THE ROBIN'S NEST.

Family Herald and Weekly Star. O touch it not, dear lad I pray! The pretty nest is ours! It cost my little mate and me So many toilsome hours! We are such tiny people, too; Nor hands to work have we; One little beak our only tool, As you may plainly see.

Think of the many sticks and straws, With patient pains we brought! Think of the many beads of mud, With which the nest was wrought! Within, meanwhile, 'twas moulded well And lined, all soft and warm, With silken fibres, deftly laid, To guard our babes from harm. And when the dainty eggs were placed Within the treasured nest, With boundless pride, and love and joy, Thrilled each exultant breast! Then touch it not! Pity dear lad Another bird's distress! We friends are God's creatures, too; Our friends He'll surely bless! —Jane L. Chapin.

Is portrayed as a woman, yet her sex might complain that they get scant benefit of her powers. There is little justice, it would seem, in the suffering that many women undergo month after month.

Justice acts upon the legal maxim that ignorance of the law cannot be pleaded in mitigation of punishment. It is ignorance which causes so much womanly suffering. Ignorance of the requirements of womanly health; ignorance on the part of those who attempt to cure and fail, and ignorance of the fact that Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription cures womanly diseases. It establishes regularity, drives weakening humors, heals inflammation and ulceration and cures female weakness.

"When I first wrote to Doctor Pierce concerning my health," says Mrs. Mollie E. Carpenter, of Cumberland Co., Tenn., "I was so weak I could not write a few words until I would have to rest; was so weak I could hardly walk. Words cannot express my sufferings; dizziness of sight, palpitation, shortness of breath, black spots, etc. shining lights before my eyes, terrible headache, numbness in my arms and hands and tongue, also my jaws got numb; constipation, falling of the uterus, disagreeable drains, soreness through my bowels, I was as heavy as I was at 10 years (125 pounds). I used thirty bottles of 'Favorite Prescription' and 'Golden Medical Discovery' and twenty-five vials of 'Pleasant Pellets'."

Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser, paper covers, is sent free on receipt of 31 one-cent stamps to pay expense of customs and mailing only. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.
