set of the se that of one of his own nationality in with a confidence that they are the more than one particular.-Rev. Reuben Parsons in Ave Maria. only perfect and unfailing

A MOTHER'S THANKS.

she tells what Piak Pills did for her Child — Suffored from St. Vitus Dance — Lost the use of her Right Side and Almost lost the Power of Speech-Cured In a few Weeks.

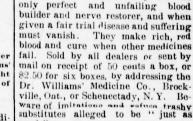

Alymer, Que., Gazette. Of all the discoveries made in medigood.' cine in this great age of progress none have done more to alleviate human the Jews had deemed Him ugly they would not have attacked Him, scourged Him, "etc. St. Clement of Alexandria markable healing power of this favor

Minnie, had been cured of St. Vitus

SIB a Week Easy, and the start of the start

Byron used a great deal of hair dressing, but was very particular to have only the best to be found in the If Ayer's Hair Vigor had market. If Ayer's Hair Vigor had been obtainable then, doubtless he would have tested its merits, so as so many distinguished and fashionable people are doing now-a-days. POOR DIGESTION leads to nervous chronic dyspepsia and great misery, best remedy is Hood's Sarsaparilla.

NOTICE. TO ALL WHOM IT MAY CONCERN.

TO ALL WHOM IT MAY CONCERN. When the publication of the Canadian Free-ma n ceased, a large amount of money was due by subscribers. Up to this time, the publisher did not trouble them with accounts or ask for settlement. The financial circumstances of the undersigned oblige him to appeal to those who were in arrears for the Freeman to pay part, at least, of what they owe. Though the in-debtedness of all is long since out-lawed by hope that a large number of his old friends and supporters—or their children—will be led by a conscientions sense of justice and a recollec-tion of the Freema's usefulness in trying intently delayed for a quarter of a century. The books of the Freeman having been lost, the matter of payment is left entirely to the dis-cretion and homesty of the subscribers. Please address J. G. Moylan, Daly avenue, Ottawa.

24