SUNDAY, APRIL 1, 1900

From Saturday's Daily.

WILL RUSH BOTH WAYS.

The Nome excitement still continues outside, principally by reason of the fact that the coast papers are persistently and insistently booming the new camp by every means within their power.

The glories of Nome and the possible fortunes which there await the fortunate gold hunter have been set forth in such glowing and seductive terms as to have become simply irresistible to thousands of men.

It will be a case of thousands being called and few chosen. Men will go to Nome from every walk in life, who never saw a mining camp, know nothing of the hardships incident thereto, and with the vaguest sort of ideas as to what confronts them.

When the awakening comes to the thousands of fever-stricken Nomads who will be stranded at Nome this summer, there will be a rush to get away as great almost as has been the rush to get in.

A "GRIT" TALKS.

Elsewhere in this issue we publish a communication from a Liberal politician, who takes the position that the present government has been more sinned against than sinning, in that it has been imposed upon by bad advisers.

Such universal attention has given of late to the war in the Transvaal that the Philippines have been almost entirely overlooked. So far as actual hostilities are concerned, the war for supremacy on the islands is practically at an end.

much better results than followed his military operations. Otis has the confidence of McKinley and his cabinet, and will be retained in his present position for an indefinite length of time.

The Yukon country has suffered a great deal from the operations of so-called mining and development companies, whose capital has consisted principally in a high-sounding title and a nicely engraved form of stock certificate.

Old-timers who have just come in from the outside predict that the ice will break up not later than the 15th of April. This theory, of course, is based upon the continuance of the warm weather which has prevailed during the past ten days.

The two millionaires who own the state of Montana are again quarreling. Apparently, Clark wants to run the whole business himself, and Daly seems to have a similar ambition.

The A. B. Smoker.

About 75 members of the Arctic Brotherhood attended the meeting of the camp last night. Several visitors from other camps were present. After a short business session, the festivities of the evening in the way of a social began and until long past midnight there was a "sound of revelry by night."

An excellent program consisting of instrumental and vocal solos, duets and choruses was rendered, many features of which were of exceptionally high order. The fact was fully demonstrated last night that in the Dawson camp of Arctic Brothers there is some high-class talent, both in the departments of music and literature.

The program for the evening was as follows: Chiet Stewart and friend, hanjo duet; F. W. Clayton, song; J. S. Cowan, "The 50 lb. Club of London," recitation; Emil Mohr, song; D. W. McRae, "A Garden Scene," recitation; Rudy Kallenborn, songs with guitar accompaniment; A. F. George, legerdemain and ventriloquism; D. A. Shindler, college songs and piano solo; F. Wells, "The Professor," piano; Kallenborn and Atwood, duet; Sergeant McIntosh, "How it Feels to Be a Hogan," Lew Craden, "The Mouse," recitation; E. J. White, story.

The local camp is in a flourishing condition, and the order being wholly indigenous to the far northland, it having originated in Skagway, it possesses attractions not found in any other secret organization.

STROLLER'S COLUMN

At 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon, a meeting of all persons, who are in sympathy with the Hogan society will meet on the roof of the Aurora building. If the elements are unpropitious, the assembly will adjourn to the warehouse of the C. D. Co.

Be it known to all men that under and by virtue of a charter regularly issued at the home lodge in New York city, I shall institute at Dawson on the 1st day of April, in the year of our Lord 1900, the Glacier branch of the Lord 1900, the Glacier Order.

FRANK CAMPBELL, Billy Hogan Organizer

The patronage which is being extended to the local playhouses must afford great satisfaction to the respective managements. The people of Dawson appreciate good productions, and will encourage them by frequent attendance.

"Now, do tell," said a stranger who just arrived in the city last night over the ice from Bennett, "is it possible that you are missing for gold right in the street of your city?"

"Yes," answered the man of the yellow stripes, "we are doing this work in the hope of finding many things fully as valuable as gold. For instance: Yesterday afternoon we came on to a trace of dishwater which we followed up until we located a full fledged restaurant. This morning we are following a trace of nicotine with the hope that we will be able to trace it to a vein of tobacco; but our steam point has struck something that is possibly a gold nugget as big as an Easter hat, wait an hour or two and you may be able to see something that will delight your unsophisticated eye."

The man waited two hours and a half until the point of obstruction was removed, which proved to be an old kerosene can that had been clogged in the sewer. An hour later the same stranger returned and inquired of the sergeant: "Do you reckon the soil of this here country will produce carrots and pumpkins?"

Everybody Says "Yea, Yea." Owing to the fact that there will be 150 applicants for membership and initiation into the Fraternal Order of Eagles tomorrow, it has been decided to have the aerie meet at 1 o'clock, at which time all applicants are requested to be present for medical examination.
