SATURDAY NIGHT AT 8 P. M. CLOSES OPPORTUNITY PERIOD

In a competition of this kind, like in the daily walk of life, some will win and some will lose. The reason for this is a simple one. There are opportunities that present themselves and are cast aside unheeded by some, and others grasp them and make the most of them. This is the very reason that some of the candidates in The Daily Courier campaign are getting subscriptions to-day and not standing idly by and saying that it is impossible to get subscriptions. Make up your mind that you will get a certain number of subscriptions each day, and don't stop until you get them. Determination is the keynote of success.

Only Two Days More

Only two days more of golden opportunity in The Daily Courier's great campaign. Are you satisfied with the results you have gained in the last few days? Have you made the best of your time? What do you think you will win? There is an old saying that "time will wait for no man," and this is something that candidates should realize. One-half of the time of this great offer has gone. Look over these last few days for yourself. Do you think you have done your best? If not, make up your mind that you will make the future, in a way, pay to make up for the past. Your past is the only proof of progress.

An enthusiast convinces and dominates where the wealth accumulated by a small army of workers would scarcely raise a tremor of interest.

Enthusiasm tramples over prejudice and opposition, spurns inaction like an avalanche, overwhelms and engulfs all obstacles.

Enthusiasm is nothing more or less than faith in action. Faith and initiative, rightly combined, remove mountainous barriers, and achieve the unheard of and miraculous.

Set the germ of enthusiasm afloat in your campaign for votes; carry it in your attitude and manner; it spreads like a contagion and influences every fibre of your industry before you realize it; it begets and inspires effort you do not dream of and it means increase in production. It means joy and pleasure and satisfaction of your helpers; it means life real and virile; it means spontaneous bedrock results—progress, accomplishment and success.
