Summer on the Lower St. Lawrence

Canada has been blessed with many noble rivers, but queen of all the rivers of the Dominion, and the most historic, is the broad, steel-blue St. Lawrence.

Both shores of the lower St. Lawrence from the quaint old grey-walled city of Quebec to where the river enters the Gulf, are lined with delightful French villages, many of which have developed into decidedly popular and fashionable summer resorts.

Along the rugged north shore, with its purple headlands behind which rise the darker purple Laurentian hills, are to be found Murray Bay, Cap à l'Aigle, St. Irene and Baie St. Paul. Here the French customs and language together with the charm and hospitality of the habitants, have a peculiar fascination for the Anglo-Saxon.

The scenery is magnificent, the river is so wide that the opposite shore appears like a hazy blue line on the horizon, there is the tang of the sea in the air, the hills are studded with lakes abounding in trout, hotel accommodation is good and whether the tourist chooses Murray Bay, the rendezvous of wealth or fashion, or one of the quieter little French villages, he is bound to have a worth-while holiday.

The south shore, while less rugged, is equally enticing with its long white sandy beaches. Rivière du Loup, Cacouna, Bic and Metis Beach are among the most popular, all offering the best of boating, bathing and fishing amid rare natural scenery. There are excellent golf courses on both the north and south shores.

Those, however, who would escape from all traces of civilization, will find sanctuary in the great forest-clad back country of the Province of Quebec, which abounds in lakes and rivers. Lake St. Joseph, Lake Edward and Lake St. John regions and Laurentides National Park abound in fish and game.

All this territory is served by the Canadian National Railways.
